Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Merger Agreement

On February 5, 2007, Hanover Compressor Company, a Delaware corporation ( Hanover ), Universal Compression Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation ( Universal ), Iliad Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation ( Iliad ), Hector Sub, Inc., a Delaware corporation ( Hanover Merger Sub ), and Ulysses Sub, Inc., a Delaware corporation ( Universal Merger Sub ), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (together with the exhibits thereto, the Merger Agreement ). Iliad is a newly formed, wholly owned direct subsidiary of Universal, and Hanover Merger Sub and Universal Merger Sub are direct wholly owned subsidiaries of Iliad.

The Merger Agreement provides that Universal Merger Sub will merge with and into Universal (the Universal Merger ) and Hanover Merger Sub will merge with and into Hanover (the Hanover Merger and, together with the Universal Merger, the Mergers ). As a result of the Mergers, the holders of Universal common stock will have the right to receive one share of Iliad common stock in exchange for each Universal share, and the holders of Hanover common stock will have the right to receive 0.325 shares of Iliad common stock in exchange for each Hanover share. Universal and Hanover will continue as wholly owned subsidiaries of Iliad.

All outstanding equity awards at the effective time of the Mergers will be assumed by Iliad and converted into awards to receive shares of Iliad common stock. Each outstanding right or option to acquire one share of Hanover common stock outstanding immediately prior to the Hanover Merger will be converted into an option to acquire 0.325 shares of Iliad common stock at an adjusted exercise price. Each outstanding right or option to acquire one share of Universal common stock outstanding immediately prior to the Universal Merger will be converted into an option to acquire one share of Iliad common stock at the same exercise price. The Hanover and Universal equity incentive plans will be assumed by Iliad.

The Merger Agreement provides that following the effective time of the Mergers, Iliad will have a board of directors that consists of ten members, which will include five directors named by Hanover and five directors named by Universal. Gordon T. Hall, the current Chairman of Hanover's Board of Directors, will serve as the Chairman of the Board of Directors of Iliad. Stephen Snider, President and Chief Executive Officer of Universal, will be the President and Chief Executive Officer and a director of Iliad. It is expected that John Jackson, President and Chief Executive Officer of Hanover, will serve as a director of Iliad.

Hanover and Universal have each made customary representations, warranties and covenants in the Merger Agreement, including, among others, covenants to conduct their businesses in the ordinary course between the execution of the Merger Agreement and the consummation of the Mergers and covenants not to engage in certain kinds of transactions during that period. Hanover and Universal have agreed to certain exceptions to the limitations contained in these covenants, including (1) permitting Universal to repurchase up to $75 million of its common stock in accordance with its previously announced stock repurchase program, (2) permitting Universal Compression Partners, L.P. to make cash distributions in accordance with its Agreement of Limited Partnership and (3) permitting Universal to make contributions of its domestic compression assets to Universal Compression Partners, L.P. In addition, Hanover and Universal have made certain additional customary covenants, including, among others, covenants, subject to certain exceptions, (A) not to solicit proposals relating to alternative business combination transactions, (B) not to enter into discussions concerning, or provide confidential information in connection with, alternative business combination transactions, (C) to cause stockholder meetings to be held to consider approval of the Mergers and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and (D) for their respective Boards of Directors to recommend adoption of the Merger Agreement by their respective stockholders.

Investors are cautioned that the representations, warranties and covenants included in the Merger Agreement were made by Hanover and Universal to each other. These representations, warranties and covenants were made as of specific dates and only for purposes of the Merger Agreement and are subject to important exceptions and limitations, including a contractual standard of materiality different from that generally relevant to investors, and are qualified by information in confidential disclosure schedules that the parties exchanged in connection with the execution of the agreement. In addition, the representations and warranties may have been included in the Merger Agreement for the purpose of allocating risk between Hanover and Universal, rather than to establish matters as facts. The Merger Agreement is described in this Current Report on Form 8-K and attached as Exhibit 2.1 hereto only to provide you with information regarding its terms and conditions, and, except for its status as a contractual document that establishes and governs the legal relationship among the parties thereto with respect to the Mergers, not to provide any other factual information regarding Hanover, Universal or their respective businesses or the actual conduct of their respective businesses during the pendency of the Merger Agreement. Investors are not third-party beneficiaries under the Merger Agreement and should not rely on the representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement as characterizations of the actual state of facts about Hanover or Universal. Furthermore, you should not rely on the covenants in the Merger Agreement as actual limitations on the respective businesses of Hanover and Universal, because either party may take certain actions that are either expressly permitted in the confidential disclosure letters to the Merger Agreement or as otherwise consented to by the appropriate party, which consent may be given without prior notice to the public.

Consummation of the Mergers is subject to customary conditions, including, among others, (1) approval of the stockholders of each of Hanover and Universal, (2) the receipt of required regulatory approvals, (3) the receipt of consents under the parties' respective bank credit facilities and the arrangement of financings to provide sufficient funds to repay or repurchase any indebtedness required to be repaid upon consummation of the Mergers and (4) the absence of any material adverse effect with respect to Hanover's and Universal's business, as applicable.

The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights for both Hanover and Universal. Upon termination of the Merger Agreement under certain specified circumstances, one party would be required to pay the other party a termination fee of up to $70 million.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 hereto, and is incorporated into this Current Report on Form 8-K by reference. The Merger Agreement provides further information regarding the terms of the Mergers.

On February 5, 2007, Hanover and Universal issued a joint press release announcing the execution of the Merger Agreement. A copy of that press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and, except as noted under Item 2.02 below, is incorporated into this Item 1.01 by reference.

Item 2.02. Results of Operation and Financial Condition.

Forward-Looking Statements

Statements about Hanover's and Universal's outlook and all other statements in this Current Report on Form 8-K other than historical facts are forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements rely on a number of assumptions concerning future events and are subject to a number of uncertainties and factors, many of which are outside Hanover's and Universal's control, which could cause actual results to differ materially from such statements. Forward looking information includes, but is not limited to, statements regarding the new combined company, including Hanover's and Universal's expected combined financial and operating results; the expected amount and timing of cost savings and operating synergies; the expected financial outlook of and opportunities associated with Universal Compression Partners; and whether and when the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement will be consummated. Among the factors that could cause results to differ materially from those indicated by such forward-looking statements are the failure to realize anticipated synergies; the result of the review of the proposed Mergers by various regulatory agencies and any conditions imposed on the new company in connection with consummation of the Mergers; failure to receive the approval of the Mergers by the stockholders of Hanover and Universal and satisfaction of various other conditions to the closing of the Mergers contemplated by the Merger Agreement. These forward-looking statements are also affected by the risk factors, forward-looking statements and challenges and uncertainties described in Hanover's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the twelve months ended December 31, 2005 and Universal's Transition Report on Form 10-K for the nine months ended December 31, 2005, and those set forth from time to time in Hanover's and Universal's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, which are available through Hanover's and Universal's websites at www.hanover-co.com and www.universalcompression.com. Hanover and Universal expressly disclaim any intention or obligation to revise or update any forward-looking statements whether as a result of new information, future events, or otherwise.
