Dear Shareholder,

The annual meeting of Edison International scheduled to be held on April 23, 2009 is quickly approaching. Your vote is extremely important, regardless of the number of shares of Edison International common stock that you own.

The Edison International Board of Directors recommends that you vote "FOR" the nominees for Directors listed in the Joint Proxy Statement, "FOR" the ratification of the appointment of the accounting firm, and "FOR" the management proposal to amend the 2007 Performance Incentive Plan.

For reasons stated below and explained in the Joint Proxy Statement, the Edison International Board of Directors recommends that you vote "AGAINST" the shareholder proposal requesting an advisory vote on executive compensation.

- o Our competitive compensation structure has aligned executive compensation with shareholder value, which has resulted in adverse affects to executive incentive compensation during periods where we have experienced stock price and earnings declines.
- o Shareholders can more clearly express their concerns and have a greater impact on our compensation practices by communicating directly with our Investor Relations department, Board of Directors, or individual members of the Compensation and Executive Personnel Committee (the "Committee").
- o A "yes" or "no" advisory vote would not provide the Board or its Committee with meaningful guidance as to our compensation structure or individual executive compensation payouts.
- o The proposal may conflict with proposed federal legislation and might inappropriately subject Edison International to standards that are different from those that may be enacted into law and applicable to members of our peer group.
- o Because our executive compensation program is already strongly aligned with company performance, an advisory vote to ratify prior executive compensation is unnecessary, and could undermine the fundamental role of the Board and its Committee in formulating executive compensation principles and practices that reflect the interests of shareholders.

Thank you for your continued support.

Very truly yours,

Barbara E. Mathews
Vice President, Associate General Counsel,
Chief Governance Officer and Corporate Secretary
