NEWS RELEASE

HARMONY MOVES LISTING TO NYSE HMY

Johannesburg 15 November 2002 Harmony Gold Mining Company Limited. (NASDAQ: HGMCY), the 5th largest gold producer in the world, announced today that it will transfer its stock listing to the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE).

Harmony's stock will begin trading on the NYSE under the ticker symbol HMY on Wednesday, November 27, 2002. The Harmony warrants, currently trading under the code HGMCW on NASDAQ, will be replaced by the code HMYWS.

This move represents an important milestone in our growth as an independent public company over the past 7 years. The listing reflects our commitment to the highest standards of corporate governance and accountability, said chief executive Bernard Swanepoel. Although Harmony is one of the most actively traded ADRs on NASDAQ, we believe that the NYSE listing will improve Harmony's visibility among a wider base of investors while also lessening the volatility of our stock for current investors. We greatly appreciate and acknowledge the support that we have received from NASDAQ over the years.

My partners at the Exchange and I are privileged to welcome Harmony to our listed company family, said NYSE chairman and CEO Dick Grasso. Our goal is to provide the highest quality market possible for investors and qualifying issuers, and it is especially gratifying when an outstanding enterprise such as Harmony recognizes the benefits of a NYSE listing. We look forward to our new partnership with Harmony, and to serving the company and its shareholders.

About Harmony Gold Mining Company Limited

Harmony has, during the past financial year, continued with its successful strategy of growth through acquisitions as well as organically. This strategy has, over the past seven years, created significant value for all stakeholders. Harmony has completed 23 acquisition to date, growing its production base from approximately 580 000 ounces in 1995 to an annualised 3.1 million ounces for the 2002/2003 financial year.

Year on year, the company's cash operating profits increased from R673 million to R2 591 million for the 2001/02 financial year. Earnings per share increased from 112 SA cents to 1 094 SA cents over the same period. A dividend of 500 SA cents per share was declared for the financial year ended June 2002.

Over the same period the company's reserve base has increased in both quantity and quality, from approximately 8 million ounces in 1995 to an estimated 49 million ounces by June 2002. Through the success of its strategy, Harmony has become the fifth largest gold producer in the world, with operations in mainly South Africa and Australia. The company has a highly prospective exploration programme focussed on South Africa, Australia, Peru and Russia.
