A complaint in the Eighth Judicial District Court in Clark County, Nevada, dated November 23, 2011, captioned Robert Ackerman, et al. v. Force Protection, Inc., et al.

The plaintiffs in these complaints generally allege, among other things, that members of the Company Board breached their fiduciary duties to the Company's stockholders in connection with the sale of the Company and that the Company, Parent and Purchaser aided and abetted the purported breaches of fiduciary duties. In support of their claims, the plaintiffs allege that the proposed transaction between the Company and Purchaser undervalues the Company, involves an inadequate sales process and preclusive deal protection devices, and involves conflicts of interests. The plaintiffs in several of the complaints also allege that the parties failed to disclose all material information about the transaction and/or that the disclosure documents contain misleading information. The plaintiffs seek to obtain damages and/or to enjoin the transaction. They also seek attorneys' and other fees and costs, in addition to seeking other relief. Parent and Purchaser believe that the plaintiffs' allegations lack merit and intend to contest them vigorously.

The plaintiff in the complaint captioned Nicola Saulle v. Frank Kavanaugh, et al. also makes additional claims on behalf of the Company against various present and former directors and officers of the Company that are unrelated to the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

D. Adding the following paragraph at the end of Section 16 Certain Legal Matters; Regulatory Approvals Antitrust U.S. Antitrust Laws :

On November 28, 2011, Parent and the Company filed a Notification and Report Form with respect to the Offer and the Merger with the Antitrust Division and the FTC. On December 1, 2011, Parent voluntarily withdrew and re-filed its Notification and Report Form in order to facilitate the completion of the Antitrust Division's review of the Offer and the Merger prior to the initially scheduled Expiration Date. Accordingly, the waiting period under the HSR Act with respect to the Offer will expire at 11:59 p.m., New York City time, on December 16, 2011, unless early termination of the waiting period is granted or a party receives a request for additional information or documentary material.
