Notice with regard to Teva's Annual Shareholders a Director.	s Meeting and the nomination of Mr. Joseph (Yosi) Nitzani as director since 2003) to serve as the next Israeli Amba Nominating Committee has recommended, and the B Nitzani to serve as a statutory independent director ar statutory independent director to a vote of the shareho to remove the election of Mr. Nitzani as a director from	tment of Prof. Gabriella Shalev (Teva's statutory independent assador to the United Nations, Teva's Corporate Governance and Board of Directors has resolved, to nominate Mr. Joseph (Yosi) and, in accordance with Israeli law, to submit his nomination as a olders. In connection with this decision, the Board has resolved om the items on the agenda of the annual general meeting of older meeting will be convened in the near future to vote upon director under Israeli law.
	for five years. Teva and the Board members are very happy that nized, and Teva takes a great deal of pride in her having worked
When Prof. Shalev steps down from the Board, Teva	will need to have in place a second statutory independent director under Israeli law. Given that Mr. Joseph Nitzani had already been nominated to serve as director and his election had been proposed to be voted on at the shareholders meeting scheduled for June 29, and given that Mr. Nitzani has had no previous connections with Teva and otherwise qualifies as statutory independent director under Israeli law, the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee and the Board decided to take these steps to both comply with Israeli law and provide for an efficient and orderly process.

Mr. Nitzani has given his consent to serve as s Shalev on her forthcoming appointment.	statutory independent director, and he joins us in congratulating Prof.
