Objective

The investment objective of the Fund is to achieve long term capital appreciation through investment in companies and other entities with significant assets, investments, production activities, trading or other business interests in China or which derive a significant part of their revenue from China.

The Board of Directors of the Fund has adopted an operating policy of the Fund, effective June 30, 2001, that the Fund will invest at least 80% of its assets in China companies. For this purpose, "China companies" are (i) companies for which the principal securities trading market is in China; (ii) companies for which the principal securities trading market is outside of China or in companies organised outside of China, that in both cases derive at least 50% of their revenues from goods or services sold or produced, or have a least 50% of their assets in China; and (iii) companies organized in China. Under the new policy, China will mean the People's Republic of China, including Hong Kong, and Taiwan. The Fund will provide its stockholders with at least 60 days' prior notice of any change to the policy described above.

The fundamental policy, which applies to not less than 65% of the Fund's assets as set out in the Fund's prospectus dated July 10, 1992, remains in place. The fundamental policy is the same as the operating policy set out above, except that China only includes the People's Republic of China.

Manager's Comments

China stockmarkets fell heavily in the third quarter (MSCI Golden Dragon -26%) as the extent of the slow-down in global economic growth became evident. Investor sentiment was further undermined by the events of September 11. Whilst China's export sector will inevitably be affected by a temporary reduction in US demand, China's exporters remain internationally competitive - foreign exchange reserves have now topped US$200bn. We believe that the Chinese currency is likely to appreciate against the US dollar in the medium term. With its large, domestic economy, we expect China's growth to remain relatively resilient. We therefore feel that the extremely low prices - on which some of the Chinese stocks now stand - represent excellent value for long-term investors. This is particularly true of the private sector companies on which your Fund concentrates.

Private sector companies, or "P" shares, are starting to receive attention from the international investment community, disenchanted with the returns on investment in state-owned enterprises. Your manager was speaking at a conference of such companies on September 11 in New York. The benefits of such companies can be summarized as:

- o $\,$ the managers are shareholders and therefore have a shared interest with minority investors
- o they lack the historical burdens of state-owned enterprises, in terms of over-manning, debts, receivables and out-dated equipment
- o $\,$ they tend to be in newer, less capital-intensive industries with better growth prospects $\,$
- o managements are more flexible and should be better able to exploit opportunities thrown up by the de-regulation of China's economy and WTO entry

Investing in the Chinese private sector is not without risk. Entrepreneurs can be distracted by unrelated projects. The companies are new and often lack an understanding of capital markets. The private sector has only recently been recognized in the Chinese constitution and private sector companies can be at a disadvantage under existing legal and financial frameworks. However, we believe that by investing in a selection of the best entrepreneurial companies, your Fund spreads risk whilst maximizing potential returns for investors. Chinese "P" shares in the portfolio include China Rare Earth, TCL (TV and electronics), Global Biochem (corn starch and sweeteners), Xinao Gas (LNG distribution), Euro-Asia (orchid seedlings), Asia Dekor (HDF flooring) and Luthai Textile.

Another way in which your Fund seeks to access opportunities in the Chinese private sector is to invest in Taiwan-listed companies which derive a substantial portion of their earnings from China. These companies often have the advantage of being more mature than the Chinese "P" shares. Given that the Taiwan market is now at an 8-year low, this is also currently a cheap way to access Chinese growth. Such companies in the portfolio include Choice Communications (printing), Pacific Construction (department stores), Premier Image (cameras), Phoenixtech (uninterruptible power supplies) and Hotung Chemical (petrochemicals).

The Fund is managed in a bottom-up fashion, by selecting individual companies rather than taking a position relative to sector weightings. But we note that the overall effect of these selections is that the Fund is currently biased towards the consumer and energy sectors, and away from IT, telecoms and financials. We estimate that the overall portfolio is trading on 9x 2000 earnings.
