DDR Holdings, LLC has brought a claim against us and several other defendants regarding United States Patents No. 6,629,135 and 6,993,572, which are owned by DDR Holdings. These patents claim e-commerce outsourcing systems and methods relating to the provision of outsourced e-commerce support pages having a common look and feel with a host's website. The case was filed in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Texas on January 31, 2006. The complaint seeks injunctive relief, declaratory relief, damages and attorneys' fees. No substantive actions have taken place as yet in this case. We are currently evaluating our position with respect to this patent and have not yet answered the complaint. This matter is at a very early stage, and we are unable to predict its outcome. We intend to vigorously defend ourselves in this matter.

This 8-K contains forward looking statements, including statements about our inability to predict the outcome of this litigation and our intent to vigorously defend ourselves. Patent litigation is subject to risks and uncertainties, which may cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Such risks and uncertainties include the risks set forth in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005 that claims of infringement of other parties' intellectual property rights could require us to expend significant resources, enter into unfavorable licenses or require us to change business plans.
