2.02. Results of Operations and Financial Condition

Albany International Corp. (the "Company") operates its business in the following five segments: Paper Machine Clothing, Albany Door Systems, Engineered Fabrics, Engineered Composites, and PrimaLoft(R) Products. Effective January 1, 2009, the Company changed its business segment reporting by reclassifying global information systems (GIS) expenses. As a result of the reclassification, GIS expenses are presented as being unallocated to any specific business segment. Additionally, the Company has modified previously reported segment operating income as detailed in Exhibit 99.1 to be consistent with the reclassification.

In May 2008, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Staff Position No. APB 14-1, Accounting for Convertible Debt Instruments that May be Settled in Cash Upon Conversion ("FSP APB 14-1"). FSP APB 14-1 requires that the liability and equity components of convertible debt instruments that may be settled in cash upon conversion (including partial cash settlement) be separately accounted for in a manner that reflects an issuer's nonconvertible debt borrowing rate. The Company has adopted FSP APB 14-1 effective January 1, 2009 and will reflect the new accounting in its 2009 financial statements, starting with its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2009. Retrospective application to all periods presented is required. Accordingly, the Company will adjust its previously issued financial statements to give effect to FSP APB 14-1, as applicable. The effect on the financial statements is summarized in Exhibit 99.2.

Item 9.01. Financial Statements and Exhibits.

(d) Exhibits.

99.1 Schedules showing the effect on operating income of changes in reportable segments for quarterly periods of 2008, full year 2008, and full year 2007.

99.2 Schedules showing the effect on financial statements of adopting FSP APB 14-1 for quarterly periods of 2008 and 2007, and full year 2006, 2007 and 2008.
