ITEM 3.01 Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On May 3, 2012, Good Times Restaurants Inc. (the "Company") received a letter from The NASDAQ Stock Market ("NASDAQ") stating that the staff has rejected the Company's proposed compliance plan for continued listing on The NASDAQ Capital Market for the reasons detailed below. The letter provides that, absent an appeal of the staff's determination by the Company, trading of the Company's common stock will be suspended at the opening of business on May 14, 2012, and a Form 25-NSE will be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") to remove the Company's securities from listing and registration on NASDAQ.

As previously reported on Form 8-K dated February 22, 2012, the Company received a letter from NASDAQ on February 16, 2012 notifying the Company that it was not in compliance with the minimum stockholders' equity requirement under NASDAQ Listing Rule 5550(b), which requires companies to maintain a minimum stockholders' equity of $2.5 million for continued listing on The NASDAQ Capital Market. The Company submitted a compliance plan to NASDAQ in a timely fashion stating an expectation that compliance would be achieved by the accomplishment of its acquisition of a restaurant group or an equity financing which the Company was then pursuing, and the Company continues to pursue such a transaction. However, because no formal agreements or contracts have been yet signed with respect to a proposed acquisition or equity financing, the staff determined that the Company did not provide a definitive plan evidencing its ability to achieve near term compliance with the continued listing requirements or sustain such compliance over an extended period of time.

The Company has the right to appeal the staff's determination by requesting a hearing before a NASDAQ Listing Qualifications Panel (the "Panel"). A hearing request will stay the suspension of the Company's securities and the filing of a Form 25-NSE pending the Panel's decision. The Company has until May 10, 2012 to request a hearing.

Accordingly, the Company intends to request in a timely manner a hearing before the Panel, at which time it will seek continued listing pending its return to compliance with the minimum stockholders' equity requirement under NASDAQ Listing Rule 5550(b). However, there can be no assurance that the Panel will grant the Company's request for continued listing.
