RADICA SHAREHOLDERS APPROVE ACQUISITION BY MATTEL

EL SEGUNDO, Calif., September 29, 2006 -- Mattel, Inc. (NYSE:MAT) and Radica Games Limited (NASDAQ:RADA) today announce that Radica's shareholders have approved the amalgamation between Radica and a subsidiary of Mattel.

Approximately 99% of the votes cast at today's special general meeting of Radica shareholders approved the amalgamation. The affirmative vote of the holders of three-fourths of the Radica common stock voting at the special general meeting was necessary to approve the amalgamation. Today's approval of the amalgamation by Radica's shareholders satisfies one of the remaining conditions to the closing of the amalgamation. Mattel announced on August 31, 2006 that, with respect to Mattel's proposed acquisition of Radica, the Federal Trade Commission granted early termination of the waiting period imposed by the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, and that the German Federal Cartel Office terminated the waiting period pursuant to the German Act Against Restraints of Competition. The closing of the transaction is subject to additional customary closing conditions, but Mattel and Radica anticipate closing the transaction on October 3, 2006. Upon the closing of the transaction, each outstanding share of Radica's common stock will be converted into the right to receive $11.55 in cash. The proposed acquisition was first announced on July 26, 2006, and is described in more detail in the proxy statement furnished by Radica to the Securities and Exchange Commission on Form 6-K on August 24, 2006.
