ITEM 5. OTHER EVENTS

As the Registrant announced on January 30, 2003, its wholly-owned subsidiary, Sun World International, Inc., filed a voluntary petition for Chapter 11 bankruptcy protection. As further disclosed by the Registrant at that time, the agreement with its senior lender, ING Capital LLC, to extend the maturity of Cadiz' senior debt was conditioned on Sun World renewing its revolving credit agreement, which condition was not met upon Sun World's bankruptcy filing. While Cadiz has continued to negotiate with ING for an overall restructuring of its debt, on February 13, 2003, ING delivered to Cadiz a Notice of Default and Demand for Payment.

Cadiz can provide no assurances that a restructuring of its debt with ING may be achieved. In addition, Cadiz must raise additional funding to meet its ongoing working capital requirements as such funding is not currently available from Sun World. Cadiz is currently in discussions with several parties to obtain this funding. If Cadiz is unable to obtain such funding and complete a restructuring of the ING debt on an out-of-court basis shortly, Cadiz may be required to consider alternatives that may be achievable on an in-court basis.
