Information about Rio Tinto is based on public information which has not been independently verified.

Certain statements in this presentation are forward-looking statements. The forward-looking statements include statements regarding the cost and timing of development projects, future production volumes, increases in production and infrastructure capacity, the identification of additional mineral Reserves and

Resources and project lives and, without limitation, other statements typically containing words such as "intends", "expects", "anticipates", "plans", "believes", "estimates" or words of similar import. These forward-looking statements speak only as at the date of this presentation. These statements are, by their nature, subject to a number of known and unknown risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results, performance or achievements to differ materially from any expected future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. The forward-looking statements are based on assumptions regarding BHP Billiton's present and future business strategies and the environments in which BHP Billiton and Rio Tinto will operate in the future and such assumptions may or may not prove to be correct.

There are a number of factors that could cause actual results or performance to differ materially from those expressed or implied in the forward-looking statements. Factors that could cause actual results or performance to differ materially from those described in the forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, the following:

Information Relating to the US Offer for Rio Tinto plc

BHP Billiton plans to register the offer and sale of securities it would issue to Rio Tinto plc US shareholders and Rio Tinto plc US holders in a Registration Statement (the "Registration Statement"), which will contain a prospectus (the "Prospectus"), as well as other relevant information required to be filed. This communication is not a substitute for any Registration Statement or Prospectus that BHP Billiton may file with the SEC in the U.S.

Investors and security holders will be able to obtain a free copy of the Registration Statement and the Prospectus as well as other information from the SEC's website (<http://www.sec.gov>), once such documents are filed with the SEC. Copies of such documents may also be obtained from the issuer once they are filed with the SEC.

Information for US Holders of Rio Tinto Ltd Shares

BHP Billiton Ltd is not required to, and does not plan to, prepare and file with the SEC a registration statement in respect of this offer. Shareholders should carefully consider the following:

The Rio Tinto Ltd Offer will be an exchange offer made for the securities of a foreign company. Such offer is subject to disclosure requirements that are different from those of the United States. Financial statements included in the document will be prepared in accordance with financial reporting standards comparable to the financial statements of United States companies.

Information Relating to the US Offer for Rio Tinto plc and the Rio Tinto Ltd Offer for Rio Tinto shareholders located in the United States

It may be difficult for you to enforce your rights and any claim you may have arising under the U.S. federal securities laws, since the issuers are located in a foreign country, and some or all

their officers and directors
may be residents
foreign countries.

You
may not be able to sue a
company
or its officers
or
directors
in a
foreign
court for violations of the U.S. securities laws. It may be difficult to compel a foreign company and its affiliates to subject themselves

You should be aware that BHP Billiton may purchase securities of either Rio Tinto plc or Rio Tinto Ltd otherwise than under the exchange offer, such as in open market or privately negotiated purchases.

BHP Billiton Offer for Rio Tinto

Slide 4
6 February 2008
Background to the offer

Early 2007: BHP Billiton discussed a merger of equals. This concept was rejected by Rio Tinto

Edgar Filing: RIO TINTO PLC - Form 425

1 November 2007: BHP Billiton made a confidential proposal to combine the companies. Rio Tinto rejected the proposal and refused to enter discussions

8 November 2007: BHP Billiton confirmed it had approached Rio Tinto with a proposal 12 November 2007: BHP Billiton announced the proposal following market speculation.

Since then:

Global roadshow has indicated a clear understanding of the industrial logic of the combination

Rio Tinto has refused to engage to discuss the proposal

21 December 2007: BHP Billiton required to put up or shut up by 6 February 2008

1 February 2008: Chinalco acquires a c.12% stake in Rio Tinto plc

6 February 2008: BHP Billiton is announcing offers for all of the outstanding shares of Rio Tinto

Rio Tinto plc shareholders will receive 3.4 BHP Billiton shares for every Rio Tinto plc share held

80% in BHP Billiton Plc shares

20% in BHP Billiton Ltd shares

Separate US offer (which forms part of the Rio Tinto plc Offer) to:

US resident shareholders of Rio Tinto plc shares

All holders of Rio Tinto plc ADRs

UK CGT rollover relief expected to be available for UK resident shareholders accepting the Rio Tinto plc Offer if there are approximately 70% acceptances under the Rio Tinto plc Offer

Rio Tinto Ltd Offer:

Rio Tinto Ltd shareholders will receive 3.4 BHP Billiton Ltd shares for every Rio Tinto Ltd share held

If compulsory acquisition is reached in the Rio Tinto Ltd Offer, then Australian CGT rollover relief is expected to be available for Australian resident shareholders accepting the Rio Tinto Ltd Offer

Unlocking value
Why a combination with Rio Tinto?

Combined entity will have a unique portfolio of tier 1 assets

Enhanced ability to optimise and high-grade portfolio

Greater diversity and reduced value at risk

Combination makes sense in both a rising and a falling market

Uniquely positioned
to meet the growing demands
of
global

6 February 2008
Summary

BHP Billiton approached Rio Tinto on 1 November 2007 and considers that pre-approach the companies
market capitalisations demonstrated fair relative value

This
fair
value
is represented by
SER
of 2.4:1,
with Rio Tinto
shareholders entitled
to 36% of the combination

Since the date of the proposal and the subsequent announcement of the proposal terms

Global roadshows have confirmed shareholders have a clear understanding of the compelling industrial logic of the deal

Nothing has changed BHP Billiton's view on relative fair trading value

BHP
Billiton
is now directly offering Rio
Tinto
a
material 45%
(b) premium for control,
continued participation
in
the combined

company,
and
an opportunity
to capture
pro rata share of the unique value unlocked by the combination

This offer is compelling for Rio Tinto shareholders
