ITEM 12. RESULTS OF OPERATIONS AND FINANCIAL CONDITION.

On January 7, 2004, Monsanto Company issued a press release announcing financial and operating results for periods ended November 30, 2003. This press release, as well as the first quarter fiscal year 2004 unaudited supplemental data referenced in the press release, are furnished as Exhibits 99.1 and 99.2 hereto, respectively, and incorporated herein by reference.

In addition, we announced in a press release issued on December 16, 2003, that a webcast conference call would be held on January 7, 2004, to discuss our November 30, 2003 financial and operating results as well as to discuss future expectations. A slide presentation for use in conjunction with this conference call is furnished as Exhibit 99.3 hereto and incorporated herein by reference.

The data referenced in our press release and in the slide presentation for use in conjunction with our conference call will be posted to our website located at <http://www.monsanto.com> and can be viewed through the Investor Information page of the website under the tab Financial Information and Presentations, although we reserve the right to discontinue that availability at any time.

The press release and other materials furnished herewith use the non-GAAP financial measures of EBIT, free cash flow and earnings per share (EPS) excluding the effect of certain items. We define EBIT as earnings before cumulative effect of accounting change, interest and income taxes. EBIT is the primary operating performance measure for our two business segments. We believe that EBIT is useful to investors and management to demonstrate the operational profitability of our segments by excluding interest and taxes, which are generally accounted for across the entire company on a consolidated basis. EBIT is also one of the measures used by management in determining resource allocations within the company.

We define free cash flow as the total of cash flows from operating activities and cash flows from investing activities. We believe that free cash flow is useful to investors and management as an indication of the ability of our business to generate cash. This cash can be used to meet business needs and obligations, reinvested into the company for future growth, or returned to our shareowners through dividend payments or share repurchases. Free cash flow is also used by management as one of the performance measures in determining incentive compensation.

Our non-GAAP EPS financial measure may exclude the impact of restructuring charges, charges associated with the settlement of litigation, gains and losses on the sale of assets, and certain other items. The specific items that are excluded from, and result in, our non-GAAP EPS financial measure are clearly identified as such in the press release and other materials furnished herewith. We believe that our non-GAAP EPS financial measure presented with these adjustments best reflect our ongoing performance and business operations during the periods presented and are more useful to investors for comparative purposes. In addition, management uses the non-GAAP EPS financial measure as a guide in its budgeting and long-range planning processes.

The presentation of EBIT, free cash flow and EPS excluding the effect of certain items is intended to supplement investors' understanding of our operating performance. These non-GAAP financial measures may not be comparable to similar measures used by other companies. Furthermore, these non-GAAP financial measures are not intended to replace net income (loss), cash flows, financial position, or comprehensive income (loss), as determined in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.
