Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On June 30, 2011, Dawson Geophysical Company (the Company) restated its revolving line of credit loan agreement with Western National Bank to add a new term loan provision in order to finance the purchase of certain OYO GSR equipment which the Company had previously leased. The total amount of the term loan, which amount was fully advanced on the execution of the facility amendment, is $16,426,680.06, and represents virtually all of the purchase price for the leased equipment. No material changes were made to the revolving facility in the restatement, and total availability under the revolving facility remains $20.0 million. As of the date of this filing, no amounts were outstanding under the revolving facility.

The purchased OYO equipment consists of 14,850 OYO GSR single-channel units. As previously reported, the Company leased the OYO equipment in the first fiscal quarter, with an option to purchase the equipment using a significant portion of the lease expense applied to the purchase price. The OYO equipment is currently deployed on two of the Company's data acquisition crews.

Under the new term loan feature, interest will accrue on the term loan at an annual rate equal to either: (a) the 30-day London Interbank Offered Rate (LIBOR), plus two and one-quarter percent (2.25%), or (b) the Prime Rate, minus three-quarters percent (.75%) as the Company directs monthly, subject to an interest rate floor of four percent (4%). The term loan is subject to the same covenants as the Company's revolving loan, including limitations on disposition of assets and mergers and reorganizations. The Company is also obligated to meet the same financial covenants with respect to the term loan as under the revolving loan, including maintaining specified ratios with respect to cash flow coverage, debt to tangible net worth, and current assets and liabilities. The Company's obligations under the new term loan are secured by the same security interest as the revolving loan covering the Company's accounts receivable, equipment and related collateral.

All outstanding amounts owed under the term loan will become due and payable no later than the maturity date of June 30, 2014, and are subject to acceleration upon the occurrence of events of default which the Company considers usual and customary for an agreement of this type, including failure to make payments under the loan agreement, non-performance of covenants and obligations or insolvency or bankruptcy (as described in the loan agreement).

The foregoing description of the term loan does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Revolving Line of Credit and Term Loan Agreement and the Security Agreement, which are filed as Exhibits 10.1 and 10.2 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.

Item 2.03. Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant.

The information provided in Item 1.01 to this Current Report on Form 8-K is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 9.01. Financial Statements and Exhibits.
