The improvement in our customer metrics is a testament to the dedication of our employees as we execute on our marketing, distribution expansion and service enhancement strategies, said Doug Hutcheson, president and CEO of Leap. We are very pleased to see the results of these efforts begin to take root as evidenced by the solid customer growth we saw in both our older markets and in our new market cluster in the Central Valley of California. In addition, it is particularly encouraging to witness the resilience of our business in the face of the significant macroeconomic disruptions that occurred in the third quarter. We are looking forward to announcing our full results and providing additional updates on our progress in conjunction with our earnings announcement and conference call. Doug Hutcheson, Leap's president and chief executive officer, will discuss these customer metrics and provide a general overview of the business during his presentation at the JPMorgan conference, which is scheduled to begin at 8:00 a.m. EST, Wednesday, November 2, 2005. Investors and other interested parties can listen to a live audio webcast of the presentation and following question and answer period by accessing the Investor Relations section of Leap's website, www.leapwireless.com.
