Capsule Financial Information for the Three Months and Year Ended December 31, 2001

Daleen Technologies Inc. (the Company), a global provider of high performance billing and customer care software solutions that manage the revenue chain, reported revenues of $1.6 million for its fourth quarter of 2001. Revenue for the year ended December 31, 2001 was $12.4 million. Net loss for the quarter was $16.3 million, or $0.75 per share, compared with a $17.2 million net loss, or $0.79 per share, for the same period in 2000. Net loss for the year ended December 31, 2001 was $91.0 million, or $5.47 per share, compared to a net loss for the prior year of $43.8 million, or $2.02 per share. The net loss for the fourth quarter of 2001 included goodwill amortization and impairment charges of $7.6 million and a restructuring charge of $4.0 million. The net loss for 2001 included goodwill amortization and impairment charges of $46.6 million and restructuring charges of $11.7 million.

The Company noted the following:

The Company experienced continued improvement in quarterly operating expense levels, resulting in a decrease in net loss per share from $1.68 per share in the third quarter of 2001 to $0.75 in the fourth quarter of 2001, including restructuring, amortization and goodwill charges of $23.4 million in the third quarter and $11.6 million in the fourth quarter.

The Company delivered the RevChain solution to AAPT, the third largest carrier in Australia, through an OEM agreement with Telcordia Technologies Inc.

The Company formed a subsidiary in Australia, dedicated to business development and the support of existing customers in the Asia-Pacific region.

The Company finalized the lease buyouts on office facilities in Atlanta and Boca Raton, releasing the Company from all financial obligations for these facilities, which is expected to reduce facility and operating costs by approximately $800,000 per quarter.

The Company released RevChain 5.5 and RevChain 5.6, which offer advanced support for partner settlements, dispute processing and enterprise integration using XML.

Following is certain capsule unaudited financial information with respect to the periods presented.

INFORMATION WITH RESPECT TO FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Certain matters discussed in this report may be considered forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Securities Act of 1934 and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Those statements include statements regarding the intent, belief or current expectations of the Company and members of its management as well as the assumptions on which such statements are based. Prospective investors and stockholders are cautioned that any such forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and involve risks and uncertainties, and that actual results may differ materially from those contemplated by such forward-looking statements. Important factors currently known to management that could cause actual results to differ materially from those in forward-looking statements include variance of quarterly operating results; not yet achieving profitability; liquidity and capital resources; competition; need to expand sales and distribution capabilities; lengthy sales cycles and timing of contract awards; general economic conditions, including the economic conditions affecting the Company's existing and prospective customers; ability to attract and retain qualified employees; our continued use of strategic relationships to implement and sell our products; managing growth; planned international operations; meeting customer expectations; general market conditions, and quality of software delivered. These and additional important factors to be considered are set forth in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2000, as amended, and in the Company's Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the quarters ended March 31, 2001, as amended, June 30, 2001, as amended, and September 30, 2001. The Company undertakes no obligation to update or revise forward-looking statements to reflect changed assumptions, the occurrence of unanticipated events or changes to future operating results.
