Item 8.01 Other Events.

At the Annual and Special Meeting of Shareholders of Oppenheimer Holdings Inc. (“Oppenheimer Canada”) on May 8, 2009, Oppenheimer Canada’s shareholders approved the proposed change of jurisdiction of incorporation of Oppenheimer Canada from the federal jurisdiction of Canada to the State of Delaware in the United States (the “Domestication”). Following the approval by the Oppenheimer Canada shareholders, the Domestication was effected on May 11, 2009. As a result, Oppenheimer Canada became a Delaware corporation ( “Oppenheimer Delaware”), and adopted the Certificate of Incorporation and By-laws as approved by the shareholders of Oppenheimer Canada at the Annual and Special Meeting of Shareholders.

Upon the effectiveness of the Domestication, each of Oppenheimer Canada’s Class A non-voting shares, no par value per share, outstanding immediately prior to the Domestication became one fully paid and non-assessable share of Class A non-voting common stock, par value $0.001 per share, of Oppenheimer Delaware, and each of Oppenheimer Canada’s Class B voting shares, no par value per share, outstanding immediately prior to the Domestication became one fully paid and non-assessable share of Class B voting common stock, par value $0.001 per share, of Oppenheimer Delaware. Share certificates representing shares in Oppenheimer Canada prior to the Domestication now represent the same number of shares in Oppenheimer Delaware. Accordingly, shareholders are not required to exchange their Oppenheimer Canada share certificates. However, shareholders who wish to receive Oppenheimer Delaware stock certificates in exchange for their Oppenheimer Canada share certificates may do so by submitting the certificates they wish to exchange to Oppenheimer Delaware’s transfer agent, CIBC Mellon Trust Company at P.O. Box 7010, Adelaide Street Postal Station, Toronto, Ontario, Canada M5C 2W9 or Mellon Investor Services, Inc. at 85 Challenger Road, Ridgefield Park, New Jersey, and requesting new certificates.

Prior to the Domestication, Oppenheimer Canada’s Class A non-voting shares were traded on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol OPY. Following the Domestication, Oppenheimer Delaware’s Class A non-voting common stock will continue to be listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol OPY and will be registered under Section 12(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. The CUSIP number for the Class A non-voting common stock of Oppenheimer Delaware will remain the same.

Additional information about the Domestication and a comparison of the rights of stockholders of Oppenheimer Canada and Oppenheimer Delaware can be found in Oppenheimer Canada’s proxy statement, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on April 2, 2009, and available on the Oppenheimer Holdings Inc. website www.opco.com.

On May 11, 2009, Oppenheimer Holdings Inc. issued a press release announcing the consummation of the Domestication. A copy of this press release has been filed with this Current Report on Form 8-K as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.
