BUCKEYE PARTNERS, L.P. AND BUCKEYE GP HOLDINGS L.P.
ANNOUNCE RECORD AND MEETING DATES FOR MERGER VOTES

HOUSTON, September 27, 2010 Buckeye Partners, L.P. (BPL) (NYSE: BPL) and Buckeye GP Holdings L.P. (BGH) (NYSE: BGH) today announced that they each have established a record date of Friday, September 17, 2010, and a meeting date of Tuesday, November 16, 2010, for special meetings of their respective unitholders. At the special meetings, unitholders will vote on the previously announced proposed merger of BGH into Grand Ohio, LLC, a wholly-owned subsidiary of BPL formed to effect the merger of BPL and BGH, and related matters pursuant to the First Amended and Restated Agreement and Plan of Merger dated as of August 18, 2010 (the Merger Agreement) by and among BPL, BGH, their respective general partners, and Grand Ohio, LLC.

We are pleased that both partnerships have set record and meeting dates to vote on the merger, stated Forrest E. Wylie, Chairman and CEO of the general partners of both BPL and BGH. Under the terms of the proposed merger, the incentive distribution rights (IDRs) that BPL currently pays to BGH would be cancelled, thereby reducing BPL's cost of equity capital. By eliminating these IDRs, BPL should become more competitive when pursuing acquisitions and able to finance organic growth projects less expensively, which in turn should enhance BPL's long-term distribution growth prospects, Wylie said. Several other midstream MLPs have already reduced their cost of equity capital by repurchasing, capping, or eliminating the IDRs that they pay to their general partners. In addition, other MLPs have recently announced similar transactions that would eliminate their IDRs. A reduction of BPL's cost of equity capital is, in our view, necessary for BPL to effectively compete with these other MLPs for future acquisitions. This merger is an important, positive transaction for the long-term growth of BPL, added Wylie.
