ITEM 1. SECURITY AND ISSUER

This Amendment No. 1 to Schedule 13D relates to the Common Stock, par value $0.01 per share (the "Common Stock"), of TransMontaigne Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"). The principal executive offices of the Company are located at 1670 Broadway, Suite 3100, Denver, Colorado 80202. Morgan Stanley ("MS"), Morgan Stanley Capital Group Inc. ("MSCGI"), Morgan Stanley & Co. Incorporated ("MS&Co."), and Morgan Stanley DW Inc. ("MSDW", and, together with MS, MSCGI, and MS&Co., the "Reporting Persons") hereby amend the Schedule 13D originally filed on January 10, 2005.

ITEM 2. IDENTITY AND BACKGROUND

Item 2 is hereby amended in its entirety as follows:

This Schedule 13D is being filed jointly on behalf of the Reporting Persons. The name, business address, present principal occupation or employment and citizenship of each director and executive officer of MS, MSCGI, MS&Co. and MSDW are set forth in Schedules A, B, C and D, respectively.

The address of the principal business office of MS and MS&Co. is 1585 Broadway, New York, New York, 10036. The address of the principal business office of MSCGI and MSDW is 2000 Westchester Avenue, Floor 01, Purchase, NY 10577.

MS is a global financial services firm that maintains leading market positions in each of its business segments - Institutional Securities, Global Wealth Management Group, Asset Management, and Discover.

 $\,$  MSCGI is a wholly owned subsidiary of MS. MSCGI effects non-regulated transactions with various international clients in various international markets. MSCGI is a non-clearing member of NYMEX and executes transactions for its own account on such exchange.

MS&Co. and MSDW are wholly-owned subsidiaries of MS.

During the last five years, none of the Reporting Persons, and to the knowledge of the Reporting Persons, any of the persons listed on Schedules A, B or C attached hereto, has (1) been convicted in a criminal proceeding (excluding traffic violations or similar misdemeanors) or (2) has been a party to a civil proceeding of a judicial or administrative body of competent jurisdiction and as a result of such proceeding was or is subject to a judgment, decree or final order enjoining future violations of, or prohibiting or mandating activities subject to, federal or state securities laws or finding any violation with respect to such laws, other than, in the case of clause (2), as described in paragraphs (i), (ii) and (iii) below. Unless the context otherwise requires, the term "Morgan Stanley" means MS and its consolidated subsidiaries.

(i) In April 2003, MS&Co., along with nine other financial services firms operating in the U.S., reached a settlement with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), the New York State Attorney General's Office, the New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE"), the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. ("NASD"), and the North American Securities Administrators Association (on behalf of state securities regulators) to resolve their investigations relating to alleged research conflicts of interest. Without admitting or denying allegations with respect to violations of certain rules of the NYSE and NASD relating to investment research activities (there were no allegations of fraud or federal securities law violations made against MS&Co.), Morgan Stanley agreed, among other things, to (1) pay $25 million as a penalty, (2) pay $25 million as disgorgement of commissions and other monies, (3) provide $75 million over five years to make available independent third-party research to clients and (4) be permanently enjoined from violating certain rules of the NYSE and NASD relating to investment research activities.

- (ii) On November 17, 2003, MSDW consented, without admitting or denying the findings, to an entry of an order (the "Order") that resolved the SEC's and NASD's investigations into certain practices relating to MSDW's offer and sale of certain mutual funds from January 1, 2000 to the date of the Order. Pursuant to the Order, MSDW was ordered to (1) cease and desist from committing any violations and any future violations of Section 17(a)(2) of the Securities Act of 1933 and Rule 10b-10 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Exchange Act"), (2) distribute for the benefit of certain customers who purchased funds through MSDW pursuant to marketing arrangements between MSDW and certain mutual fund complexes the amount of $50 million and (3) make certain disclosures and take certain other actions with respect to proprietary mutual funds.
- (iii) In January 2005, the SEC announced a settlement with MS&Co. and Goldman Sachs & Co. resolving the SEC's investigation relating to initial public offering ("IPO") allocation practices. The SEC filed a settled civil injunction action in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia against MS&Co. relating to the allocation of stock to institutional customers in IPOs underwritten during 1999 and 2000. Under the terms of the settlement, Morgan Stanley agreed, without admitting or denying the allegations, to the entry of a judgment enjoining it from violating Rule 101 of Regulation M and the payment of a $40 million civil penalty. The court approved the settlement on February 4, 2005. The complaint alleges that MS&Co. violated Rule 101 of Regulation M by attempting to induce certain customers who received allocations of IPOs to place purchase orders for additional shares in the aftermarket.

ITEM 3. SOURCE AND AMOUNT OF FUNDS OR OTHER CONSIDERATION

Item 3 is hereby amended by adding the following:

 $\,$  MS plans to finance the transactions described in Item 4 below with available cash, other liquid assets, and proceeds from the incurrence of new debt.

ITEM 4. PURPOSE OF TRANSACTION

Item 4 is hereby amended by adding the following:

On March 21, 2006, MSCGI sent the following letter to the Company's board of directors.

[MSCGI Letterhead]

March 21, 2006

Mr. Donald H. Anderson Vice Chairman, President, and CEO TransMontaigne Inc. 1670 Broadway, Ste. 3100

Denver, CO 80202 U.S.A.

Dear Don:

In connection with our ongoing discussions regarding our business relationships, you inquired of our plans with respect to Transmontaigne Inc. (the "Company"), and in particular whether we would be interested in an expansion of our strategic relationship. We advised you that absent due diligence we would not be in a position to assess our interest, but that we would be willing to undertake a due diligence investigation to determine whether or not we had such an interest. In that connection, we would like to thank you for the opportunity that you have provided to Morgan Stanley Capital Group, Inc. ("Morgan Stanley") and its representatives to perform a due diligence investigation of the Company. We appreciate the time and effort that Company management has devoted to providing us information about the Company, and we are very satisfied with the progress and results of our investigation to date.

As a result of that investigation, Morgan Stanley is pleased to propose to acquire, directly or indirectly, 100% of the equity securities of the Company at a price per share of $8.50. If this is attractive to you, we would propose completing remaining due diligence expeditiously, while simultaneously negotiating definitive transaction agreements and obtaining definitive financing commitments.

Our proposal is conditioned upon our satisfaction with final due diligence, regulatory and other customary conditions, the negotiation of definitive transaction documents, the receipt of final approvals from both your and our boards of directors, and finalization of financing commitments. Morgan Stanley and its advisors are prepared to devote all necessary time and resources to complete this transaction promptly. We are available at your convenience to answer any questions that you may have concerning our proposal.

This letter is a non-binding indication of the interest of Morgan Stanley in acquiring the Company, and does not reflect an agreement (or agreement to agree) or other legally binding obligation. Neither Morgan Stanley nor the Company shall have any obligation to enter into or consummate a transaction, except if and to the extent reflected in definitive agreements executed by the parties. As we are sure you understand, consistent with our obligations under federal securities laws, this letter will become publicly available when we file it with an amendment to our Schedule 13D.

Sincerely yours, John Shapiro

/s/ John Shapiro

President
Morgan Stanley Capital Group, Inc.

The Reporting Persons may at any time, or from time to time, acquire additional shares of Common Stock or dispose of their shares of Common Stock, propose, pursue, or choose not to pursue the transaction described in the above letter; change the terms of the transaction described in the above letter, including the price, conditions, or scope of the transaction; take any action in or out of the ordinary course of business to facilitate or increase the likelihood of consummation of the transaction described in the above letter; otherwise seek control or seek to influence the management and policies of the Company; or change their intentions with respect to any such matters. In connection with the proposed transaction, the Reporting Persons are considering other transactions with respect to the Company and its assets, including without limitation financing transactions or sales of assets to the Company's affiliated master limited partnership or third parties.
