Plan Regarding Severance After a Change in Control

On April 7, 2009, the Board of Directors of Centex Corporation (the Company) approved a Plan Regarding Severance After a Change in Control (the CIC Severance Plan), which will supersede the Company's Executive Severance Policy (the Severance Policy) upon a change in control of the Company. The Severance Policy, which will continue to govern benefits for participants whose employment is terminated prior to a change in control, was adopted in June 2006 and is described in the Company's current reports on Forms 8-K dated June 8, 2006, October 16, 2007 and October 14, 2008.

The CIC Severance Plan generally provides substantially similar benefits to those provided under the Severance Policy, except that the CIC Severance Plan is designed to provide greater assurance to participants that they will receive benefits under the plan. Accordingly, unlike the Severance Policy, the CIC Severance Plan provides, among other things, that (1) severance benefits under the plan are not discretionary, (2) the plan cannot be amended for two years following a change in control, and (3) if there is a termination of employment within two years after a change in control, the Company will generally not reduce severance benefits by the value of previous equity and other compensatory awards that were accelerated in the change in control.

The foregoing description of the CIC Severance Plan does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the CIC Severance Plan, which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 hereto, and is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 8.01. Other Events.
