PROXY STATEMENT

This proxy statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies on behalf of the Board of Directors of Tweeter Home Entertainment Group, Inc. (Nasdaq: TWTR) for the annual meeting of stockholders to be held on January 22, 2002. Only stockholders of record at the close of business on December 17, 2001 are entitled to notice of and to vote at the meeting.

Returning your completed proxy will not prevent you from voting in person at the meeting should you be present and wish to do so.

Unless contrary instructions are indicated on the proxy, all valid proxies received pursuant to this solicitation (and not revoked before they are voted) will be voted FOR the election of the nominees for Director named herein and FOR the approval of the designation of Deloitte & Touche LLP to audit Tweeter's books, records and accounts for fiscal year 2002. If a stockholder specifies a different choice on the proxy, such stockholder's shares of common stock will be voted in accordance with such specifications.

Any person giving a proxy in the form accompanying this Proxy Statement has the power to revoke it at any time before its exercise. A proxy may be revoked by filing with Tweeter's Secretary an instrument revoking it, by presenting an executed proxy bearing a later date at the Annual Meeting, or by attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person.

The cost of soliciting proxies will be borne by Tweeter. Solicitations may be made by mail, personal interview, telephone and/or telegram by Tweeter's Directors, officers and employees, without additional compensation for such solicitation activities. Tweeter will make arrangements with its transfer agent, EquiServe, to forward solicitation material to the beneficial owners of Tweeter's common stock held of record. Tweeter will reimburse banks, brokerage firms, other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for reasonable expenses incurred in sending proxy material to beneficial owners of common stock held in their respective names.

Tweeter has retained the services of a proxy solicitation firm, Georgeson Shareholder, for a fee of $4,500 plus reasonable out of pocket expenses.

Copies of Tweeter's 2001 Annual Report are being mailed to stockholders together with this Proxy Statement. The Annual Report contains Tweeter's financial statements for the fiscal years ended September 30, 2001, September 30, 2000 and September 30, 1999.

VOTING SECURITIES

Holders of record of Tweeter's common stock at the close of business on Monday, December 17, 2001 (the Record Date) have the right to receive notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting and any adjournments of the meeting. At the Record Date, there were 23,180,223 shares of common stock issued and outstanding. Each share of common stock entitles the holder of that share to one vote on each matter submitted to a vote at the Annual Meeting.

Under Tweeter's bylaws, the presence, in person or by proxy, of stockholders holding a majority in interest of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting is necessary to constitute a quorum. Abstentions and broker non-votes are each included for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a sufficient number of shares to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. With respect to the approval of any particular proposal, abstentions and broker non-votes are not counted in determining the number of votes cast. Other than the election of Directors, which requires a plurality of the votes cast in person or by proxy, each matter to be submitted to the stockholders requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast in person or by proxy at the meeting.

Table of ContentsProposal 1: Election of Directors*Nominees for Director, Directors Continuing in Office and Executive Officers

Tweeter's bylaws provide for a Board of Directors consisting of such number of Directors as may be fixed from time to time by the Board. The Board is divided into three classes, with each class holding office for a term of three years and the term of office of one class expiring each year. The Board has fixed the number of Directors to constitute the full Board for the ensuing year at seven, two of whom are to be elected at the Annual Meeting for a term expiring at the 2005 annual meeting of stockholders, two whose terms expire at the 2003 annual meeting of stockholders, and three whose terms expire at the 2004 annual meeting of stockholders. Matthew Bronfman, a Director since 1989, and Steven Fischman, a Director since 1998, are in the class of Directors whose term expires at the Annual Meeting. The Board has nominated Mr. Bronfman and Mr. Fischman for election to the class of Directors whose term will expire in 2005.

The persons named as proxies in the proxy card will vote the shares represented by your proxy for the election of Mr. Bronfman and Mr. Fischman as Directors unless your proxy card specifies otherwise. If either of the nominees for election to the Board should, for any reason not now anticipated, not be available to serve as a Director, the persons named as proxies will vote the shares for such other candidate as may be designated by the Board, unless the Board reduces the number of Directors constituting the full Board in order to eliminate the vacancy. The Board has no reason to believe that Mr. Bronfman and Mr. Fischman will be unable to serve if elected.

Bloomberg and Stone Agreements

Upon completion of Tweeter's initial public offering in July 1998, Tweeter entered into five-year employment agreements with Samuel Bloomberg, and Jeffrey Stone (the "Employment Agreements"). The Employment Agreements provide that Messrs. Bloomberg and Stone each receive a base salary of $300,000 per year through September 30, 1998, $325,000 from October 1, 1998 to September 30, 1999, and thereafter at the annual rate of at least $325,000, plus such increases as may be determined by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors. the Compensation Committee, and the opportunity to receive stock options and other incentive awards under Tweeter's 1998 Stock Option and Incentive Plan.

Table of Contents

The Employment Agreements provide for continued employment until termination by either party. Tweeter, however, may terminate either Employment Agreement with or without cause at any time. If either executive's employment is terminated by Tweeter without cause, Tweeter is obligated to pay the respective executive an amount equal to such executive's unvested accrued benefits under any stock option plan, incentive plan or retirement plan plus severance pay calculated as follows: (i) if the executive is terminated during the first three years of the agreement, he will receive an amount equal to his annual base salary in effect in the year of termination for three years following termination, (ii) if the executive is terminated in the fourth year, he will receive an amount equal to two times his annual base salary in effect in the year of termination for two years following termination, and (iii) if the executive is terminated in the fifth or any subsequent year of the agreement, he will receive an amount equal to his annual base salary in the year of termination. The Employment Agreements also provide that if Tweeter and Messrs. Bloomberg and Stone do not renew the Employment Agreements upon expiration, Tweeter may elect to pay such executives two years severance in exchange for a two-year non-competition arrangement.

McGuire Employment Agreement

Upon completion of Tweeter's initial public offering in July 1998, Tweeter entered into an employment agreement with Joseph McGuire. The Company renewed this agreement on July 21, 2001. Under the terms of this three-year agreement, Mr. McGuire earns a base annual salary of $260,000 and has the opportunity to earn yearly incentive bonuses based on performance criteria (determined by the Compensation Committee). Mr. McGuire is also entitled to receive stock options and other incentive awards under Tweeter's stock option and incentive plans. Tweeter may elect, upon the expiration and non-renewal of the agreement, to pay Mr. McGuire two years of severance pay in exchange for a two-year non-competition agreement from Mr. McGuire. If Tweeter terminates Mr. McGuire's employment without cause, Tweeter is obligated to pay Mr. McGuire an amount equal to his base salary in the year of termination, and must permit his options and incentives to continue to vest for one year following termination.

Beshouri Employment Agreement

Upon the acquisition of Sound Advice, Tweeter entered into an employment agreement with Peter Beshouri. Under the terms of this two-year agreement, Mr. Beshouri earns a base annual salary of $400,000. For entering into the agreement, Mr. Beshouri also received a signing bonus of $100,000, stock options for 30,000 shares of Tweeter common stock and, as additional consideration for entering into Tweeter's Noncompetition, Nondisclosure and Nonsolicitation agreement, he received an additional $1,900,000. Mr. Beshouri is also entitled to receive stock options and is eligible to receive annual bonuses, in the sole and absolute discretion of Tweeter. The employment agreement provides that if Mr. Beshouri's employment is terminated by Tweeter without cause or Mr. Beshouri terminates his employment for good reason, Tweeter is obligated to pay Mr. Beshouri an amount equal to his salary to the second anniversary of his employment agreement.

Compensation Committee Report Regarding Executive Compensation

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors makes decisions regarding cash compensation paid and stock options granted to Tweeter's executive officers. The Compensation Committee has submitted the following report concerning executive compensation:

Compensation Philosophy

The Compensation Committee (the Committee), which is composed entirely of outside independent Directors, reviews, evaluates and approves the amount, design and implementation of Tweeter's compensation system for executive officers. Tweeter believes that corporate performance and, in turn, stockholder value will be best enhanced by a compensation system that supports and reinforces Tweeter's key operating and strategic goals while aligning the financial interests of Tweeter's executive officers with those of the stockholders. Tweeter utilizes both short-term and long-term incentive compensation programs to achieve these objectives. Executive officer incentive compensation programs are tied to company-wide achievement of annual financial and operational goals and the market value of Tweeter's stock. The Committee believes that the use of company-wide performance in setting goals promotes a unified vision for senior management and creates common motivation among the executives. For other salaried employees, the incentive compensation program is also tied to divisional, departmental or store business goals and, in some cases, individual performance.

For Tweeter's 2001 fiscal year, the Committee made its compensation decisions based on a review of Tweeter's 2000 fiscal year performance, on Tweeter's budget and other projections for the 2001 fiscal year, and on Tweeter's performance in comparison to certain of its competitors.

Components of the Executive Compensation Program

Tweeter's compensation program for executive officers consists generally of three components: base salary, an annual performance-based cash bonus and long-term stock incentives. In making compensation decisions, the Committee generally compares the compensation of Tweeter's executive officers with compensation of officers at certain other retail companies and has utilized a nationally known compensation consultant, as it deemed necessary.

The Committee generally compares various short- and long-term performance measures, including total stockholder return, return on average stockholders' equity, sales, and net income and earnings per share for Tweeter and other companies with which it competes with for executive talent. The Committee has not established any particular level at which overall compensation will be set in respect to the compensation peer group. The Committee believes that the total compensation of the named executive officers is supported by Tweeter's competitive comparisons on the short- and long-term performance factors and is appropriate given Tweeter's overall performance. The individual elements of the executive compensation program are addressed below.

Annual Salary

Each year, the Committee establishes salaries for executive officers. Such salaries are based on proposals submitted by Tweeter's Chief Executive Officer (CEO) for annual salary for the executive officers other than himself. Based on an analysis by the compensation consultant, the Committee set the executive officer salaries for the 2001 fiscal year. The Committee believes that the current level of annual salaries for executive officers is appropriate and that it also provides for a large percentage of total compensation to be at risk under the incentive programs. In evaluating individual executive officers, the Committee may also consider, among other factors, (1) a qualitative evaluation of the individual executive officer's performance provided by the CEO, (2) the job responsibilities of the individual executive, including changes in those responsibilities, and (3) Tweeter's performance in relation to its target financial goals for the prior fiscal year.

Annual Performance-Based Bonus

Tweeter's executive officers are eligible to receive cash bonuses under an annual performance-based incentive program (Incentive Program) established each year by the Committee and approved by the Board of Directors. The Incentive Program is designed to motivate Tweeter's employees to achieve Tweeter's annual operating and financial goals. The executive officers participate in the Incentive Program. The Incentive Program allows the Committee to establish performance goals based on pre-tax earnings. The goals are established with the purpose of continuing Tweeter's record of superior performance in comparison with its competitors.

For the 2001 fiscal year, the Incentive Program measured Tweeter's achievement of its target financial goals. The target goal was established early in the fiscal year as part of Tweeter's budgeting process and was approved by the Committee. Consistent with the Committee's compensation philosophy of tying a large percentage of total compensation to performance, the potential maximum bonus for each executive officer was a significant percentage of that individual's salary for the year. For the 2001 fiscal year, the target bonus amounts ranged from 5 percent of base salary to 35 percent of base salary. The target bonus percentages were based upon the results of the current year's compensation study and the recommendation of the compensation consultant.

Table of Contents

The amount of bonus payments depends upon the extent to which Tweeter achieves its target financial goals for the year. For the 2001 fiscal year, if Tweeter did not achieve 100 percent of the goal, no bonuses would be paid. For performance above the target, an additional bonus would be paid with a maximum bonus of 100 percent of the target bonus.

Tweeter's performance for the 2001 fiscal year was above the requirement for payment of a bonus. As a result, bonuses were paid at the 5 percent level for the 2001 fiscal year.

Long-Term Incentive Compensation

Grants under Tweeter's stock incentive plans provide long-term incentive compensation and are a significant component of total compensation. These programs are a part of Tweeter's performance-based incentive compensation rewarding officers as total stockholder value increases. For executive officers, grants under the stock incentive plans are made in the form of incentive stock options. For non-employee Directors, grants under the plan are in the form of nonqualified stock options.

The Committee considers stock-based grants to be an important means of ensuring that executive officers have a continuing incentive to increase the long-term return to stockholders and the value of Tweeter's stock. Stock-based grants also aid in retention of executives.

Stock options generally vest and become exercisable ratably over a period of three years from the date of grant. The number of stock options to be granted to a particular executive officer is determined by the Committee. The Committee primarily uses a formula based on an individual's target bonus for the fiscal year and the market price of Tweeter's stock, as well as the results of compensation surveys to determine the appropriate grant size. Because the value of stock options is entirely a function of increases in the value of Tweeter's stock, the Committee believes that this component of Tweeter's compensation arrangement closely aligns the interests of the executive officers with those of Tweeter's stockholders.

Chairman's and Chief Executive Officer's Compensation

The Committee determined the compensation of Samuel Bloomberg and Jeffrey Stone, Tweeter's Chairman and CEO, respectively, for the 2001 fiscal year in a manner consistent with the philosophy described above. The Committee approved an increase in salary based upon a review of comparable officers in the compensation peer group on a size-adjusted basis.

In establishing the Chairman and CEO compensation, the Committee has compared their compensation with the compensation of the Chairmen and CEOs of the compensation peer group in relation to the relative performance of Tweeter with respect to the compensation peer group.

For setting the fiscal 2001 compensation, the Committee also considered Tweeter's performance during the fiscal year. Tweeter's performance for the 2000 fiscal year was above the requirement for payment of a bonus. As a result, bonuses were paid at the 5% level for the 2001 fiscal year. The Committee recognized Mr. Bloomberg's and Mr. Stone's leadership skills in assembling and developing a strong management team and guiding Tweeter through its significant growth during the last ten years, resulting in Tweeter's continued financial success.

The Committee believes that Mr. Bloomberg's and Mr. Stone's compensation for the 2001 fiscal year was appropriate in light of all of the above considerations.

Since a nationally recognized index that would represent a peer group was not available, Tweeter has used the Russell 2000 to measure its performance. Tweeter believes that this index is representative of a peer group because it is composed of companies with similar market capitalization.

Proposal 2: Ratification of Selection of Auditors

The Board of Directors has selected the firm of Deloitte & Touche LLP, independent certified public accountants, to serve as auditors for the fiscal year ending September 30, 2002. Deloitte & Touche LLP served as Tweeter's auditors for fiscal year 2001.

Audit Fees

The aggregate fees billed by Deloitte & Touche LLP, the member firms of Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu, and their respective affiliates (collectively, Deloitte) for professional services rendered for the audit of the Company's annual financial statements for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2001 and for the reviews of the financial statements included in the Company's Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for that fiscal year were $344,871.

Financial Information Systems Design and Implementation Fees

The aggregate fees billed by Deloitte for professional services rendered for information technology services relating to financial information systems design and implementation for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2001 were $0.

All Other Fees

The aggregate fees billed by Deloitte for services rendered to the Company, other than the services described above under Audit Fees and Financial Information Systems Design and Implementation Fees, for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2001 were $823,407.

The audit committee has considered whether the provision of non-audit services is compatible with maintaining the independence of Deloitte.

A majority of the votes cast by the stockholders represented at the meeting, in person or by proxy, is required to approve this proposal. Representatives of Deloitte & Touche LLP will be present at the meeting to respond to appropriate questions, and they will have an opportunity, if they desire, to make a statement.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR THE RATIFICATION OF THE SELECTION OF DELOITTE & TOUCHE LLP AS AUDITORS.

Audit committee report

The audit committee of the board of directors, composed entirely of independent directors (as independence is defined in Rule 4200(a)(15) of the Nasdaq Stock Market Marketplace Rules), met five times during the fiscal year 2001. The committee assists the board in fulfilling its responsibility for oversight of the quality and integrity of the accounting, auditing and reporting practices of Tweeter and performs such other duties as directed by the board. The full responsibilities of the committee are set forth in its charter, which is reviewed and updated annually and approved by the board.

In fulfilling its responsibilities, the committee recommended to the board, subject to shareholder approval, the selection of Deloitte & Touche LLP as the company's outside auditors. In making this decision, the committee:

Discussed with the auditors the matters to be discussed by SAS 61 (Codification of Statements on Auditing Standards, AU Section 380), as may be modified or supplemented;

Received the written disclosures and the letter from the auditors required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committee), as may be modified or supplemented, and discussed with the auditors the auditors' independence;

Discussed the overall audit process, receiving and reviewing all reports;

Involved the auditors in the committee's review of Tweeter's financial statements and related reports with management;

Provided to the auditors full access to the committee (and the board) to report on any and all appropriate matters; and

Discussed with the independent auditors all matters required to be reviewed by generally accepted auditing standards.

The committee met with selected members of management and the auditors to review financial statements (including quarterly reports), discussing such matters as the quality of earnings; estimates, reserves and accruals; suitability of accounting principles; highly judgmental areas; and audit adjustments whether or not recorded.

In addition, the committee considered the quality and adequacy of the company's internal controls and the status of pending litigation, taxation matters and other areas of oversight to the financial reporting and audit process that the committee felt appropriate.

Based on the review and discussions referred to above, the committee recommended to the board that the audited financial statements be included in Tweeter's annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2001. Subsequent to such recommendation, the board approved such annual report on Form 10-K for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The report and opinion of Deloitte & Touche LLP are filed separately in Tweeter's annual report on Form 10-K and should be read in conjunction with the information contained in this section of the proxy statement and the review of the audited financial statements.

Table of Contents

Based upon its work and the information received in the inquiries outlined above, the committee is satisfied that its responsibilities under its charter for the period ending September 30, 2001 were met and that the financial reporting and audit processes of the company are functioning effectively.
