PROPOSAL NO. 3:
MERGER OF EMAILTHATPAYS.COM, INC. INTO FORGE, INC.

Introduction

For the reasons set forth below, the Board of Directors believes that the best interests of the Company and its shareholders will be served by changing the Company's state of incorporation from Florida to Delaware (the "Reincorporation"). The Board of Directors has approved the Reincorporation, which will be effected pursuant to the Merger Agreement described below (as described below, the Board of Directors has not yet set the exchange ratio). Under the Merger Agreement, the Company will be merged with and into its newly formed Delaware subsidiary, Forge, Inc. ("Forge"). Upon the effectiveness of the Reincorporation, Forge will continue to operate the Company's business, the Company's business under the name Forge, Inc., with the same directors and officers and the Company will cease to exist. Each shareholder of the Company will hold the same percentage interest in Forge as such shareholder holds in the Company.

The number of shares of Company Common Stock that shall be exchanged to receive one new share of Forge common stock ("Forge Common Stock") has not yet been determined. The Board of Directors is requesting that the shareholders of the Company grant the Board of Directors authority to establish an exchange ratio of up to twenty shares of Company Common Stock for each new share of Forge Common Stock. This means that the Reincorporation would effectively include up to a twenty for one reverse stock split. The Board of Directors may determine with discretion, that it is in the best interest of the Company and the shareholders to set the exchange ratio such that fewer shares of Company Common Stock shall be exchanged to receive one new share of Forge Common Stock. Following approval of the Reincorporation, the Board of Directors will determine the exact exchange ratio.

Under Florida law, the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of the Company's Common Stock is required for approval of the Reincorporation. Approval of the Reincorporation proposal will constitute approval of the Plan of Merger between the Company and Forge (the "Merger Agreement"). A copy of the Merger Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit A. The Merger Agreement (except for the final exchange ratio) has been approved by the Board of Directors of the Company and the Board of Directors of Forge. If approved by the shareholders, it is anticipated that the merger will become effective as soon as practicable (the "Effective Date") following the Annual Meeting. However, pursuant to the Merger Agreement, the merger may be abandoned or the Merger Agreement may be amended by the Board of Directors (except that the principal terms may not be amended without shareholder approval) either before or after shareholder approval has been obtained and prior to the Effective Date if, in the opinion of the Board of Directors of either the Company or Forge, circumstances arise which make it inadvisable to proceed under the original terms of the Merger Agreement.

Edgar Filing: EMAILTHATPAYS COM INC - Form DEF 14A

Shareholders of the Company have the right under the Florida Business Corporation Act (the "FBCA") to dissent from the Reincorporation merger, as determined under the FBCA. See "Appraisal Rights of Dissenting Shareholders" below.

Procedures for Proposed Reincorporation

Upon approval of the Reincorporation, each holder of an outstanding certificate theretofore representing Company Common Stock will be requested to surrender such certificate to StockTrans, Inc. as the exchange agent (the "Exchange Agent"). As soon as practicable after the surrender to the Exchange Agent of any certificate which prior to the Reincorporation represented shares of the Company's Common Stock, together with a duly executed transmittal letter and any other documents the Exchange Agent may specify, the Exchange Agent shall deliver to the person in whose name such certificate has been issued certificates registered in the name of such person representing the number of full shares of Forge Common Stock into which the shares of Company Common Stock previously represented by the surrendered certificate shall have been reclassified. Until surrendered as contemplated by the preceding sentence, each certificate which immediately prior to the reverse stock split represented any shares of the Company's Common Stock shall be deemed at and after the Reincorporation to represent the number of full shares of Forge Common Stock contemplated by the preceding sentence.

No certificates or scrip representing fractional shares of Forge Common Stock shall be issued in connection with the Reincorporation. Instead, stockholders holding a number of shares of the Company's Common Stock not evenly divisible by the exchange ratio, and stockholders holding less than the exchange ratio of shares of the Company's Common Stock, upon surrender of their old certificates, will receive cash in lieu of fractional shares of Forge Common Stock. The price payable by the Company will be determined by multiplying the fraction of a share of new Forge Common Stock by the closing price for that number of shares as determined by the Board of Directors of the Company's Common Stock on the effective date of the Reincorporation for which transactions in the Company's Common Stock are reported, as reported by the Nasdaq Over the Counter Bulletin Board.

Principal Reasons for the Proposed Reincorporation

As the Company plans for the future, the Board of Directors and management believe that it is essential to be able to draw upon well-established principles of corporate governance in making legal and business decisions. The prominence and predictability of Delaware corporate law provide a reliable foundation on which the Company's governance decisions can be based and the Company believes that shareholders will benefit from the responsiveness of Delaware corporate law to their needs and to those of the corporation they own.

Prominence, Predictability and Flexibility of Delaware Law.

Delaware has for many years followed a policy of encouraging incorporation in that state and has been a leader in adopting, construing and implementing comprehensive, flexible corporate laws responsive to the legal and business needs of corporations organized under its laws. Many corporations have chosen Delaware initially as a state of incorporation or have subsequently changed corporate domicile to Delaware in a manner similar to that proposed by the Company. The Delaware courts have developed considerable expertise in dealing with corporate law issues and a substantial body of case law has developed construing Delaware law and establishing public policies with respect to corporate legal affairs.

Edgar Filing: EMAILTHATPAYS COM INC - Form DEF 14A

Reverse Stock Split

The Board of Directors believes that the current per-share market price of the existing Common Stock of the Company may impair the acceptability of the Company's Common Stock to certain institutional investors and other members of the investing public. Theoretically, the number of shares outstanding should not, by itself, affect the marketability of the stock, the type of investor who acquires it, or the Company's reputation in the financial community. In practice this is not necessarily the case, as certain investors view low-priced stock as unattractive or, as a matter of policy, are precluded from purchasing low-priced stock because of the greater trading volatility sometimes associated with such securities. There can be no assurance that the reverse stock split will not adversely impact the market price of the Company's Common Stock, that the marketability of the Company's Common Stock will improve as a result of the reverse stock split or that the reverse stock split will otherwise have any of the effects described herein.

Page 7

The Board of Directors may consider a variety of factors in determining the exchange ratio in the Reincorporation, including overall trends in the stock market, recent changes and anticipated trends in the per share market price of the Company's Common Stock, business developments and the Company's actual and projected financial performance.

Increased Ability to Attract and Retain Qualified Directors

Both Florida and Delaware law permit a corporation to include a provision in its charter document which reduces or limits the monetary liability of directors for breaches of fiduciary duty in certain circumstances. The increasing frequency of claims and litigation directed against directors and officers has greatly expanded the risks facing directors and officers of corporations in exercising their respective duties. The amount of time and money required to respond to such claims and to defend such litigation can be substantial. It is the Company's desire to reduce these risks to its directors and officers and to limit situations in which monetary damages can be recovered against directors so that the Company may continue to attract and retain qualified directors who otherwise might be unwilling to serve because of the risks involved. The Company believes that, in general, Delaware law provides greater protection to directors than Florida law and that Delaware case law regarding a corporation's ability to limit director liability is more developed and provides more guidance than Florida law.

Well Established Principles of Corporate Governance

There is substantial judicial precedent in the Delaware courts as to the legal principles applicable to measures that may be taken by a corporation and as to the conduct of the Board of Directors under the business judgment rule. The Company believes that its shareholders will benefit from the well-established principles of corporate governance that Delaware law affords.

The Reincorporation proposal will effect a change in the Company's name, the legal domicile of the Company and certain other changes of a legal nature, certain of which are described in this Proxy Statement. The directors who are elected at this Annual Meeting will become the directors of Forge.

Prior to the Effective Date of the merger, the Company will obtain any requisite consents to such merger from parties with whom it may have contractual arrangements. As a result, the Company's rights and obligations under such contractual arrangements will continue and be assumed by Forge

Vote Required

Approval of the Reincorporation proposal will require the affirmative vote of the majority of outstanding shares of the Company on the Record Date entitled to vote on the proposal. Approval of the Reincorporation proposal will also constitute approval of (i) the Merger Agreement, (ii) the name change of the Company from emailthatpays.com, Inc. to Forge, Inc., (iii) the effective reverse stock split of up to twenty shares of Company Common Stock for each new share of Forge Common Stock, (iv) the Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws of Forge, (iii) the assumption by Forge of all of the rights and obligations of the Company.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT THE STOCKHOLDERS VOTE "FOR" THE PROPOSED REINCORPORATION IN DELAWARE

Comparative Rights Of Shareholders

The following is only a summary of the differences between the rights of a shareholder under the FBCA and the Delaware General Corporation Law ("DGCL") and is qualified in its entirety by the FBCA, DGCL, the Articles of Incorporation (the "Articles") and Bylaws of the Company and the Certificate of Incorporation (the "Certificate"), a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit B and Bylaws, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit C, of Forge, which may be modified by the Board of Directors prior to adoption at the Annual Meeting.

Under the Plan of Merger, the Company's shareholders whose rights are currently governed by Florida law will, upon the exchange of their shares pursuant to the merger, become holders of shares in Forge and their rights as such will be governed by Delaware law, under Forge's Certificate and Bylaws. The material differences between the rights of holders of the shares in the Company and shares in Forge, which result from differences in their governing corporate documents and differences in Delaware and Florida corporate law, are summarized below.

Appraisal Rights Of Dissenting Shareholders

The FBCA provides that any shareholder of a corporation generally has the right to dissent from, and obtain payment of the fair value of their shares in the event of a merger, share exchange, a sale or exchange of all or substantially all the property of the corporation other than in the ordinary course of its business, or any amendment to the corporation's articles of incorporation that adversely affects such shareholder, provided such shareholder otherwise complies with the requirements of Florida law and does not vote in favor of the proposed action.

Unless the articles of incorporation otherwise provide (which the Company's do not), a shareholder does not have dissenters' rights with respect to a plan of merger or share exchange or a proposed sale or exchange of property where shares of the Company's stock are either (i) registered on a national securities exchange or designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. (the "NASD") or (ii) held of record by not fewer than 2,000 shareholders.

As the Company does not qualify for such an exception, the Company's shareholders will be entitled to dissenters' rights pursuant to the merger.

Edgar Filing: EMAILTHATPAYS COM INC - Form DEF 14A

Under the DGCL, a stockholder of a Delaware corporation is generally entitled to demand appraisal and obtain payment of the judicially-determined fair value of his or her shares in the event of any plan of merger or consolidation to which the corporation, is a party, provided such stockholder continuously holds such shares through the effective date of the merger and otherwise complies with the requirements of Delaware law for the perfection of appraisal rights and does not vote in favor of the merger.

Such appraisal rights are not available, however, when shares of the corporation's stock are either (i) listed on a national securities exchange or designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the NASD or (ii) held of record by more than 2,000 holders. In addition, appraisal rights are not available for any shares of stock of the constituent corporation surviving the merger if the merger did not require for its approval the vote of the stockholders of the surviving corporation. Notwithstanding the above, appraisal rights are available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a Delaware corporation if the holders thereof are required by the terms of an agreement of merger or consolidation to accept for their stock anything except: (i) shares of stock of the corporation surviving or resulting from the merger or consolidation; (ii) shares of stock of any other corporation, or depository receipts in respect thereof, which at the effective date of the merger or consolidation will be listed on a national securities exchange or designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the NASD or held of record by more than 2,000 stockholders; (iii) cash in lieu of fractional shares of the corporations described in (i) and (ii); or (iv) any combination of the shares of stock, depository receipts and cash in lieu of fractional shares described in (i), (ii) and (iii).

Forge's Certificate does not contain any provision relating to stockholder appraisal rights. As Forge does not qualify for an exception to appraisal rights, its stockholders are generally entitled to appraisal rights under the DGCL.

Authorized Capital

The Company's Articles provide for authorized stock consisting of 100,000,000 shares of common stock, $0.005 par value and 2,000,000 shares of preferred stock, $0.01 par value.

Forge's Certificate provides for authorized stock consisting of 18,000,000 shares of common stock, $0.001 par value and 2,000,000 shares of preferred stock, $0.001 par value.

Election And Size Of Board Of Directors

The FBCA requires that a board of directors consist of one or more natural persons, with the number specified in or in accordance with the corporation's articles of incorporation or Bylaws, that are elected at each annual shareholder meeting, unless their terms are staggered. The number of directors may be increased or decreased from time to time by amendment to, or in the manner provided in, the articles of incorporation or the Bylaws. If authorized in the articles of incorporation, the FBCA permits staggered boards of directors of up to three (3) separate classes. Under Florida law, shareholders do not have cumulative voting unless the articles of incorporation so provide.

Edgar Filing: EMAILTHATPAYS COM INC - Form DEF 14A

The Company's Articles state that it will have not less than one (1) Director and the number of Directors may be increased from time to time by Bylaws adopted by the Directors or the Shareholders, and do not provide for cumulative voting. The Company's Bylaws provide that the number of Directors may be increased or decreased from time to time by amendment to the Bylaws. Directors must also be natural persons who are 18 years of age or older, but need not be residents of the State of Florida.

Under the DGCL, directors, unless their terms are staggered in the form of a classified board of directors, are elected at each annual stockholder meeting. The certificate of incorporation may authorize the election of certain directors by one (1) or more classes or series of shares, and the certificate of incorporation, an initial Bylaw or a Bylaw adopted by a vote of the stockholders may provide for staggered terms for the directors. The certificate of incorporation or the Bylaws also may allow the stockholders or the board of directors to fix or change the number of directors, but a corporation must have at least one (1) director. Under Delaware law, stockholders do not have cumulative voting rights unless the certificate of incorporation so provides.

Forge's Certificate provides that the board of directors will be comprised of three (3) initial directors and does not provide for cumulative voting. The initial directors will serve until the first annual meeting of the stockholders and until their successors are elected and qualified. Forge Inc.'s Bylaws provide that the board of directors will consist initially of three (3) directors, who need not be stockholders, and, thereafter, will consist of such number as may be fixed from time to time by resolution of the board of directors. The directors will also be elected at the annual meeting of the stockholders and will hold office until their successors are elected and qualified or until their earlier resignation or removal.

Removal Of Directors

The FBCA entitles shareholders to remove directors either for cause or without cause, unless the articles of incorporation provide that removal may be for cause only. Directors elected by a particular voting group may only be removed by the shareholders of that voting group. The Company's Articles and Bylaws do not contain any statements relating to the removal of directors either for cause or without cause.

Under the DGCL, a director of a corporation that does not have a classified board of directors or cumulative voting may be removed with or without cause with the approval of a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote. Whenever the holders of a class or series of stock are entitled to elect one (1) or more directors by the certificate of incorporation, however, a vote of the holders of outstanding shares of that class or series of stock will be entitled to remove the director or directors so elected and not a vote of all outstanding shares as a whole. Forge's Bylaws provide that any director may be removed, with or without cause, by the holders of a majority of the shares of capital stock entitled to vote at an election of directors, either by written consent or at any special meeting of the stockholders called for that purpose, and the office of such director will become vacant.

Vacancies On The Board Of Directors

The FBCA provides that, unless the articles provide otherwise, vacancies arising on the board of directors may be filled by a majority of the remaining directors, even if no quorum remains, or by the shareholders. When directors are divided into classes, vacancies may be filled by the shareholders or, if at least one (1) director remains in the class, by the remaining directors of that class. Where a vacancy will be known to occur at some point in the future, it may be filled in advance, although the new director will not take office until the vacancy actually occurs. The Company's Articles do not contain any additions to these statutory provisions. The Company's Bylaws state that whenever a vacancy occurs on a board of directors, including a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of directors, it may be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors.

Under the DGCL, a majority of the directors of a corporation then in office, although less than a quorum, may fill any vacancy on the board of directors, including vacancies resulting from an increase in the number of directors. Forge's Bylaws also provide that vacancies on the board of directors will be filled by a majority of the directors then in office though less than a quorum. The stockholders removing any director, however, may at the time fill any such vacancy caused by such removal. Furthermore, if the directors fail to fill any vacancy, the stockholders may at any special meeting called for that purpose fill such vacancy. Any person elected to fill a vacancy will hold office, subject to the right of removal as provided for in the Bylaws, until his or her successor is elected and qualified.

Action By Written Consent

The FBCA allows shareholders or all of the directors to take action without a meeting through the use of a written consent, unless provided otherwise in the article of incorporation. The FBCA provides that actions of shareholders required or permitted to be at an annual or special meeting of shareholders may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice, if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, is dated and signed by the holders of outstanding stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all voting groups and shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted with respect to the subject matter thereof and such consent is delivered to the Company within 60 days of the earliest dated consent. Within ten (10) days after obtaining such authorization by written consent, notice must be given to those shareholders who have not consented in writing or who are not entitled to vote on the action. The FBCA also allows that any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the board of directors or committee thereof to be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the action taken, is signed by all the members of the board of directors or the committee. The Company's Articles or Bylaws do not contain any additions to these statutory provisions.

DGCL provides that, unless limited by the certificate of incorporation, any action that could be taken by stockholders at any annual or special meeting of such stockholders may be taken without a meeting if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, is signed by the holders of outstanding stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted and delivered to the corporation. Prompt notice of an action taken by written consent which is not unanimous is required to be given to those stockholders who have not consented in writing. Delaware law also provides that any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the board of directors, or at any committee thereof, may be taken without a meeting if all the members of the board of directors or committee, as the case may be, consent thereto, in writing, and the writing or writings are filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the board of directors or committee. Forge's Certificate and Bylaws do not contain any additions to these statutory provisions.

Amendments To Charter

Under the FBCA, amendments to the corporate charter require the approval of a majority of the shareholders entitled to vote thereon. The Company's Articles do not contain any additions to these statutory provisions.

Page 11

Under the DGCL, unless a higher vote is required in the certificate of incorporation, an amendment to the certificate of incorporation of a corporation may be approved by a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote upon the proposed amendment.

Amendments To Bylaws

Under the FBCA, Bylaws may be amended by the directors or the shareholders unless (i) the articles of incorporation expressly provide that only shareholders may do so, or (ii) the shareholders provide that they may not be amended or repealed by the directors. The Company's Articles do not contain any additions to these statutory provisions. The Company's Bylaws provide that the directors may amend or repeal the Company's Bylaws unless the FBCA reserves the power to amend a particular bylaw provision exclusively to the shareholders.

The DGCL provides that a corporation's Bylaws may be amended by that corporation's stockholders, or, if so provided in the corporation's certificate of incorporation, the power to amend the corporation's Bylaws may also be conferred on the corporation's directors. Forge's Certificate gives its directors the authority to make, alter or repeal the Bylaws of the corporation. Forge's Bylaws provide that the board of directors will have the power to make, rescind, alter, amend and repeal the Bylaws, provided however, that the stockholders will have the power to rescind, alter, amend or repeal any Bylaws made by the board of directors and to enact Bylaws, which if so expressed, will not be rescinded, altered, amended or repealed by the Board of Directors.

Quorum for Shareholder Meetings and Shareholder Voting Requirements

Under the FBCA, unless otherwise provided in a corporation's certificate of incorporation, a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on a matter by a voting group constitutes a quorum of that voting group for action on that matter. If a quorum exists, action on a matter by a voting group (other than the election of directors) is approved if the votes cast within the voting group favoring the action exceed the votes cast opposing the action, unless the articles of incorporation or this act requires a greater number of affirmative votes. The Company's Articles do not contain any additions to these statutory provisions.

Under the DGCL, unless otherwise provided in a corporation's certificate of incorporation or its Bylaws, a majority of shares entitled to vote on a matter constitutes a quorum at a meeting of stockholders, but in no event may a quorum consist of less than one-third (1/3) of the shares entitled to vote on such matter. In all matters other than the election of directors, the affirmative vote of the majority of shares present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting and entitled to vote on the subject matter will be the act of the stockholder. Forge's Bylaws state that any number of stockholders, together holding at least one-third (1/3) of the capital stock of the corporation issued and outstanding and entitled to vote, who are present in person or represented by proxy at any meeting duly called, constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. At all meetings of stockholders, all matters, except as otherwise provided by statute, will be determined by the affirmative vote of the majority of shares present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote on the subject matter.

Proxies

Under the FBCA, a proxy is effective only for a period of eleven (11) months, unless otherwise provided in the proxy. The Company's Articles and Bylaws do not contain any additions to these statutory provisions.

Under the DGCL, a proxy executed by a stockholder will remain valid for a period of three (3) years, unless the proxy provides for a longer period. Forge's Certificate and Bylaws do not contain any additions to these statutory provisions.

Special Meetings Of Shareholders

Under the FBCA, a special meeting of shareholders may be called by a corporation's board of directors or any other person authorized to do so in the articles of incorporation or Bylaws. Special meetings may also be called on demand of at least 10% of all shares eligible to vote on the matter to be considered, although this percentage may be increased in the articles of incorporation to a maximum of 50%. Only business within the purpose of the special meeting notice may be conducted at such meeting. The Company's Articles and Bylaws do not provide any additions to these statutory provisions.

The DGCL provides that special meetings of the stockholders of a corporation may be called by the corporation's board of directors or by such other persons as may be authorized in the corporation's certificate of incorporation or Bylaws. Forge's Bylaws provide that special meetings of stockholders for any purpose may be called at any time by the board of directors or by the chief executive officer, and will be called by the chief executive officer at the request of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of capital stock entitled to vote. Also, at a special meeting, no business will be transacted and no corporate action will be taken other than that stated in the notice of the meeting.

Vote On Extraordinary Corporate Transactions

Under the FBCA, and subject to certain exceptions (including those described in "Business Combination Restrictions"), the approval of a merger or share exchange, plan of liquidation or sale of all or substantially all of a corporation's assets other than in the regular course of business requires the recommendation of the corporation's board of directors and an affirmative vote of a majority of the shareholders eligible to vote thereon. The foregoing provisions apply to the Company. The Company's Articles and Bylaws do not contain any additions to these statutory provisions.

The DGCL provides that, unless otherwise specified in a corporation's certificate of incorporation or unless the provisions of Delaware law relating to business combinations discussed below under "Business Combination Restrictions" are applicable, a sale or other disposition of all or substantially all of the corporation's assets, a merger or consolidation of the corporation with another corporation or a dissolution of the corporation requires the affirmative vote of the board of directors, except in certain limited circumstances, in addition to, with certain exceptions, the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding stock entitled to vote thereon. The foregoing provisions apply to Forge. Forge's Certificate does not contain any additions to these statutory provisions.

Inspection Of Documents

Under the FBCA, a shareholder is entitled to (i) inspect and copy the articles of incorporation, (ii) Bylaws, (iii) certain board and shareholder resolutions, (iv) certain written communications to shareholders, (v) a list of the names and business addresses of the corporation's directors and officers, and (vi) the corporation's most recent annual report during regular business hours, if the shareholder gives at least five (5) business days prior written notice to the corporation before the date he or she wishes to inspect and copy. In addition, a shareholder of a Florida corporation is entitled to inspect and copy other books and records of the corporation during regular business hours if the shareholder gives at least five (5) business days prior written notice to the corporation and (i) the shareholder's demand is made in good faith and for a proper purpose, (ii) the demand describes with particularity its purpose and the records to be inspected or copied and (iii) the requested records are directly connected with such purpose. The FBCA also provides that a corporation may deny any demand for inspection if the demand was made for an improper purpose or if the demanding shareholder (i) has, within two (2) years preceding such demand, sold or offered for sale any list of shareholders of the corporation or any other corporation, (ii) has aided or abetted any person in procuring a list of shareholders for such purpose or (iii) has improperly used any information secured through any prior examination of the records of the corporation or any other corporation. The Company's Articles does not contain any additions to these statutory provisions.

The DGCL allows any stockholder, upon written demand under oath stating the purpose thereof, the right during the usual hours for business to inspect for any proper purpose the corporation's (i) stock ledger, (ii) a list of its stockholders, and (iii) its other books and records, and to make copies or extracts therefrom. A proper purpose means a purpose reasonably related to such person's interest as a stockholder. If the corporation refuses to permit inspection sought by a stockholder or does not reply to the demand within five (5) business days after the demand has been made, the stockholder may apply to a court for an order to compel inspection. Forge's Articles or Bylaws do not contain any additions to these statutory provisions.

Dividends

The FBCA permits a corporation's board of directors to make distributions to its shareholders as long as (i) the corporation is able to pay its debts as they become due in the ordinary course of business or (ii) its total assets are greater than the sum of its total liabilities plus the amount that would be necessary to satisfy the preferred shareholders upon dissolution of shareholders whose preferential rights are superior to those receiving the distribution. Under the FBCA, a corporation's redemption of its own capital stock is deemed to be a distribution. The Company's Bylaws provide that the Board of Directors may authorize and the Company may make distributions to its shareholders subject to restriction by the Company's Articles.

Subject to any restrictions contained in a corporation's certificate of incorporation, the DGCL generally provides that a corporation may declare and pay dividends out of "surplus" (defined as the excess, if any, of net assets (total assets less total liabilities) over capital) or, when no surplus exists, out of net profits for the fiscal year in which the dividend is declared and/or the preceding fiscal year, except that dividends may not be paid out of net profits if the capital of the corporation is less than the amount of capital represented by the issued and outstanding stock of all classes having a preference upon the distribution of assets. In accordance with the DGCL, "capital" is determined by the board of directors and will not be less than the aggregate par value of the outstanding capital stock of the corporation having par value.

Forge's Certificate states that subject to any preferential rights granted for any series of preferred stock, the holders of shares of Forge Common Stock will be entitled to receive dividends, out of the funds of the corporation legally available therefor, at the rate and at the time or times, whether cumulative or noncumulative, as may be provided by the board of directors. The holders of shares of the preferred stock will be entitled to receive dividends to the extent provided in Forge's Certificate or by the board of directors in designating the particular series of preferred stock, and the holders of shares of Forge Common Stock will not be entitled to receive any dividends other than the dividends referred to in Forge's Certificate. Forge's Bylaws state that the board of directors has the power to fix and vary the amount to be set aside or reserved as working capital of the corporation or as reserves and, subject to the requirements of Forge's Certificate, to determine whether any part of the surplus or net profits of the corporation will be declared as dividends and paid to the stockholders as well as to fix the date or dates for such payment or dividends.

Indemnification Of Directors And Officers

The FBCA permits a corporation to indemnify any person who was or is a party to any proceeding, by the reason of the fact that he or she is or was an officer or director, employee and agent of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or another entity, if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation, and with respect to any criminal action, which they had no reasonable cause to believe was unlawful. The FBCA provides that a corporation may advance reasonable expenses of defense upon receipt of an undertaking to reimburse the corporation if indemnification is ultimately not to be appropriate. A corporation must reimburse a successful defendant, however, for expenses, including attorneys' fees, actually and reasonably incurred in connection with such defense. The FBCA also provides that indemnification may not be made for any claim, issue or matter as to which a person has been adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction to be liable to the corporation, unless and only to the extent a court determines that the person is entitled to indemnity for such expenses as the court deems proper. The Company's Articles provide that the Company, to the fullest extent permitted by the FBCA, shall indemnify any and all persons whom it shall have power to indemnify under the FBCA from and against any and all expenses, liabilities or other matters referred to in or covered by the FBCA, and indemnification provided for in the Company's Articles shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those indemnified may be entitled under the Bylaws, agreement, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in his/her official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, office, employee or agent, and shall inure to the benefit of the heir, executors and administrators of such a person.

Under the DGCL, a corporation may indemnify any person made a party or threatened to be made a party to any type of proceeding (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation) because he is or was an officer, director, employee or agent of the corporation or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or entity, against expenses, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred in connection with such proceeding: (i) if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and (ii) in the case of a criminal proceeding, he had no reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful. A corporation may indemnify any person made a party or threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit brought by or in the right of the corporation because he was an officer, director, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or other entity, against expenses actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation. There may be no such indemnification, however, if the person is found liable to the corporation unless, and only to the extent that, the court determines the person is entitled thereto. A corporation must also indemnify a present or former director or officer agent against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by him who successfully defends himself in a proceeding to which he was a party because he was a director or officer of the corporation. In addition, expenses incurred by an officer or director (or former director or officer, employee or agent as deemed appropriate by the board of directors) in defending a proceeding may be paid by the corporation in advance of the final disposition of such proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such director or officer to repay such amount if it will ultimately be determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation. The Delaware law indemnification and expense advancement provisions are not exclusive of any other rights which may be granted by the Bylaws, a vote of stockholders or disinterested directors, agreement or otherwise. Forge's Certificate and Bylaws do not contain any additions to these statutory provisions.

Limitation Of Liability

The FBCA provides that a director is not personally liable for monetary damages to the corporation or any other person for any statement, vote, decision, or failure to act, regarding corporate management or policy unless the director breached or failed to perform his statutory duties as a director and such breach or failure (i) constitutes a violation of criminal law, unless the director had reasonable cause to believe his conduct was lawful or had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful, (ii) constitutes a transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit, (iii) results in an unlawful distribution, (iv) in a derivative action or an action by a shareholder, constitutes conscious disregard for the best interests of the corporation or willful misconduct or (v) in a proceeding other than a derivative action or an action by a shareholder, constitutes recklessness or an act or omission which was committed in bad faith or with malicious purpose or in a manner exhibiting wanton and willful disregard of human rights, safety or property. The Company's Articles provide that no director of the Company shall be personally liable to the Company or its shareholders for monetary damages or for breach of fiduciary duty as a Director except for liability (i) for any breach of the Director's duty of loyalty to the Company or its shareholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) under the FBCA, or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived any improper personal benefit.

The DGCL permits a corporation to adopt a provision in its certificate of incorporation (and Forge's Certificate has adopted such a provision) eliminating or limiting the personal liability of a director to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except that such provision will not limit the liability of a director for (i) any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders, (ii) acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) liability under Section 174 of the DGCL for unlawful payment of dividends or stock purchases or redemptions, or (iv) any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit. Forge's Certificate also adds the statement that if the DGCL is amended after the effective date of this article to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors, then the liability of a director of the corporation will be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the DGCL as so amended. Furthermore, any repeal or modification of the foregoing limitation of director liability by the stockholders of the corporation will not adversely affect the right or protection of a director of the corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification.

Preemptive Rights

Under the FBCA, shareholders of a corporation have no preemptive rights unless provided for in the articles of incorporation. The Company's Articles do not contain any additions to these statutory provisions.

The DGCL does not provide, except in limited instances, for preemptive rights to acquire a corporation's unissued stock. Such right may be expressly granted to the stockholders, however, in a corporation's certificate of incorporation. Forge's Certificate expressly states that no preemptive rights will exist with respect to shares of stock or securities convertible into shares of stock of Forge.

Special Redemption Provisions

The FBCA permits a corporation to acquire its own shares, unless the articles of incorporation do not permit it. The Company's Articles and Bylaws do not contain any additions to these statutory provisions.

Under the DGCL, a corporation may purchase or redeem shares of any class of its capital stock, but subject generally to the availability of sufficient lawful funds therefor and provided that at all times, at the time of any such redemption, the corporation will have outstanding shares of one (1) or more classes or series of capital stock which have full voting rights that are not subject to redemption. Forge's Certificate does not contain any additions to these statutory provisions.

Shareholder Suits

Under the FBCA, a person may not bring a derivative action unless the person was a shareholder of the corporation at the time of the challenged transaction or unless the person acquired such shares by operation of law from a person who was a shareholder at such time. The Company's Articles or Bylaws do not have any additions to these statutory provisions.

Under the DGCL, a stockholder may institute a lawsuit against one or more directors, either on his own behalf or derivatively on behalf of the corporation. An individual stockholder may also commence a lawsuit on behalf of himself and other similarly situated stockholders when the requirements for maintaining a class action under Delaware law have been met. Forge's Certificate and Bylaws do not contain any additions to these statutory provisions.

Business Combination Restrictions

The FBCA provides that the approval of the holder of two-thirds (2/3) of the voting shares of a company, other than the shares beneficially owned by an Interested Stockholder (as defined below), would be required to effectuate certain transactions, including without limitation (i) a merger or consolidation, (ii) certain sales of assets, (iii) certain sales of shares, (iv) liquidation or dissolution of the corporation, (v) reclassification or recapitalization of securities or (vi) any loans or other financial assistance where an Invested Shareholder would benefit directly or indirectly involving a corporation and an Interested Stockholder (an "Affiliated Transaction"). An "Interested Stockholder" is defined as the beneficial owner of more than 10% of the voting shares outstanding. The foregoing special voting requirement is in addition to the vote required by any other provision of the FBCA.

The special voting requirement does not apply in any of the following circumstances: (i) the Affiliated Transaction is approved by a majority of the corporation's disinterested directors; (ii) the Interested Stockholder has owned at least 80% of the corporation's voting stock for five (5) years preceding the announcement of the event; (iii) the Interested Stockholder owns more than 90% of the corporation's voting shares; (iv) the corporation has not had more than 300 shareholders of record at any time during the three (3) years preceding the announcement of the event; (v) the corporation is an investment company registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940; or (vi) all of the following conditions are met: (a) the cash and fair market value of other consideration to be paid per share to all holders of voting shares equals the highest per share price as determined by statute; (b) the consideration to be paid in the Affiliated Transaction is in the same form as previously paid by the Interested Stockholder (or certain alternative benchmarks if higher); (c) during the portion of the three (3) years preceding the announcement date that the Interested Stockholder has been an Interested Stockholder, except as approved by a majority of the disinterested directors, there will have been no default in payment of any full periodic dividends, no decrease in common stock dividends, and no increase in the voting shares owned by the Interested Stockholder, (d) during such three (3) year period no benefit to the Interested Stockholder in the form of loans, guaranties or other financial assistance or tax advantages has been provided by the corporation, and (e) unless approved by a majority of the disinterested directors, a proxy will have been mailed to holders of voting shares at least 25 days prior to the consummation of the Affiliated Transaction.

The Company's Articles do not contain any additions to these statutory provisions.

In general, the DGCL prevents an "Interested Stockholder" (defined generally as a person with 15% or more of a corporation's outstanding voting stock, with the exception of any person who owned and has continued to own shares in excess of the 15% limitation since December 23, 1987 or acquired the shares from an interested stockholder, by gift, inheritance or in a transaction where no consideration was exchanged) from engaging in a Business Combination with a Delaware corporation for three (3) years following the date such person became an Interested Stockholder. The term "Business Combination" includes mergers or consolidations with an Interested Stockholder and certain other transactions with an Interested Stockholder, including, without limitation: (i) any merger or consolidation of the corporation or any direct or indirect majority-owned subsidiary of the corporation with the Interested Stockholder or with any other entity if the merger or consolidation is caused by the Interested Stockholder; (ii) any sale, lease, exchange, mortgage, pledge, transfer or other disposition (in one transaction or a series of transactions) except proportionately as a stockholder of such corporation, to or with the Interested Stockholder, whether as part of a dissolution or otherwise, of assets having an aggregate market value equal to 10% or more of the aggregate market value of all assets of the corporation or of certain subsidiaries thereof determined on a consolidated basis or the aggregate market value of all the outstanding stock of the corporation; (iii) any transaction which results in the issuance or transfer by the corporation or by certain subsidiaries thereof of stock of the corporation or such subsidiary to the Interested Stockholder, except pursuant to certain transfers in a conversion or exchange or pro rata distribution to all stockholders of the corporation or certain other transactions, none of which increase the Interested Stockholder's proportionate ownership of any class or series of the corporation's or such subsidiary's stock; (iv) any transaction involving the corporation or certain subsidiaries thereof which has the effect, directly or indirectly, of increasing the proportionate share of the stock of any class or series, or securities convertible into stock of the corporation or any subsidiary which is owned by the Interested Stockholder except as a result of immaterial changes due to fractional share adjustments or as a result of any purchase or redemption of any shares of stock not caused directly or indirectly by the Interested Stockholder; or (v) any receipt by the Interested Stockholder of the benefit (except proportionately as a stockholder of such corporation) of any loans, advances, guarantees, pledges, or other financial benefits provided by or through the corporation or certain subsidiaries.

The three (3) year moratorium may be avoided if: (i) before such person became an Interested Stockholder, the board of directors of the corporation approved either the Business Combination or the transaction in which the Interested Stockholder became an Interested Stockholder, or (ii) upon consummation of the transaction which resulted in the stockholder becoming an Interested Stockholder, the Interested Stockholder owned at least 85% of the voting stock of the corporation outstanding at the time the transaction commenced (excluding shares owned by directors who are also officers of the corporation and by employee stock ownership plans that do not provide employees with the right to determine confidentially whether shares held subject to the plan will be tendered in a tender or exchange offer); or (iii) at or subsequent to such time the Business Combination is approved by the board of directors of the corporation and authorized at an annual or special meeting of stockholders (not by written consent) by the affirmative vote of the stockholders of at least 66 2/3% of the outstanding voting stock of the corporation not owned by the Interested Stockholder.

The Business Combination restrictions described above do not apply if, among other things: (i) the corporation's original certificate of incorporation contains a provision expressly electing not to be governed by the statute; (ii) the corporation by action by the holders of a majority of the voting stock of the corporation approves an amendment to its certificate of incorporation or Bylaws expressly electing not to be governed by the statute (effective twelve (12) months after the amendment's adoption), which amendment will not be applicable to any business combination with a person who was an Interested Stockholder at or prior to the time of the amendment; or (iii) the corporation does not have a class of voting stock that is (a) listed on a national securities exchange, (b) authorized for quotation on Nasdaq or other market; or (c) held of record by more than 2,000 stockholders. The statute also does not apply to certain Business Combinations with an Interested Stockholder when such combination is proposed after the public announcement of, and before the consummation or abandonment of, a merger or consolidation, a sale or other disposition of 50% or more of the aggregate market value of the assets of the corporation on a consolidated basis or the aggregate market value of all outstanding shares of the corporation, or a tender or exchange offer for 50% or more of the outstanding voting shares of the corporation, if the triggering transaction is with or by a person who either was not an Interested Stockholder during the previous three (3) years or who became an Interested Stockholder with Board of Director approval, and if the transaction is approved or not opposed by a majority of the current directors who were also directors prior to any person becoming an Interested Stockholder during the previous three (3) years.

Forge is subject to the Business Combination restrictions described above, and Forge's Certificate does not contain a provision electing not to be governed by the Business Combination restrictions.

Federal Tax Consequences

The following discussion summarizes the material anticipated United States federal income tax consequences relevant to the exchange of the Company Common Stock for Forge Common Stock pursuant to the merger. This discussion is based on currently existing provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), existing and proposed Treasury Regulations thereunder and current administrative rulings and court decisions, all of which are subject to change and differing interpretation. Any such change, which may or may not be retroactive, could alter the United States federal income tax consequences to the Company, Forge and shareholders of the Company as described herein.

The Company's shareholders should be aware that this discussion does not deal with all United States federal income tax considerations that may be relevant to particular Company shareholders in light of their particular circumstances, such as shareholders who are dealers in securities, banks or other financial institutions, insurance companies, mutual funds or tax exempt organizations, shareholders who are subject to the alternative minimum tax provisions of the Code, who are foreign persons (i.e., persons other than (i) citizens or individual residents of the United States, (ii) corporations or partnerships created or organized in or under the laws of the United States or of any political subdivision thereof, (iii) estates whose income is taxable in the United States irrespective of source and (iv) trusts subject to the primary supervision of a court within the United States and control of a United States fiduciary as described Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code), who do not hold their Company Common Stock as capital assets within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code, who acquired their Company Common Stock in connection with stock option or stock purchase plans or in other compensatory transactions or who hold their Company Common Stock as part of a hedging, straddle, conversion or other risk reduction transaction. Also, the following discussion does not address the tax consequences under Sections 1045 and 1202 of the Code with respect to shares of "qualified small business stock" (within the meaning of Section 1202 of the Code) or under Section 1244 of the Code with respect to shares of "section 1244 stock" (within the meaning of Section 1244 of the Code). In addition, the following discussion does not address the tax consequences of transactions effectuated prior or subsequent to, or concurrently with, the merger (whether or not any such transactions are undertaken in connection with the merger), including without limitation any exercise of any Company stock option or any transaction in which shares of the Company or Forge capital stock are acquired or shares of Forge capital stock are disposed of. Nor does the following discussion address the United States federal income tax consequences of the merger to holders of Company stock options, stock warrants or debt instruments. The following discussion does not address the tax consequences of the merger under foreign, state or local tax laws. ACCORDINGLY, HOLDERS OF THE COMPANY COMMON STOCK ARE URGED TO CONSULT THEIR OWN TAX ADVISORS AS TO THE SPECIFIC TAX CONSEQUENCES TO THEM OF THE MERGER, INCLUDING THE APPLICABLE FEDERAL, STATE, LOCAL AND FOREIGN TAX CONSEQUENCES.

The merger is intended to qualify as a "reorganization" under Section 368(a)(1)(F) or 368(a)(1)(A) of the Code. Assuming the merger qualifies as a reorganization for purposes of the Code, then, subject to the assumptions, limitations and qualifications referred to herein, the merger will result in the following United States federal income tax consequences:

Edgar Filing: EMAILTHATPAYS COM INC - Form DEF 14A

- o No gain or loss will be recognized for United States federal income tax purposes by holders of the Company Common Stock who exchange their Company Common Stock solely for Forge Common Stock in the merger.
- o The aggregate tax basis of the Forge Common Stock received by a holder of the Company Common Stock in the merger will be the same as aggregate tax basis of the Company Common Stock surrendered in the merger.
- o The holding period of the Forge Common Stock received by a of the Company Common Stock in the merger will include the for which the Company Common Stock surrendered therefor in the was held.
- o A holder of the Company Common Stock who exercises dissenters' rights is paid solely cash with respect to all of his Company Common generally will recognize capital gain or loss measured by the between the amount of cash received and the tax basis of shares of the Company Common Stock. Such capital gain or loss will be long-term capital gain or loss if the shares of the Company Stock exchanged by such dissenting shareholder have been held for more than one year. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the amount of cash received in certain instances may be treated as ordinary dividend income under the rules of Sections 302 and 318 of the Code. Holders of the Company Common Stock who dissent from the merger and are paid cash for their shares of the Company Common Stock are urged to consult their own tax advisors regarding the potential application of these rules. Any amount received pursuant to the exercise of dissenters' rights which is treated as interest will be taxable as ordinary income.
- o The Company and Forge will not recognize any gain or loss solely as a result of the merger.

Holders of the Company Common Stock will also be required to file certain information with their United States federal income tax returns and to retain certain records with regard to the merger.

No ruling has been or will be obtained from the IRS in connection with the merger. A successful challenge by the IRS to the qualification of the merger as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code would result in holders of the Company Common Stock recognizing a taxable gain or loss for each share of the Company Common Stock surrendered, equal to the difference between the shareholder's basis in that share and the fair market value, as of the effective date of the merger, of the Forge Common Stock received in exchange for the Company share. This gain or loss would generally be treated as capital gain or loss for each Company shareholder. In that event, a holder of the Company Common Stock would have an aggregate basis in Forge Common Stock received equal to its fair market value at the Effective Date of the merger and the holding period for such Forge Common Stock would begin on the day after the Effective Date of the merger. In addition, in the event that the merger does not qualify as a reorganization, the Company would be treated as selling all of its assets to Forge in a fully taxable transaction and the Company would recognize taxable gain or loss on such sale.

Amounts received by certain noncorporate shareholders of the Company may be subject to backup withholding at a rate of 31%. However, backup withholding will not apply to a shareholder who either (i) furnishes a correct taxpayer identification number and certifies that he or she is not subject to backup withholding by completing the substitute Form W-9 that will be included as part of the transmittal letter, or (ii) otherwise proves to Forge and its exchange agent that the shareholder is exempt from backup withholding.

Securities Act Consequences

The shares of Forge's Common Stock to be issued in exchange for shares of the Company's Common Stock are not being registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"). In that regard, the Company is relying on Rule 145(a)(2) under the Securities Act, which provides that a merger which has "as its sole purpose" a change in the domicile of a corporation does not involve the sale of securities for purposes of the Securities Act, and on interpretations of the Rule by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") which indicate that the making of certain changes in the surviving corporation's charter documents which could otherwise be made only with the approval of the shareholders of either corporation does not render Rule 145(a)(2) inapplicable.

After the merger, Forge will be a publicly held company, Forge Common Stock will be listed for trading in the over-the-counter market, and Forge will file periodic reports and other documents with the SEC and provide to its stockholders the same types of information that the Company has previously filed and provided. Shareholders whose Company Common Stock is freely tradeable before the merger will have freely tradeable shares of Forge's Common Stock. Shareholders holding restricted shares of the Company's Common Stock will have shares of Forge Common Stock which are subject to the same restrictions on transfer as those to which their present shares of the Company's Common Stock are subject, and their stock certificates, if surrendered for replacement certificates representing shares of Forge's Common Stock, will bear the same restrictive legend as appears on their present stock certificates. For purposes of computing compliance with the holding period requirement of Rule 144 under the Securities Act, shareholders will be deemed to have acquired their shares of Forge's Common Stock on the date they acquired their shares of the Company's Common Stock. In summary, Forge and its stockholders will be in the same respective positions under the federal securities laws after the merger as were the Company and the shareholders prior to the merger.

Dissenters' Rights

Sections 607.1301, 607.1302 and 607.1320 ("Dissenters' Rights Provisions") of the FBCA provide dissenters' rights to shareholders of Florida corporations in certain situations. Holders of record of Company Common Stock who comply with applicable statutory procedures summarized herein may be entitled to dissenters' rights under the Dissenters' Rights Provisions in connection with the Reincorporation proposal, because the Reincorporation must be effected through a merger or a sale of substantially all of the property of the corporation other than in the usual and regular course of business and none of the exceptions to dissenter rights set forth in the FBCA are applicable. If holders of a material number of shares exercise dissenters' rights, the Board of Directors anticipates that it will likely abandon the Reincorporation.

A person having a beneficial interest in shares of Company Common Stock held of record in the name of another person, such as a broker or nominee, must act promptly to cause the record holder to follow the steps summarized below properly and in a timely manner to perfect dissenters' rights.

The following discussion is not a complete statement of the law pertaining to dissenters' rights under the FBCA and is qualified in its entirety by the full text of Dissenter Rights Provisions, which are reprinted in their entirety as Exhibit D to this Proxy Statement. All references in the Dissenters' Rights Provisions and in this summary to a "shareholder" or "holder" are to the record holder of the shares of Company Common Stock as to which dissenters' rights may be asserted.

Under Dissenters' Rights Provisions, where a proposed merger or sale is to be submitted for approval at a meeting of shareholders, the corporation must notify each of its shareholders as of the record date for such meeting of the availability of dissenters' rights with respect to his or her shares of Company Common Stock, and must include in such notice a copy of the Dissenters' Rights Provisions and the materials, if any, that under the Dissenters' Rights Provisions are required to be given to the shareholders entitled to vote on the proposed merger or sale at the meeting.

This Proxy Statement constitutes such notice to the holders of Dissenting Shares (as defined below) and the applicable statutory provisions of the FBCA are attached to this Proxy Statement as Exhibit D. Any shareholder who wishes to assert such dissenters' right or who wishes to preserve his or her right to do so should review the following discussion carefully, because failure to timely and properly comply with the procedures specified will result in the loss of dissenter's rights under the FBCA.

If the Reincorporation, is approved by the required vote of the Company's shareholders and is not abandoned or terminated, each holder of shares of Company Common Stock who does not vote in favor of the Reincorporation and who follows the procedures set forth in the Dissenters' Rights Provisions will be entitled to have his or her shares of Company Common Stock purchased by the Company or Forge for cash at their Fair Value (as defined below). The "Fair Value" of shares of Company Common Stock will be determined as of the day before consummation of the merger by which the Reincorporation will be consummated, excluding any appreciation or depreciation in anticipation of the proposed Reincorporation. The shares of Company Common Stock with respect to which holders have perfected their purchase demand in accordance with the Dissenters' Rights Provisions and have not effectively withdrawn or lost such rights are referred to in this Proxy Statement as the "Dissenting Shares."

Under the Dissenters' Rights Provisions, a holder of Dissenting Shares wishing to exercise dissenters' rights must deliver to the Company, prior to the vote on the proposed Reincorporation at the Annual Meeting a properly executed written notice of intent to demand payment for shares if the proposed Reincorporation is effectuated. The dissenting shareholder may not vote in favor of the Reincorporation. A holder of Dissenting Shares wishing to exercise such holder's dissenters' rights must be the record holder of such Dissenting Shares on the date the proposed corporate action creating dissenters' rights under Dissenters' Rights Provisions are approved by the shareholders. Accordingly, a holder of Dissenting Shares who is the record holder of Dissenting Shares on the date the written demand for appraisal is made, but who thereafter transfers such Dissenting Shares prior to the vote on the proposed Reincorporation will lose any right to appraisal in respect of such Dissenting Shares.

Edgar Filing: EMAILTHATPAYS COM INC - Form DEF 14A

Under the Dissenters' Rights Provisions, a shareholder who wishes to assert his dissenters' rights if the proposed Reincorporation is approved, must cause the Company to receive written notice of his intent to demand payment for shares prior to the vote taken to approve the proposal at the Annual Meeting. Within ten (10) days after approval of the Reincorporation, the Company (or Forge) must mail a notice of such approval (the "Approval Notice") to all shareholders who filed a notice of intent to demand payment for their shares under the Dissenters' Rights Provisions.

Within 10 days after the expiration of the period in which shareholders may file their notices of election to dissent, or within 10 days after such corporate action is effected, whichever is later, the Company, or Forge, shall make a written offer to each dissenting shareholder who has made demand as provided in this section to pay an amount the Company, or Forge estimates to be the fair value for such shares. If the Company, or Forge, fails to make such offer within the period specified in the Dissenters' Rights Provisions or if it makes the offer and any dissenting shareholder fails to accept the offer within the period of 30 days thereafter, the Company, or Forge, may file an action in any court of competent jurisdiction in Florida in the county in which the registered office is located requesting that the fair value of the shares be determined.

The district court will determine all costs of the proceeding, including the reasonable compensation and expenses of appraisers appointed by the court and will assess the costs against the corporation unless the court finds that all or some of the dissenters acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith. The court may also make other allocations of attorney's fees among the parties.

Failure to follow the steps required by the dissenters' Rights Provisions as described above for perfecting dissenters' rights may result in the loss of such rights. If, after the Effective Time, a holder of Dissenting Shares has failed to perfect or has effectively withdrawn or lost his or her right to payment, such holder's shares will be deemed to have been converted into and to have become exchangeable for, at the Effective Time, the right to receive a corresponding number of shares of Forge Common Stock.

AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER

This AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER (the "Merger Agreement") is made as of this ___ day of _____, 2002, by and between emailthatpays.com, Inc., a Florida corporation (the "Parent") and Forge, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Subsidiary").

RECITALS:

WHEREAS, the Parent is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Florida;

WHEREAS, the Subsidiary is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Delaware and is a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Parent;

WHEREAS, the parties hereto desire that the Parent merge with and into the Subsidiary and that the Subsidiary shall continue as the surviving corporation in such merger, which is intended to qualify as a tax-free reorganization under Section 368(a)(1)(F) or 368(a)(1)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, upon the terms and subject to the conditions herein set forth and in accordance with the laws of the State of Florida and the laws of the State of Delaware (the "Merger").

NOW THEREFORE, the parties hereto hereby agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

At the Effective Time of the Merger (as defined in Section 1.2 hereof), the Parent shall merge with and into the Subsidiary in accordance with the Florida Business Corporation Act (the "FBCA") and the Delaware General Corporation Law (the "DGCL"). The separate existence of the Parent shall thereupon cease and the Subsidiary shall be the surviving corporation (hereinafter sometimes referred to as the "Surviving Corporation") and shall continue its corporate existence under the laws of the State of Delaware.

Section 1.2 Effective Time of the Merger. The Merger shall become effective as of the date and time (the "Effective Time of the Merger") the following actions are completed: (a) appropriate articles of merger are filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Florida, and a certificate of merger is issued by the Secretary of State of the State of Florida in accordance with the FBCA and (b) an appropriate certificate of merger is filed with the Secretary of the State of Delaware in accordance with the DGCL.

Section 1.3 Effects of the Merger. At the Effective Time of the Merger, the Merger shall have the effects specified in the FBCA, the DGCL and this Merger Agreement.

Section 1.4 Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws. At the Effective Time of the Merger, the Certificate of Incorporation and bylaws of the Subsidiary, as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time of the Merger, shall become the Certificate of Incorporation and bylaws of the Surviving Corporation until duly amended in accordance with their terms and as provided by the DGCL.

Section 1.5 Directors and Officers. At the Effective Time of the Merger, the directors and officers of the Subsidiary in office at the Effective Time of the Merger shall become the directors and officers, respectively, of the Surviving Corporation, each of such directors and officers to hold office, subject to the applicable provisions of the Certificate of Incorporation and bylaws of the Surviving Corporation and the DGCL, until his or her successor is duly elected or appointed and qualified.

Section 1.6 Shareholders' Dissenters Rights. The Shareholders of the Parent are entitled to dissenters' rights under sections 607.1301, 607.1302 and 607.1320 of the FBCA. In the event that shareholders collectively owning more than one percent (1%) of the shares of the Parent exercise his, her or its dissenters' rights, the Parent's board of directors may abandon the Merger in its sole discretion.

ARTICLE II

CONVERSION AND EXCHANGE OF STOCK

Section 2.1 Conversion. At the Effective Time of the Merger, each of the following transactions shall be deemed to occur simultaneously:

Edgar Filing: EMAILTHATPAYS COM INC - Form DEF 14A

(a) Each share of the Parent's common stock, $0.005 par value (the "Parent's Common Stock") issued and outstanding, immediately prior to the Effective Time of the Merger shall, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of the holder thereof, be converted into and become [_____] validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable share[s] of the Surviving Corporation's common stock, par value $0.001 per share (the "Surviving Corporation's Common Stock").

(b) Each option to purchase shares of the Parent's Common Stock outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time of the Merger shall, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of the holder thereof, be converted into and become an option to purchase, upon the same terms and conditions, the number of shares of the Surviving Corporation's Common Stock, which is [equal to] the number of shares of the Parent's Common Stock that the optionee would have received had the optionee exercised such option in full immediately prior to the Effective Time of the Merger (whether or not such option was then exercisable) and the exercise price per share under each of said options shall be [equal to] the exercise price per share thereunder immediately prior to the Effective Time of the Merger, unless otherwise provided in the instrument granting such option.

(c) Each warrant to purchase shares of the Parent's Common Stock outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time of the Merger shall, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of the holder thereof, be converted into and become a warrant to purchase, upon the same terms and conditions, the number of shares of the Surviving Corporation's Common Stock which is [equal to] the number of shares of the Parent's Common Stock that the warrant holder would have received had the warrant holder exercised such warrant in full immediately prior to the Effective Time of the Merger (whether or not such warrant was then exercisable) and the exercise price per share under each of said warrants shall be [equal to] the exercise price per share thereunder immediately prior to the Effective Time of the Merger, unless otherwise provided in the instrument granting such warrant.

(d) Each share of the Subsidiary's Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time of the Merger and held by the Parent shall be canceled without any consideration being issued or paid therefor.

Section 2.2 Exchange.

(a) After the Effective Time of the Merger, each certificate theretofore representing issued and outstanding shares of the Parent's Common Stock shall represent [_____] number of shares of the Surviving Corporation's Common Stock.

(b) At any time on or after the Effective Time of the Merger, each holder of an outstanding certificate theretofore representing the Parent's Common Stock will be requested to surrender such certificate to StockTrans, Inc. as the exchange agent (the "Exchange Agent"). As soon as practicable after the surrender to the Exchange Agent of any certificate which prior to the Merger represented shares of the Parent's Common Stock, together with a duly executed transmittal letter and any other documents the Exchange Agent may specify, the Exchange Agent shall deliver to the person in whose name such certificate has been issued certificates registered in the name of such person representing the number of full shares of the Surviving Corporation's Stock into which the shares of the Parent's Common Stock previously represented by the surrendered certificate shall have been reclassified.

Edgar Filing: EMAILTHATPAYS COM INC - Form DEF 14A

(c) No certificates or scrip representing fractional shares of Surviving Corporation's Common Stock shall be issued in connection with the Merger. Instead, stockholders holding a number of shares of the Parent's Common Stock not evenly divisible by the exchange ratio, and stockholders holding less than the exchange ratio of shares of the Parent's Common Stock, upon surrender of their old certificates, will receive cash in lieu of fractional shares of Surviving Corporation's Common Stock. The price payable by the Parent will be determined by multiplying the fraction of a share of new Surviving Corporation's Common Stock by the closing price for that number of shares as determined by the Board of Directors of the Parent's Common Stock at the Effective Time of the Merger for which transactions in the Parent's Common Stock are reported, as reported by the Nasdaq Over the Counter Bulletin Board.

ARTICLE III

EMPLOYEE BENEFIT AND INCENTIVE COMPENSATION PLANS

At the Effective Time of the Merger, each employee benefit plan, incentive compensation plan and other similar plans to which the Parent is then a party shall be assumed by, and continue to be the plan of, the Surviving Corporation. To the extent any employee benefit plan, incentive compensation plan or other similar plan of the Parent provides for the issuance or purchase of, or otherwise relates to, the Parent's Common Stock, after the Effective Time of the Merger such plan shall be deemed to provide for the issuance or purchase of, or otherwise relate to, the Surviving Corporation's Common Stock.

ARTICLE IV

CONDITIONS

Consummation of the Merger is subject to the satisfaction at or prior to the Effective Time of the Merger of the following conditions:

Section 4.1 Shareholder Approval. This Merger Agreement and the Merger shall have been adopted and approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast by all shareholders of the Parent entitled to vote on the record date fixed for determining the shareholders of the Parent entitled to vote thereon. This Agreement and the Merger shall also have been adopted and approved by the Parent as the holder of all the outstanding shares of the Subsidiary's Common Stock prior to the Effective Time of the Merger.

Section 4.2 Third Party Consents. The Parent shall have received all required consents to and approvals of the Merger.

ARTICLE V

MISCELLANEOUS

Section 5.1 Amendment. This Merger Agreement may be amended, modified or supplemented in whole or in part, at any time prior to the Effective Time of the Merger with the mutual consent of the boards of directors of the parties hereto; provided, however, that the Merger Agreement may not be amended after it has been adopted by the shareholders of the Parent in any manner which, in the judgment of the board of directors of the Parent, would have a material adverse effect on the rights of such shareholders or in any manner not permitted under applicable law.

Section 5.2 Termination. This Merger Agreement may be terminated or abandoned by the parties hereto at any time prior to the filing of the certificate of merger notwithstanding approval of this Merger Agreement by the shareholders of either or both of the Parent or the Subsidiary.

A-3

Section 5.3 Necessary Actions, etc. If at any date after the Effective Time of the Merger, the Surviving Corporation shall consider that any assignments, transfers, deeds or other assurances in law are necessary or desirable to vest, perfect or confirm, of record or otherwise, in the Surviving Corporation, title to any property or rights of the Parent, the Parent and its officers and directors at the Effective Time of the Merger shall execute and deliver such documents and do all things necessary and proper to vest, perfect or confirm title to such property or rights in the Surviving Corporation, and the officers and directors of the Surviving Corporation are fully authorized in the name of the Parent or otherwise to take any and all such action.

Section 5.4 Counterparts. This Merger Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be considered to be an original instrument.

Section 5.5 Descriptive Headings. The descriptive headings are for convenience of reference only and shall not control or affect the meaning or construction of any provision of this Merger Agreement.

Section 5.6 Governing Law. This Merger Agreement shall be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware, except to the extent the laws of the State of Florida shall mandatorily apply to the Merger.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned officers of each of the parties to this Merger Agreement, pursuant to authority duly given by their respective boards of directors, have caused this Merger Agreement to be duly executed on the date set forth above.

607.1301 Dissenters' rights; definitions.--The following definitions apply to ss. 607.1302 and 607.1320:

(1) "Corporation" means the issuer of the shares held by a dissenting shareholder before the corporate action or the surviving or acquiring corporation by merger or share exchange of that issuer.

(2) "Fair value," with respect to a dissenter's shares, means the value of the shares as of the close of business on the day prior to the shareholders' authorization date, excluding any appreciation or depreciation in anticipation of the corporate action unless exclusion would be inequitable.

(3) "Shareholders' authorization date" means the date on which the shareholders' vote authorizing the proposed action was taken, the date on which the corporation received written consents without a meeting from the requisite number of shareholders in order to authorize the action, or, in the case of a merger pursuant to s. 607.1104, the day prior to the date on which a copy of the plan of merger was mailed to each shareholder of record of the subsidiary corporation.

History -- s. 118, ch. 89-154.

607.1302 Right of shareholders to dissent.--

(1) Any shareholder of a corporation has the right to dissent from, and obtain payment of the fair value of his or her shares in the event of, any of the following corporate actions:

(a) Consummation of a plan of merger to which the corporation is a party:

1. If the shareholder is entitled to vote on the merger, or

2. If the corporation is a subsidiary that is merged with its parent under s. 607.1104, and the shareholders would have been entitled to vote on action taken, except for the applicability of s. 607.1104;

(b) Consummation of a sale or exchange of all, or substantially all, of the property of the corporation, other than in the usual and regular course of business, if the shareholder is entitled to vote on the sale or exchange pursuant to s. 607.1202, including a sale in dissolution but not including a sale pursuant to court order or a sale for cash pursuant to a plan by which all or substantially all of the net proceeds of the sale will be distributed to the shareholders within 1 year after the date of sale;

(c) As provided in s. 607.0902(11), the approval of a control-share acquisition;

(d) Consummation of a plan of share exchange to which the corporation is a party as the corporation the shares of which will be acquired, if the shareholder is entitled to vote on the plan;

(e) Any amendment of the articles of incorporation if the shareholder is entitled to vote on the amendment and if such amendment would adversely affect such shareholder by:

1. Altering or abolishing any preemptive rights attached to any of his or her shares;

D-1

2. Altering or abolishing the voting rights pertaining to any of his or her shares, except as such rights may be affected by the voting rights of new shares then being authorized of any existing or new class or series of shares;

3. Effecting an exchange, cancellation, or reclassification of any of his or her shares, when such exchange, cancellation, or reclassification would alter or abolish the shareholder's voting rights or alter his or her percentage of equity in the corporation, or effecting a reduction or cancellation of accrued dividends or other arrearages in respect to such shares;

4. Reducing the stated redemption price of any of the shareholder's redeemable shares, altering or abolishing any provision relating to any sinking fund for the redemption or purchase of any of his or her shares, or making any of his or her shares subject to redemption when they are not otherwise redeemable;

5. Making noncumulative, in whole or in part, dividends of any of the shareholder's preferred shares which had theretofore been cumulative;

6. Reducing the stated dividend preference of any of the shareholder's preferred shares; or

7. Reducing any stated preferential amount payable on any of the shareholder's preferred shares upon voluntary or involuntary liquidation; or

(f) Any corporate action taken, to the extent the articles of incorporation provide that a voting or nonvoting shareholder is entitled to dissent and obtain payment for his or her shares.

(2) A shareholder dissenting from any amendment specified in paragraph (1)(e) has the right to dissent only as to those of his or her shares which are adversely affected by the amendment.

(3) A shareholder may dissent as to less than all the shares registered in his or her name. In that event, the shareholder's rights shall be determined as if the shares as to which he or she has dissented and his or her other shares were registered in the names of different shareholders.

(4) Unless the articles of incorporation otherwise provide, this section does not apply with respect to a plan of merger or share exchange or a proposed sale or exchange of property, to the holders of shares of any class or series which, on the record date fixed to determine the shareholders entitled to vote at the meeting of shareholders at which such action is to be acted upon or to consent to any such action without a meeting, were either registered on a national securities exchange or designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc., or held of record by not fewer than 2,000 shareholders.

(5) A shareholder entitled to dissent and obtain payment for his or her shares under this section may not challenge the corporate action creating his or her entitlement unless the action is unlawful or fraudulent with respect to the shareholder or the corporation.

607.1320 Procedure for exercise of dissenters' rights.--

(1) (a) If a proposed corporate action creating dissenters' rights under s. 607.1302 is submitted to a vote at a shareholders' meeting, the meeting notice shall state that shareholders are or may be entitled to assert dissenters' rights and be accompanied by a copy of ss. 607.1301, 607.1302, and 607.1320. A shareholder who wishes to assert dissenters' rights shall:

D-2

1. Deliver to the corporation before the vote is taken written notice of the shareholder's intent to demand payment for his or her shares if the proposed action is effectuated, and

2. Not vote his or her shares in favor of the proposed action. A proxy or vote against the proposed action does not constitute such a notice of intent to demand payment.

(b) If proposed corporate action creating dissenters' rights under s. 607.1302 is effectuated by written consent without a meeting, the corporation shall deliver a copy of ss. 607.1301, 607.1302, and 607.1320 to each shareholder simultaneously with any request for the shareholder's written consent or, if such a request is not made, within 10 days after the date the corporation received written consents without a meeting from the requisite number of shareholders necessary to authorize the action.

(2) Within 10 days after the shareholders' authorization date, the corporation shall give written notice of such authorization or consent or adoption of the plan of merger, as the case may be, to each shareholder who filed a notice of intent to demand payment for his or her shares pursuant to paragraph (1)(a) or, in the case of action authorized by written consent, to each shareholder, excepting any who voted for, or consented in writing to, the proposed action.

(3) Within 20 days after the giving of notice to him or her, any shareholder who elects to dissent shall file with the corporation a notice of such election, stating the shareholder's name and address, the number, classes, and series of shares as to which he or she dissents, and a demand for payment of the fair value of his or her shares. Any shareholder failing to file such election to dissent within the period set forth shall be bound by the terms of the proposed corporate action. Any shareholder filing an election to dissent shall deposit his or her certificates for certificated shares with the corporation simultaneously with the filing of the election to dissent. The corporation may restrict the transfer of uncertificated shares from the date the shareholder's election to dissent is filed with the corporation.

(4) Upon filing a notice of election to dissent, the shareholder shall thereafter be entitled only to payment as provided in this section and shall not be entitled to vote or to exercise any other rights of a shareholder. A notice of election may be withdrawn in writing by the shareholder at any time before an offer is made by the corporation, as provided in subsection (5), to pay for his or her shares. After such offer, no such notice of election may be withdrawn unless the corporation consents thereto. However, the right of such shareholder to be paid the fair value of his or her shares shall cease, and the shareholder shall be reinstated to have all his or her rights as a shareholder as of the filing of his or her notice of election, including any intervening preemptive rights and the right to payment of any intervening dividend or other distribution or, if any such rights have expired or any such dividend or distribution other than in cash has been completed, in lieu thereof, at the election of the corporation, the fair value thereof in cash as determined by the board as of the time of such expiration or completion, but without prejudice otherwise to any corporate proceedings that may have been taken in the interim, if:

(a) Such demand is withdrawn as provided in this section;

(b) The proposed corporate action is abandoned or rescinded or the shareholders revoke the authority to effect such action;

(c) No demand or petition for the determination of fair value by a court has been made or filed within the time provided in this section; or

(d) A court of competent jurisdiction determines that such shareholder is not entitled to the relief provided by this section.

(5) Within 10 days after the expiration of the period in which shareholders may file their notices of election to dissent, or within 10 days after such corporate action is effected, whichever is later (but in no case later than 90 days from the shareholders' authorization date), the corporation shall make a written offer to each dissenting shareholder who has made demand as provided in this section to pay an amount the corporation estimates to be the fair value for such shares. If the corporate action has not been consummated before the expiration of the 90-day period after the shareholders' authorization date, the offer may be made conditional upon the consummation of such action. Such notice and offer shall be accompanied by:

(a) A balance sheet of the corporation, the shares of which the dissenting shareholder holds, as of the latest available date and not more than 12 months prior to the making of such offer; and

(b) A profit and loss statement of such corporation for the 12-month period ended on the date of such balance sheet or, if the corporation was not in existence throughout such 12-month period, for the portion thereof during which it was in existence.

(6) If within 30 days after the making of such offer any shareholder accepts the same, payment for his or her shares shall be made within 90 days after the making of such offer or the consummation of the proposed action, whichever is later. Upon payment of the agreed value, the dissenting shareholder shall cease to have any interest in such shares.

(7) If the corporation fails to make such offer within the period specified therefor in subsection (5) or if it makes the offer and any dissenting shareholder or shareholders fail to accept the same within the period of 30 days thereafter, then the corporation, within 30 days after receipt of written demand from any dissenting shareholder given within 60 days after the date on which such corporate action was effected, shall, or at its election at any time within such period of 60 days may, file an action in any court of competent jurisdiction in the county in this state where the registered office of the corporation is located requesting that the fair value of such shares be determined. The court shall also determine whether each dissenting shareholder, as to whom the corporation requests the court to make such determination, is entitled to receive payment for his or her shares. If the corporation fails to institute the proceeding as herein provided, any dissenting shareholder may do so in the name of the corporation. All dissenting shareholders (whether or not residents of this state), other than shareholders who have agreed with the corporation as to the value of their shares, shall be made parties to the proceeding as an action against their shares. The corporation shall serve a copy of the initial pleading in such proceeding upon each dissenting shareholder who is a resident of this state in the manner provided by law for the service of a summons and complaint and upon each nonresident dissenting shareholder either by registered or certified mail and publication or in such other manner as is permitted by law. The jurisdiction of the court is plenary and exclusive. All shareholders who are proper parties to the proceeding are entitled to judgment against the corporation for the amount of the fair value of their shares. The court may, if it so elects, appoint one or more persons as appraisers to receive evidence and recommend a decision on the question of fair value. The appraisers shall have such power and authority as is specified in the order of their appointment or an amendment thereof. The corporation shall pay each dissenting shareholder the amount found to be due him or her within 10 days after final determination of the proceedings. Upon payment of the judgment, the dissenting shareholder shall cease to have any interest in such shares.

(8) The judgment may, at the discretion of the court, include a fair rate of interest, to be determined by the court.

(9) The costs and expenses of any such proceeding shall be determined by the court and shall be assessed against the corporation, but all or any part of such costs and expenses may be apportioned and assessed as the court deems equitable against any or all of the dissenting shareholders who are parties to the proceeding, to whom the corporation has made an offer to pay for the shares, if the court finds that the action of such shareholders in failing to accept such offer was arbitrary, vexatious, or not in good faith. Such expenses shall include reasonable compensation for, and reasonable expenses of, the appraisers, but shall exclude the fees and expenses of counsel for, and experts employed by, any party. If the fair value of the shares, as determined, materially exceeds the amount which the corporation offered to pay therefor or if no offer was made, the court in its discretion may award to any shareholder who is a party to the proceeding such sum as the court determines to be reasonable compensation to any attorney or expert employed by the shareholder in the proceeding.

(10) Shares acquired by a corporation pursuant to payment of the agreed value thereof or pursuant to payment of the judgment entered therefor, as provided in this section, may be held and disposed of by such corporation as authorized but unissued shares of the corporation, except that, in the case of a merger, they may be held and disposed of as the plan of merger otherwise provides. The shares of the surviving corporation into which the shares of such dissenting shareholders would have been converted had they assented to the merger shall have the status of authorized but unissued shares of the surviving corporation.
