Item 5. Other Events.

On October 1, 2002, Unocal Corporation, a Delaware corporation ("Unocal"), announced that the Delaware Chancery Court has issued a preliminary injunction that prevents Unocal and its subsidiary, Union Oil Company of California, a California corporation ("Union Oil"), from completing Union Oil's exchange offer for the shares of common stock of Pure Resources, Inc. ("Pure") that Union Oil does not own (the "Offer"). The injunction relates to the structure of the minimum condition in the exchange offer and to certain disclosure matters in Unocal's offering materials and in the Schedule 14D-9 which the Special Committee of Pure's Board of Directors filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The above description is qualified in its entirety by reference to Unocal's press release dated October 1, 2002, filed as an exhibit hereto, and incorporated by reference herein.

On October 2, 2002 Unocal announced that Union Oil is increasing the exchange ratio of the Offer to 0.70 shares of Unocal common stock for each share of Pure's common stock not currently owned by Unocal. Unocal is engaged in discussions with members of Pure's senior management to obtain their agreements to surrender all put rights relating to shares of Pure common stock and options to purchase Pure common stock, in exchange for a further increase in the exchange ratio for all Pure stockholders to 0.74 shares of Unocal common stock for each share of Pure common stock. The increased exchange ratio of 0.70 represents the highest ratio that Unocal will offer in a transaction not involving the surrender of the put rights. The proposed further increase in the exchange ratio to 0.74 represents the highest ratio that will be offered if satisfactory agreements are reached with the holders of the put rights to surrender those rights for no additional consideration. There can be no assurance that such agreements will be reached. The above description is qualified in its entirety by reference to Unocal's press release dated October 2, 2002, filed as an exhibit hereto, and incorporated by reference herein.

Item 7. Financial Statements and Exhibits.
