Note: The term "GAAP" in the following explanations refers to generally accepted accounting principles in the United States.

(1) Net income and earnings per share (EPS) excluding investment gains/losses are Non-GAAP financial measures as defined by SEC Regulation G. We define net income excluding investment gains/losses as net income adjusted to remove the after-tax effect of non-brokerage investment-related gains/losses. We consider net income and EPS excluding investment gains/losses important measures of our financial performance. Gains/losses on non-brokerage investments and investment-related derivatives are excluded because we believe they are not likely to be indicative of the ongoing operations of our business. Net income and EPS excluding investment gains/losses should be considered in addition to, rather than as a substitute for, GAAP net income and EPS.

(2) EBITDA (earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization) is considered a Non-GAAP financial measure as defined by SEC Regulation G. We consider EBITDA an important measure of our financial performance and of our ability to generate cash flows to service debt, fund capital expenditures and fund other corporate investing and financing activities. EBITDA is used as the denominator in the consolidated leverage ratio calculation for our senior credit facilities. The consolidated leverage ratio determines the interest rate margin charged on the senior credit facilities. EBITDA eliminates the non-cash effect of tangible asset depreciation and amortization and intangible asset amortization. EBITDA should be considered in addition to, rather than as a substitute for, pre-tax income, net income and cash flows from operating activities.

Who is TD AMERITRADE?

We believe in the power of Independence – the confidence to make your own informed financial decisions. After all, nobody cares more about your money and financial future than YOU. We realize that nobody has all the answers. Even if this is your first time trading a stock, planning for retirement or looking for a better way to manage your cash, you don't have to do it all on your own. We exist to give investors the information, guidance and support they need to make those decisions – on their terms.

How do we do that?

There is no one-size-fits-all approach to managing money. Every investor is different. What they need is a way to filter through the masses of information available in a way that helps them understand what they need to do and how they need to do it in order to meet their goals. We help investors of all types, sizes and experience do this every day.

Completely Independent? For investors who are completely comfortable doing it on their own, we offer 24-7 phone and Web support to answer questions and provide assistance – if it's needed. Our innovative and objective tools and services help investors develop ideas, spot trends, make plans and research the investment products and strategies of their choice.

Need a little hand-holding? For investors who want someone to walk them through the process once before they tackle it on their own, we also offer over 100 branches, nationwide. Whether they need to sit down with an Investment Consultant for a portfolio review, discuss their retirement options or simply open an account, we can help.

Want to hand it off? For investors who would rather give the reins to someone else, we can refer them to an independent registered investment advisor (RIA) through our AdvisorDirect® program.* We partner with a network of advisors who are dedicated to helping their clients uncover and understand their investment needs and give their portfolios the attention they deserve.

In addition, we provide custodial services to nearly 5,000 RIA clients. These independent financial professionals come to us every day for the technology and dedicated service they need to manage their businesses efficiently, giving them more time to spend helping their own clients with their financial needs.

The Investment Firm of Choice

We've been in the business of serving independent-minded individual investors for more than 30 years. We've pioneered sweeping changes like touch-tone phone trading and online investing that have helped make Wall Street more accessible to the typical American family than ever before. Through service and a full offering of investing solutions that continues to evolve with investors' changing needs and objectives, we can show you why it's not that difficult to choose Independence. It's never too late, and you never have too little to get started. All you need is the confidence to make a move, and more and more American families are choosing us to help them do just that every day.
