Item 9. Regulation FD Disclosure.

See the attached press release reporting first quarter 2003 earnings of Carlisle Companies Incorporated (the "Company") hereby furnished under Item 12 (Results and Operations and Financial Condition).

The press release reports the Company's free cash flow for both the first quarter 2003 and 2002. Management believes that this non-GAAP financial measure is useful to investors because free cash flow is used by the investing and lending community as a key measure of a company's ability to meet its debt payment obligations and to finance future growth of its business through acquisitions and capital investment.
