SUPPLEMENT NO. 1 TO PROXY STATEMENT FOR SPECIAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS OF PENN TREATY AMERICAN CORPORATION to be held March 12, 2004

On February 19, 2004, after we mailed the proxy materials relating to the Special Meeting of Shareholders of Penn Treaty American Corporation (Penn Treaty) to be held on March 12, 2004 (the Special Meeting), we learned that a portion of our other two series of 6 1/4% convertible subordinated notes due 2008 was converted into 1,267,025 shares of our Common Stock on February 12, 2004, which was prior to the record date of the Special Meeting, February 13, 2004 (the Record Date). In our Proxy Statement filed on February 18, 2004 (the Proxy Statement) we stated that there were 28,619,385 shares of our Common Stock issued and outstanding as of the Record Date. The actual number of shares of our Common Stock issued and outstanding as of the Record Date, including the shares issued in connection with the February 12, 2004 conversions of the 6 1/4% convertible subordinated notes due 2008, was 29,886,410. As a result, certain portions of the Proxy Statement are amended and restated as described below.

The following question and answer under the heading The Special Meeting is hereby amended and restated as follows:

What constitutes a quorum?

The presence at the Special Meeting, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the shares of Common Stock outstanding on the record date will constitute a quorum, permitting business to be conducted at the Special Meeting. On February 13, 2004, 29,886,410 shares of Common Stock were issued and outstanding, held by 449 shareholders of record.

The following question and answer under the heading Proposal I Ratification and Approval of Issuance and Sale of Notes and Related Shares of Common Stock is hereby amended and restated as follows:

What effect, if any, does the issuance have upon the rights of existing security holders?

To the extent that the Notes are converted into Common Stock, the issuance of such additional shares of Common Stock will dilute the present equity ownership of current shareholders. If all of the Notes are converted, an additional 9,142,857 to 9,842,857 shares of Common Stock will be issued and outstanding, which would equal approximately 23% to 25% of our issued and outstanding shares following such conversion. The Notes and our other two series of 6 1/4% convertible subordinated notes due 2008 are convertible into approximately 57 million shares of Common Stock, which would equal approximately 66% of our issued and outstanding shares following such conversion. In addition, we have granted Centre Solutions (Bermuda) Limited warrants to purchase preferred stock convertible into the number of shares of Common Stock that is equal to 15% of our outstanding shares of Common Stock on a fully-diluted basis after conversion, which are exercisable until December 31, 2007, and warrants to purchase preferred stock convertible into the number of shares of Common Stock that is equal to an additional 20% of our outstanding shares of Common Stock on a fully-diluted basis after conversion, which are exercisable in the event that we do not commute our reinsurance agreement at or prior to December 31, 2007. The holders of Common Stock have no preemptive rights to purchase additional shares of Common Stock.

The table of principal shareholders is hereby amended and restated as follows:
