Item 4.01 Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant.

On July 17, 2007 Ernst & Young LLP ( E&Y ), the independent registered public accounting firm to Intervoice, Inc. (the Company ), advised the Company that they were resigning effective as of such date. E&Y's resignation was voluntary and not recommended or approved by the Company's Board of Directors or Audit Committee.

E&Y's reports on the Company's financial statements for the years ended February 28, 2007 and 2006 did not contain an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, nor were such reports qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles. In addition, during the years ended February 28, 2007 and 2006 and the subsequent interim periods preceding E&Y's resignation, there were no disagreements between the Company and E&Y on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure or auditing scope or procedure which, if not resolved to the satisfaction of E&Y, would have caused E&Y to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreements in connection with its report. There were no reportable events as that term is described in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K.

The Company at the direction of its Audit Committee has commenced the process of interviewing other accounting firms to serve as the Company's independent accountants and the Audit Committee will endeavor to engage a firm in sufficient time to complete its required work in connection with the Company's Form 10-Q for the quarter ending August 31, 2007.
