PART II RULES 12b-25(b) AND (c)

If the subject report could not be filed without unreasonable effort or expense and the registrant seeks relief pursuant to Rule 12b-25(b), the following should be completed. (Check box if appropriate)

- (a) The reason described in reasonable detail in Part III of this form could not be eliminated without unreasonable effort or expense
- (b) The subject annual report, semi-annual report, transition report on Form 10-K, Form 20-F, Form 11-K, Form N-SAR or Form N-CSR, or portion thereof, will be filed on or before the fifteenth calendar day following the prescribed due date; or the subject quarterly report or transition report on Form 10-Q, or subject distribution report on Form 10-D, or portion thereof, will be filed on or before the fifth calendar day following the prescribed due date; and
- (c) The accountant's statement or other exhibit required by Rule 12b-25(c) has been attached if applicable.

PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Consistent with industry practice, the Company has historically reported all cash flow information relating to floor plan notes payable as cash flows from operating activities. It recently has been determined that floor plan notes payable to a party other than the manufacturer of a new vehicle, and all floor plan notes payable relating to pre-owned vehicles, should be classified as floor plan notes payable non-trade on the Company's balance sheets and that the related cash flows should be classified as resulting from financing activities on the Company's statements of cash flows in compliance with the guidance under Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 95, Statement of Cash Flows. The resulting effect on the September 30, 2005 Form 10-Q will be to report the same aggregate amount of floor plan notes payable on two line items Floor plan notes payable and Floor plan notes payable non-trade on the balance sheet instead of one, and to report cash flows relating to changes in the floor plan notes payable non-trade in financing activities rather than operating activities on the cash flow statement. These changes will have no impact on the Company's net income, earnings per share or shareholder's equity.

The Company is prepared to file its third quarter Form 10-Q, however, we have not completed calculating the quantitative effect of the restated presentation on line items on prior period balance sheets and cash flow statements. We currently expect to have that quantitative effect estimated no later than Monday, November 14, 2005 and expect to file our third quarter Form 10-Q at that time.
