CommScope and Andrew Transition News

November 14, 2007

Welcome to this seventh and special edition of CommScope and Andrew Transition News, our vehicle for communicating with everyone about the progress of bringing together our two strong companies.

Senior Leadership and Organization Named

The senior leadership that will guide CommScope after completion of the Andrew acquisition has been named by CommScope Chairman and Chief Executive Officer Frank Drendel. The organizational structure and roles will take effect immediately after the transaction closes, which is expected by the end of December 2007.

President and Chief Operating Officer Brian Garrett and Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer Jearld Leonhardt will continue to report to Drendel, as will Executive Vice President Eddie Edwards in his business development role.

Garrett will continue to have responsibility for the company's product, sales and operations functions, as follows:

Andrew Wireless Solutions, comprised of Antenna, Cable and Cabinet Group (ACCG), led by Ted Hally, executive vice president and general manager, and Wireless Network Solutions (WNS), led by Eddie Edwards, executive vice president and general manager.

Edgar Filing: ANDREW CORP - Form 425

Enterprise Solutions, led by Randy Crenshaw, executive vice president and general manager.

Broadband Sales and Marketing, led by Jim Hughes, executive vice president.

Global Supply Chain, led by Carson Cato, senior vice president.

Total Quality Management, led by Rick Huey, vice president.

Merger Integration, led by Bob Hudzik, currently Andrew's senior vice president and chief human resources officer.

Additional details of the overall organization will be shared in early December. There are no changes to the Enterprise Solutions and Broadband Sales and Marketing organizations. Chris Story will continue his role as executive vice president, Broadband Operations, and will add the responsibility of Manufacturing Operations for the Andrew Wireless Solutions business. Story will report to Ted Hally.

Leonhardt will continue to have responsibility for the company's corporate finance and administrative functions, as follows:

Finance, led by Bill Gooden, senior vice president and controller.

Information Technology, led by Kap Kim, senior vice president and chief information officer.

Internal Audit, led by Chet Spruill, director.

Human Resources and Environment, Health and Safety, led by Jim Wright, senior vice president.

Legal, led by Burk Wyatt, senior vice president, general counsel, secretary and Corporate Ethics and Compliance officer

Investor Relations and Corporate Communications, led by Phil Armstrong, vice president.

Edwards will continue to have responsibility for the company's Business Development function. Michael Cho will report to Edwards in a corporate development role.

Andrew's current executive leaders Ralph Faison, Marty Kittrell, John DeSana, Mickey Miller, Roger Manka, Justin Choi, and John Dickson will serve the company until the transaction closes. Bob Hudzik, currently Andrew's chief human resources officer, will serve CommScope as merger integration leader, reporting to Brian Garrett.

We thank the current Andrew leadership for their support during this transition period and for their service to Andrew and its employees through the years, said Drendel. As we move to the future, the structure of the Andrew business will be more like CommScope's other business units, reflecting our philosophy of placing greater responsibility and ownership within the business units and the regions. This provides greater opportunity for team collaboration, planning and execution, which is designed to lead to improved long-term performance. The individuals placed in these leadership roles are strong, highly-qualified people who we believe will help drive CommScope to future success.

ORGANIZATIONS REPORTING TO THE PRESIDENT AND CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER:

ANDREW WIRELESS SOLUTIONS

The existing Andrew business will become the wireless unit of CommScope. This unit will be called Andrew Wireless Solutions.
