DIANA SHIPPING INC. ESTABLISHES TARGET LEVEL OF SEMI- PERMANENT DEBT AND DESCRIBES EFFECT ON DIVIDEND POLICY

ATHENS, Greece, September 22, 2006 - Diana Shipping Inc. (NYSE: DSX) today announced that the Company's Board of Directors has determined that it is in the best interest of its shareholders to target a capital structure incorporating $150 million of semi-permanent debt to support the Company's long-term growth plans. Accordingly, beginning with the dividend in respect of the third quarter of 2006, dividends per share will be calculated as if only debt in excess of $150 million was refinanced with equity issued at market value on the date such dividend was declared. Management expects this change to have a positive effect on the dividend per share in respect of the third quarter and a more significant positive impact beginning with the dividend in respect of the fourth quarter of 2006.

Management currently anticipates that the Company will accumulate and maintain approximately $150 million of semi-permanent debt by December 2006 as a result of the $39.6 million of debt currently outstanding, the financing of the recently announced acquisition of a capesize vessel for $91.0 million, and additional debt incurred to finance future growth.

The semi-permanent debt will be incurred initially under the Company's credit line, which provides for no principal amortization until May 2012. The Company expects that any refinancing of this debt would be funded with debt similarly requiring no principal amortization until maturity. The Company expects to refinance debt, if any, incurred in excess of the $150 million semi-permanent amount by way of issuances of equity from time to time when the Company deems it advantageous to do so.

The adjustment in the Company's dividend policy as a result of its incurrence of the semi-permanent debt is expected to (i) increase the amount of available cash from operations for purposes of calculation of dividends by the amount of interest expense incurred on the amount of debt exceeding the $150 million, and (ii) increase the number of shares outstanding in the dividend per share calculation to reflect the additional shares that would have to be issued to generate net proceeds sufficient to repay the amount of debt exceeding the $150 million on the date of declaration. Depending on the circumstances, the Company may be required to use sources other than available cash from operations to fund such dividends.

Debt incurred to finance vessels under construction will not be considered in determining the $150 million semi-permanent debt amount for purposes of calculating dividends per share, as interest on such debt is capitalized in the cost of the vessels, and it is not anticipated that such debt will be refinanced with equity before such vessels are delivered from the builder.

During the construction period of the vessels currently on order for the Company, total debt, including debt to finance such vessels, is likely to exceed $150 million. Since the construction debt will not be taken into account in determining the level of the Company's semi-permanent debt, dividends per share will be calculated without subtracting interest on such vessel construction related debt from cash flow from operations and without assuming the issuance of any equity to refinance such debt.

Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

Matters discussed in this press release may constitute forward-looking statements. The Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 provides safe harbor protections for forward-looking statements in order to encourage companies to provide prospective information about their business. Forward-looking statements include statements concerning plans, objectives, goals, strategies, future events or performance, and underlying assumptions and other statements, which are other than statements of historical facts.

The Company desires to take advantage of the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 and is including this cautionary statement in connection with this safe harbor legislation. The words "believe," "except," "anticipate," "intends," "estimate," "forecast," "project," "plan," "potential," "will," "may," "should," "expect" "pending and similar expressions identify forward-looking statements.

The forward-looking statements in this press release are based upon various assumptions, many of which are based, in turn, upon further assumptions, including without limitation, our management's examination of historical operating trends, data contained in our records and other data available from third parties. Although we believe that these assumptions were reasonable when made, because these assumptions are inherently subject to significant uncertainties and contingencies which are difficult or impossible to predict and are beyond our control, we cannot assure you that we will achieve or accomplish these expectations, beliefs or projections.

In addition to these important factors, other important factors that, in our view, could cause actual results to differ materially from those discussed in the forward-looking statements include the strength of world economies and currencies, general market conditions, including fluctuations in charter rates and vessel values, changes in demand for dry bulk shipping capacity, changes in our operating expenses, including bunker prices, drydocking and insurance costs, the market for our vessels, availability of financing and refinancing, changes
