Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On February 7, 2011, Carver Bancorp, Inc. (the Company) and its wholly-owned subsidiary, Carver Federal Savings Bank (the Bank) consented to the Office of Thrift Supervision (OTS) issuing an Order to Cease and Desist against the Company (the Company Order) and against the Bank (the Bank Order) (together the Orders)

The Company Order requires, among other things, the Company to notify and receive the OTS written permission prior to (i) declaring, making or paying any dividends or other capital distributions, or repurchasing or redeeming any capital stock; (ii) incurring, issuing, renewing, repurchasing or rolling over any debt, increasing any current lines of credit or guaranteeing the debt of any entity; (iii) making certain changes to its directors or senior executive officers; (v) entering into, renewing, extending or revising any contractual arrangement related to compensation or benefits with any of its directors or senior executive officers; and (vi) making any golden parachute payments or prohibited indemnification payments.

The Bank Order requires, among other things, the Bank (i) attain by April 30, 2011, and maintain, a Tier 1 Core Capital Ratio equal to or greater than nine percent (9%) and a Total Risk-Based Capital Ratio equal to or greater than thirteen percent (13%); (ii) revise and adhere to a written plan to identify, monitor and control risk associated with concentrations of assets; (iii) adhere to a detailed written plan with specific strategies, targets and timeframes to reduce the Bank's level of problem assets, which shall include all criticized and classified assets; and (iv) ensure that the Bank's financial reports and statements are timely and accurately prepared and filed. The Bank Order also provides that, unless the Bank first receives prior OTS written non-objection, the Bank may not (i) originate or purchase, refinance, extend or otherwise modify any commercial real estate loan as defined in the Order (CRE Loan), unless the refinance, modification or extension meets certain criteria, including improving the credit quality and collectability of the loan; (ii) increase its asset size in any quarter greater than an amount equal to the net interest credited on deposit liabilities during the prior quarter; (iii) declare or pay dividends or make any capital distributions; (iv) make certain changes to its directors or senior executive officers; (v) enter into, renew, extend or revise any contractual arrangement related to compensation or benefits with any of its directors or senior executive officers; (vi) make any golden parachute or prohibited indemnification payments; (vii) enter into certain transactions with affiliates; and (xiii) enter into any arrangement or contract with a third party service provider that is significant or outside the normal course of business. Finally, without prior Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation Approval, the Bank may not roll over or renew any brokered deposit or accept any new brokered deposits.

The foregoing description of the Orders is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Orders issued to the Company and the Bank, which are attached hereto as Exhibits 10.1 and 10.3, respectively, and are incorporated by reference into this Item 1.01.

On February 10, 2011, the Company announced that it has suspended dividend payments on the Company's fixed-rate cumulative perpetual preferred stock issued under the Troubled Asset Relief Program, Capital Purchase Program to the United States Department of Treasury and has deferred interest payments on the floating rate junior subordinated deferrable interest debentures due 2033, known as Carver Statutory Trust I debentures. Interest payments may be deferred up to twenty consecutive quarterly periods. During the suspension period interest will continue to accrue.
