Section 8 - Other Events

Item 8.01. Other Events.

On January 12, 2005, PerfectData Corporation (the "Company") entered into a non-binding letter of intent (the "Letter of Intent") with Sona Mobile, Inc., a privately-owned Washington corporation ("Sona"). A copy of the Letter of Intent is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this Report, and a copy of the press release issued by the Company and Sona on January 12, 2005 relating thereto is filed as Exhibit 10.2 to this Report, and both are incorporated herein by this reference. There is no relationship among the Company and any of its affiliates, on the one hand, and Sona, on the other hand, other than the Letter of Intent.

Edgar Filing: PERFECTDATA CORP - Form 8-K

Sona, which was incorporated in 2003 and which is headquartered in Toronto, Canada, develops and markets data applications for mobile devices in the wireless data market place that enable its customers to: (1) receive streamed data real-time on a continuous basis; (2) executed secure transactions in real-time; (3) exchange data with corporate systems in real-time; and (4) integrate customers' in-house information with publicly available information of news services such as Telerate.

As previously reported, effective June 1, 2004, Spray Products Corporation ("Spray") had assumed full responsibility for managing the customers of the Company, so that all revenues therefrom were going to Spray and, after obtaining shareholder consent, on November 29, 2004, the related assets of the Company's operating business were sold to Spray. Also, as previously reported, the Board of Directors of the Company had announced its intention not to liquidate the Company, but to continue its search for a merger partner so as to add business operations to the Company.

The Letter of Intent contemplates that the parties will prepare, negotiate and then execute a merger agreement (the "Merger Agreement") pursuant to which Sona would be merged (the "Merger") with and into a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company to be incorporated and the Sona shareholders would receive from the Company, in exchange for their shares of Sona common stock and preferred stock, shares of a to-be-designated Series A Voting Convertible Preferred Stock, $.01 par value (the "Series A Preferred Stock"), of the Company that would be convertible into such number of shares of the Company's Common Stock, $.01 par value (the "Common Stock"), as is equal to 80% of the issued and outstanding shares of the Common Stock on a fully-diluted basis on the date the Merger is consummated (the "Closing Date"). In addition, if the Merger were to be consummated, then, on the Closing Date, four of the five directors of the Company and all of its officers would resign, to be replaced by designees of Sona. The Letter of Intent also contemplates that the Sona shareholders could receive in the future additional shares of the Common Stock equal to 5% of the outstanding shares on a fully diluted basis as of the Closing Date pursuant to a formula to be determined and set forth in the Merger Agreement.

Sona has provided in the Letter of Intent that a condition precedent to its closing with the Company is that the Company have a tangible net worth of at least $1,100,000 on the Closing Date, in default of which the shares issuable to the Sona shareholders would proportionately increase.

Neither party has completed its due diligence of the other, including the Company's review of a draft of audited financial statements of Sona for its fiscal years ended December 31, 2003 and 2004. As indicated above, the Letter of Intent is non-binding, except that once the Company has reviewed and accepted such financial statements and otherwise completed its due diligence to its satisfaction, a party thereafter terminating the Merger without cause shall be required to reimburse the non-terminating party for its fees, costs, and expenses in connection with the Letter of Intent and to pay the non-terminating party $250,000 if it enters into a merger or sale or purchase of assets within 12 months of the Terminating Party's notice. The parties have also agreed not to solicit an alternative transaction, with the directors of each reserving the right to act if failure to act would be inconsistent with their fiduciary duties under applicable law.

Edgar Filing: PERFECTDATA CORP - Form 8-K

There can be no assurance that a Merger Agreement will be executed or that thereafter the Merger will be consummated.

Attn: Harris Shapiro, CEO

Dear Mr. Shapiro:

This Letter of Intent will confirm the following general terms upon which Sona Mobil, Inc., a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Washington ("Sona"), will merge (the "Merger") with and into a wholly-owned subsidiary to be incorporated (the "Merger Subsidiary") of PerfectData Corporation, a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Delaware ("PerfectData"). Except for the provisions of Paragraphs D and E hereof, none of the terms set forth in this Letter of Intent shall be binding on either party hereto. Immediately upon the execution and delivery of this Letter of Intent, the parties hereto, either directly or through their authorized representatives, shall begin preparing a Merger Agreement (the "Agreement"), which shall contain all of the definitive terms of the Merger, including such representations, warranties, covenants, agreements, conditions and contingencies and indemnities as are typically incorporated in such agreements.

A. Basic Transaction.

- (i) As set forth above, on the Closing Date (as defined below), Sona will merge with and into the Merger Subsidiary, which will be the surviving corporation.
- (ii) In the Merger, the shareholders of Sona will receive shares of PerfectData's Series A Voting Convertible Preferred Stock (the "Series A Preferred Stock") in exchange for their Sona capital stock (common and preferred). In addition to any rights, privileges and preferences as may be described in this Letter of Intent, the Series A Preferred Stock shall have such terms and provisions as shall be agreed to by the parties.
- (iii) The Series A Preferred Stock issued in the Merger shall (a) have a liquidation preference (the specific amount of which will be agreed to by the parties), (b) have the right to vote on an as converted basis on all matters submitted to shareholders and (c) be convertible into 80% of the issued and outstanding shares of the common stock of PerfectData on a fully-diluted basis on the Closing Date (as defined below); provided, however, the Series A Preferred Stock shall be convertible into 85% of the fully diluted issued and outstanding shares of the common stock of PerfectData as of the Closing Date pursuant to a formula to be set forth in the Merger Agreement.

- (iv) As currently contemplated, the Transaction will qualify as a tax-free reorganization under Section 368(a)(2)(D) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

B. Basic Conditions to the Merger.

- (i) PerfectData shall have obtained the approval of its Board of Directors to file and shall have filed a Certificate of Designation to its Certificate of Incorporation to designate the Series A Preferred Stock.
- (ii) On the Closing Date, PerfectData shall have a tangible net worth of at least $1.1 million (as adjusted below, the "Minimum Net Worth"), after taking into account all expenses, fees and costs incurred in connection with the Merger and any commitments and contingencies that are not reflected on PerfectData's balance sheet; provided, however, if the Closing Date of the Merger has not occurred on or before April 15, 2005, the Minimum Net Worth shall be reduced by the cost to PerfectData of preparing and filing a Form 10-KSB for the year ended March 31, 2005; provided further, however, that such costs will be "capped" at $75,000. To the extent PerfectData's tangible net worth on the Closing Date is less than the Minimum Net Worth, the relative holdings of the Sona shareholders and the PerfectData shareholders as set forth in Paragraph A.(iii) above shall be adjusted proportionately. At any time prior to the Closing Date PerfectData may raise additional equity capital through the sale of its common stock; provided, however, that, without the prior written consent of Sona, which consent may not be unreasonable withheld, PerfectData may not sell any equity securities to any single person or group of persons in a single transaction if such person or group of persons would, as a result, own 5% or more of the issued and outstanding shares of PerfectData' capital stock after the Merger unless such person or persons owned 5% or more of PerfectData's capital stock before the Merger. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, in the event PerfectData's tangible net worth on the Closing Date is less than $750,000, PerfectData shall have been deemed the Terminating Party under Paragraph E.(i).
- (iii) On the Closing Date PerfectData shall be current on all its filings under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 and its common stock shall be listed on the OTC Bulletin Board.
- (iv) PerfectData shall have received confirmation from its auditors that it will be able to properly and timely file a Form 8-K with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission with respect to the Merger.

C. Merger Agreement.

- (i) Basic Transaction. The Merger Agreement shall provide for implementation of the basic transaction, as described herein.
- (ii) Representations and Warranties. The Merger Agreement shall contain customary and usual representations, warranties, covenants and agreements by the parties, including representations and warranties relating to qualifications, due authorizations, non-contravention, consents and approvals, capitalization, financial condition, taxes, filings under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, material agreements, legal proceedings, legal and regulatory compliance and employees. The principal executive officer, the secretary and the chief financial officer of each of the parties shall certify the representations and warranties "to the best of his or her personal knowledge and information."

- (iii) Closing Conditions and Indemnification. The Merger Agreement shall contain customary and usual conditions for Closing, including the delivery at Closing of favorable opinions of counsel for the corporate parties with respect to customary and usual matters of law, as well as usual and customary indemnification and hold harmless provisions.

D. Exclusive Dealing.

- (i) Beginning on the date hereof Sona shall not, and shall not permit any of its officers, directors, employees, agents or representatives to, directly or indirectly (through any affiliates), solicit, initiate or accept any discussions, submissions of proposal or offers or negotiations with, or participate in any negotiations or discussions with, or provide any information or data of any nature whatsoever to, or otherwise cooperate in any other way with, or assist or participate in, facilitate or encourage any effort or attempt by, or enter into any agreement with, any person other than PerfectData concerning any merger, sale of substantially all of its assets, sale of shares of its capital stock or other equity securities, or any similar transaction, in each case, involving Sona (such transactions being hereinafter referred to as "Alternative Sona Transactions") or authorize or permit any of its respective officers, directors, employees, agents or representatives to take any such action with respect to an Alternative Sona Transaction.
- (ii) Beginning on the date hereof, PerfectData shall not, and shall not permit any of its officers, directors, employees, agents or representatives to, directly or indirectly (through any affiliates), solicit, initiate or accept any discussions, submissions of proposal or offers or negotiations with, or participate in any negotiations or discussions with, or provide any information or data of any nature whatsoever to, or otherwise cooperate in any other way with, or assist or participate in, facilitate or encourage any effort or attempt by, or enter into any agreement with, any person other than Sona concerning any merger, sale of shares of its capital stock or other equity securities, or any similar transaction, in each case, involving PerfectData (such transactions being hereinafter referred to as "Alternative PerfectData Transactions") or authorize or permit any of their respective officers, directors, employees, agents or representatives to take any such action with respect to an Alternative PerfectData Transaction.
- (iii) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Paragraph, if, at any time prior to Closing, the Board of Directors of either party determines, based upon advice from outside legal counsel, that failure to act could reasonably be expected to be inconsistent with the Board's fiduciary duties under applicable law, such party may provide information with respect to such party to another person or entity that has made an unsolicited proposal for an Alternative Transaction and participate in discussions and negotiations with such person or entity relating to such Alternative Transaction.

E. Break-Up Fee.

- (i) Except as otherwise provided in Paragraphs E.(ii) - (iv) below, in the event either party hereto (the "Terminating Party") shall notify the other party hereto (the "Non-Terminating Part") at any time prior to Closing that the Terminating Party is abandoning or terminating the Merger and within 12 months of such notice the Terminating Party enters into a merger agreement or other agreement relating to the sale or purchase of assets with another party, then the Terminating Party shall immediately pay to the Non-Terminating Party an amount equal to the sum of (i) the fees, costs and expenses (including attorneys fees) incurred by the Non-Terminating Party in connection with this letter of intent and the Merger and (ii) $250,0000.
- (ii) Notwithstanding Paragraph E.(i) above, a Terminating Party shall have no liability to a Non-Terminating Party if the Non-Terminating Party has (a) materially breached a representation or warranty contained in the Merger Agreement or (b) if, during the course of its due diligence investigation, the Terminating Party reasonably concludes that the Non-Terminating Party will not be able to make a representation or warranty contemplated by the Merger Agreement without a material exception to such representation or warranty or (c) if the Non-Terminating Party fails to satisfy a material closing condition contained in the Merger Agreement.
- (iii) Either party may terminate this Letter of Intent and abandon the Merger for any reason without any liability to the other party at any time before the Commitment Time (as defined in Paragraph E.(iv) below).
- (iv) On or about January 24, 2005, Sona shall deliver a draft of its audited consolidated financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2003 and 2004 to PerfectData. PerfectData shall then have approximately 48 hours to review such financial statements. In the event PerfectData determines that the information set forth in such financial statements is materially inconsistent with financial information previously supplied by Sona it shall have the right to terminate this Letter of Intent and abandon the Merger without incurring any penalty. In order to exercise this right, PerfectData must provide Sona with written notice thereof no later than 5:00 p.m. New York City time on the second business day following the receipt of such financial statements (the "Commitment Time").

F. Other.

- (i) Expenses. Each of PerfectData and Sona will bear their respective costs, and neither party shall have liability to any other party for any expense of the other party.

From the date hereof until the Closing or earlier termination of this letter of intent or abandonment of the Merger, (a) PerfectData will not engage in any business and none of its assets will be sold or disposed of, except for certain post-closing actions taken to complete the sale of its business operations to Spray Products Corporation, and it will not incur any liabilities except those in the ordinary course of business (including legal and accounting expenses) or with the written consent of Sona, and (b) Sona will operate its business in the ordinary course and consistent with past practice.
