Table of Contents*Item 3.01. Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

As previously disclosed, Richard B. Emmitt resigned as a director and a member of the audit committee of our board of directors on March 9, 2006. Mr. Emmitt's departure reduced the number of members of the audit committee to two and thus caused us to become non-compliant with Rule 4350(d)(2)(A) of the Nasdaq Stock Market, which requires that every Nasdaq-listed company have an audit committee of at least three members. Nasdaq anticipates that such non-compliance may occur from time to time, and its Rule 4350(d)(4)(B) allows a company to cure a deficiency in the number of audit committee members by the earlier of the next annual shareholders meeting or one year from the departure of the audit committee member.

On March 15, 2006, Nasdaq notified us of our non-compliance with this requirement, and we in turn notified Nasdaq that we intended to fill the vacancy on the audit committee by electing a third member on March 20, 2006, which is well within the cure period allowed by Nasdaq. On March 20, 2006, our board of directors elected David D. Stevens, one of our existing directors, to serve as a member of the audit committee effective immediately. Mr. Stevens is independent as defined in Nasdaq's listing standards and meets the independence criteria set forth in the Securities and Exchange Commission's rules. The election of Mr. Stevens brings the number of members of the audit committee to three and thus cures our temporary non-compliance with the numeric requirement of Nasdaq Rule 4350(d)(2)(A). On the same day, we notified Nasdaq of Mr. Stevens's election to the audit committee. On March 21, 2006, Nasdaq in turn notified us that we again were in compliance with Rule 4350(d)(2)(A).

Copies of our written correspondence with Nasdaq regarding this matter are attached hereto as Exhibits 99.1, 99.2 and 99.3 and are incorporated herein by reference.
