Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On July 7, 2017, GenOn Mid-Atlantic, LLC (GenMa), an indirect and wholly owned subsidiary of GenOn Energy, Inc. (GenOn) and GenOn Americas Generation LLC, entered into a Forbearance Agreement (the Forbearance Agreement) regarding seven separate Indentures of Trust, Mortgage and Security Agreements (the Indentures) related to its seven facility lease agreements regarding the Morgantown facilities (collectively, the Facility Leases and together with the Indentures, Pass Through Trust Agreements, and other operative documents, the Facility Lease Agreements), with U.S. Bank National Association (U.S. Bank), as lease indenture trustee and pass through trustee, and certain Holders of the Pass Through Trust Certificates (as defined in the Forbearance Agreement) (the Consenting Certificateholders).

As previously disclosed, on February 24, 2017, GenMa received notices of the existence of certain events of default including the failure to comply with a covenant requiring the maintenance of qualifying credit support under the Facility Lease Agreements from certain of the owner lessors under the Facility Lease Agreements. On March 7, 2017, GenMa filed a complaint in the Supreme Court for the State of New York against U.S. Bank and certain owner lessors under the Facility Lease Agreements seeking, among other things, a declaratory judgment that no lease events of default existed. For additional information concerning the litigation, see Item 2 Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations of GenMa's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q filed on May 2, 2017.

Pursuant to the Forbearance Agreement, U.S. Bank and the Consenting Certificateholders agreed to forbear in the exercise of their rights and remedies and to forbear from taking any action with respect to the effects of any alleged default, alleged event of default, or any other alleged breach under the Facility Lease Agreements in relation to the ongoing disputes related to the Facility Lease Agreements. In consideration for such forbearance, GenMa agreed, among other things, to ratify and affirm its obligations and responsibilities under the Facility Lease Agreements.

The Forbearance Agreement became effective on July 10, 2017 and will remain effective until the earlier of (i) 12:01 a.m. on August 15, 2017 and (ii) an event of termination under the Forbearance Agreement.

The foregoing description of the Forbearance Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the Forbearance Agreement, which is included hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and is incorporated by reference herein.

Item 9.01. Financial Statements and Exhibits.
