This Amendment No. 1 (the Amendment) amends and supplements the Tender Offer Statement on Schedule TO (the Schedule TO) originally filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on June 16, 2008 by Toll Brothers, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Company), relating to an offer by the Company to eligible employees to exchange certain stock options to purchase shares of its common stock, par value $0.01 per share, issued and outstanding under the Toll Brothers, Inc. Stock Incentive Plan (1998) (the 1998 Plan) and the Toll Brothers, Inc. Stock Incentive Plan for Employees (2007) (the 2007 Plan, and, together with the 1998 Plan, the Plans), having exercise prices equal to or greater than $27.24 per share, for replacement options issued under the Plans representing the right to purchase fewer shares at an exercise price equal to the closing price of the Company's common stock on the New York Stock Exchange on the date of grant, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Offering Memorandum dated June 16, 2008 (the Offering Memorandum) and the related Form of TBI Stock Option Exchange Program Election Form (together with the Offering Memorandum, as they may be amended from time to time, the offer).

The information in the offer, a copy of which was previously filed with the Schedule TO as Exhibits (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) thereto, is hereby amended and supplemented as follows:

Item 1. Summary Term Sheet.

Item 1 of the Schedule TO is hereby amended and supplemented as follows:

(1) On page 4 of the Offering Memorandum, the response to item 18, titled Why can't Toll Brothers just reprice my options? is amended by restating the question and answer in its entirety as follows:

Why can't Toll Brothers just reprice my Eligible Options (i.e., lower the exercise price of my Eligible Options)?

The repricing of your Eligible Options by simply lowering the exercise price, like the Exchange Program, could only be undertaken with the approval of the Company's stockholders. In making the decision to recommend to the Company's stockholders the approval of the Exchange Program, the Board of Directors balanced the objective of reinstating the retention and motivational value of our stock option program with respect to our employee-optionees against the impact of such a program on existing stockholders. We do not believe a repricing would have achieved a balancing of these concerns as much as the Exchange Program would because a repricing would have a greater dilutive effect on existing stockholders than the Exchange Program, the number of shares subject to stock options would not be reduced in a repricing, and a repricing would result in a greater charge to the Company's earnings than the Exchange Program.

(2) On page 4 of the Offering Memorandum, the response to item 23, titled May Toll Brothers cancel this offer? is amended by restating the answer in its entirety as follows:

Upon the occurrence of any of the conditions described in Section 7, Toll Brothers may, in its reasonable judgment, decide to terminate this Offer at any time prior to the expiration of this Offer. If this Offer is terminated, any options that were tendered for exchange will remain outstanding and retain their existing terms, including the existing exercise price, vesting schedule and expiration date. Any cancellation of this Offer will be treated, for all purposes, as if no offer to exchange was ever made.
