Statement of Designation) with the Registrar of Corporations of the Republic of the Marshall Islands. The following is a summary of certain of the material terms of the Securities Purchase Agreement, the Statement of Designation and the Registration Rights Agreement. The following descriptions do not purport to be complete and are qualified in their entirety by reference to the full text of the Securities Purchase Agreement, the Statement of Designation and the Registration Rights Agreement, which have been filed as Exhibits 1, 2 and 3 hereto, respectively, and are incorporated herein by reference.

Securities Purchase Agreement

The Securities Purchase Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and covenants between the Issuer and the Reporting Person.

The Reporting Person has the right, pursuant to the Securities Purchase Agreement, to participate in any underwritten public offering by the Issuer by including certain Common Shares beneficially owned by the Reporting Person in such offering.

The Reporting Person has agreed in the Securities Purchase Agreement not to (a) acquire voting securities of the Issuer in excess of 5% of the outstanding stock of the Issuer over the amount owned by the Reporting Person as of the date of the Securities Purchase Agreement (except for securities issuable upon conversion of the Series B Preferred Shares, or securities issued pursuant to the Statement of Designation (including as dividend payments on the Series B Preferred Shares)), (b) solicit proxies to vote, or seek to influence the management, board of directors or policies of the Issuer, (c) form, join or in any way participate in a group as defined in Section 13(d)(3) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, in order to accomplish any of the foregoing, (d) nominate any candidates to serve on the Issuer's board of directors (other than nominations permitted under the Statement of Designation as described below or nominations supported by the Issuer's board of directors) or (e) engage directly or indirectly in any short sales of the Common Shares for as long as the Reporting Person holds any Series B Preferred Shares. Any transferees of the Series B Preferred Shares (or Common Shares issuable on conversion thereof) that are not transferred pursuant to an effective registration statement or pursuant to Rule 144 must agree in writing to be bound by the provisions described in this paragraph.

Statement of Designation

Ranking

The Series B Preferred Shares rank senior to the Common Shares and the Issuer's Series A Participating Preferred Shares with respect to dividend rights and rights upon liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Issuer. The Series B Preferred Shares have an initial liquidation preference of $1,000 per share, which shall be increased by the amount of any accrued and unpaid dividends (the Liquidation Preference).

Dividend Rights

Edgar Filing: EUROSEAS LTD. - Form SC 13D

Dividends on the Series B Preferred Shares are payable quarterly, are cumulative and accrue at a rate equal to the Dividend Rate (as defined below) multiplied by the Liquidation Preference. Prior to January 29, 2019, the Issuer may elect to pay dividends on the Series B Preferred Shares in either cash or in additional Series B Preferred Shares, at the Issuer's option. After January 29, 2019, dividends on the Series B Preferred Shares will be payable solely in cash.

CUSIP No. Y23592200

The Dividend Rate means (a) from January 29, 2014 until January 28, 2019, either 0% or 5%, depending on the then-applicable volume-weighted average trading price of the Common Shares, (b) from January 29, 2019 to January 28, 2021, 12%, and (c) beginning January 29, 2021, 14%.

If the Issuer pays any dividends on the Common Shares, it must simultaneously pay a special cash dividend on each outstanding Series B Preferred Share (in addition to payment in cash of all accrued and unpaid dividends on the Series B Preferred Shares). The amount of the special dividend payable on the Series B Preferred Shares varies depending on the amount and timing of the dividend on the Common Shares and the then-applicable volume-weighted average trading price of the Common Shares.

In the event of a default in the payment of dividends on the Series B Preferred Shares, (a) the dividend rate shall be increased by 3% during the first six months during which such default exists, and by an additional 3% thereafter (and if the Issuer cures any such dividend payment default, the dividend rate shall thereafter remain at the level it was immediately prior to such cure), (b) the Conversion Rate (as defined below) of the Series B Preferred Shares shall be adjusted as described below and (c) at any time after such default, the holders of the Series B Preferred Shares may elect to convert such Series B Preferred Shares into one or more convertible promissory notes in the form attached to the Statement of Designation as Exhibit A, or in such other form as such holders and the Issuer may agree.

Voting Rights

The Series B Preferred Shares are entitled to vote with the holders of Common Shares as a single class, with each Series B Preferred Share having a number of votes equal to 50% of the number of Common Shares into which such Series B Preferred Share could be converted on the record date for the relevant vote. In addition, the holders of Series B Preferred Shares shall have the right, voting as a separate class, to elect one member of the Issuer's board of directors.

In addition, without the consent of the Reporting Person, the Issuer may not, among other things, (a) authorize, create or issue any class or series of capital stock that ranks senior to or on parity with the Series B Preferred Shares, or issue additional Series B Preferred Shares (provided that after January 29, 2019, the Issuer may issue any class or series of capital stock that ranks senior to or on parity with the Series B Preferred Shares or issue additional Series B Preferred Shares if the net proceeds from such issuance are used to redeem all outstanding Series B Preferred Shares), (b) engage in certain related party transactions or (c) effect any transaction involving the financing or acquisition of vessels, or any merger or other corporate transaction, if such transaction would result in an increase in the Issuer's outstanding debt unless a specified debt-to-assets ratio is maintained.

The right of the holders of Series B Preferred Shares to elect a member of the Issuer's board of directors and the consent rights set forth above shall terminate if the Reporting Person or its affiliates cease to own at least 65% of the Common Shares (on an as-converted basis) that the Series B Preferred Shares would have been converted into as of January 29, 2014 (subject to adjustments to the Conversion Rate). The consent rights set forth above shall also terminate if more than 50% of the Series B Preferred Shares that were issued on January 29, 2014 are converted into Common Shares.

Conversion Rights

Optional Conversion. Each Series B Preferred Share is convertible at any time, at the election of the holder, into the number of Common Shares equal to the Conversion Rate.

Mandatory Conversion. After January 29, 2016, each Series B Preferred Share will automatically be converted into the number of Common Shares equal to the Conversion Rate if all of the following occur: (a) the Issuer completes an underwritten public offering of Common Shares at a public offering price of at least $2.50 per Common Share resulting in gross proceeds of at least $40 million (subject to adjustment in the event that the Reporting Person declines to participate in such offering by including Common Shares it beneficially owns in such offering); (b) the volume-weighted average trading price of the Common Shares is at least $2.50 for 37 consecutive trading days prior to the announcement of such public offering; and (c) either there is an effective registration statement covering the resale of the Common Shares issuable upon such mandatory conversion or such Common Shares may be resold without restriction pursuant to Rule 144 under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

The Conversion Rate means (a) the Liquidation Preference divided by (b) the Conversion Price (as defined below) then in effect, subject to certain anti-dilution adjustments.

The Conversion Price is initially $1.45 and is subject to adjustment, including in the event of (a) a stock split or subdivision of the Common Shares, (b) payment by the Issuer of a dividend in Common Shares to the holders of Common Shares or (c) a private offering of Common Shares by the Issuer at less than the then-applicable volume-weighted average trading price of the Common Shares. Further, in the event of a default in the payment of dividends on the Series B Preferred Shares, the Conversion Price shall equal (i) $1.25 during the first six months during which such default exists (subject to adjustment as described above), and (ii) $1.05 if such default continues for more than six months (subject to adjustment as described above). If the Issuer cures any such dividend payment default, the Conversion Price shall thereafter remain at the level it was immediately prior to such cure (subject to adjustment as described above).

Redemption Rights

After January 29, 2019, the Issuer has the right to redeem the Series B Preferred Shares, in whole or in part, for the Liquidation Preference. In addition, upon a change of control of the Issuer, each holder of Series B Preferred Shares may elect to cause the Issuer to redeem such Series B Preferred Shares at the greater of (a) the Liquidation Preference and (b) all accrued and unpaid dividends with respect to such Series B Preferred Shares plus the value of the Common Shares into which such Series B Preferred Shares could be converted on the date of such election (determined using the then-applicable volume-weighted average trading price of the Common Shares).

Liquidation Rights

In the event of any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Issuer, the holder of each Series B Preferred Share shall be entitled to receive, out of the assets of the Issuer before any distribution to holders of the Common Shares and each other class or series of capital stock of the Issuer that does not expressly rank senior to the Series B Preferred Shares as to liquidation rights, the greater of (a) the Liquidation Preference and (b) the amount that such holder would have been entitled to receive in respect of the Common Shares into which such Series B Preferred Share could have been converted immediately prior to such liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Issuer.

Registration Rights Agreement

Edgar Filing: EUROSEAS LTD. - Form SC 13D

The Registration Rights Agreement obligates the Issuer to register specified securities for resale by the Reporting Person (or its affiliates and permitted transferees) in the public market. The registrable securities under the Registration Rights Agreement include the Common Shares issuable upon conversion of the Series B Preferred Shares. The holders of registrable securities are entitled to shelf registration rights, demand registrations and piggy-back registration rights. The exercise of these registration rights is subject to notice requirements, timing restrictions and volume limitations that may be imposed by the underwriters of an offering. The Issuer is also obligated to, at the election of the Reporting Person (or its affiliates and permitted transferees), facilitate an underwritten offering of the registrable securities (including paying customary expenses associated with an underwritten offering).

Except as provided above, the Reporting Person currently has no plans or proposals that relate to or would result in any of the matters referred to in paragraphs (a) through (j), inclusive, of Item 4 of Schedule 13D. The Reporting Person may, however, at any time and from time to time in its discretion, review or reconsider its position with respect to the Series B Preferred Shares, the Common Shares and any such matters. The Reporting Person retains the right to (a) change its investment intent, (b) acquire or dispose of beneficial ownership of equity or debt securities of the Issuer (including, but not limited to, the Series B Preferred Shares and Common Shares) in the open market or otherwise, (c) review the performance of the Issuer with the Issuer's management and/or its board of directors, (d) communicate with other equity or debt holders of the Issuer, (e) exercise its rights, if any, as a holder of the Series B Preferred Shares and Common Shares in connection with a bankruptcy, restructuring or other case or proceeding of the Issuer, and/or (f) take any other action with respect to the Issuer, its shareholders, or any of the Issuer's equity or debt securities, including, but not limited to, the Series B Preferred Shares and Common Shares, in any manner permitted by law.

Item 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer.

(a)-(b) The Common Shares identified pursuant to Item 1 constitute approximately 27.5% of the Common Shares outstanding based on (i) 45,511,005 Common Shares outstanding as of September 30, 2013 as reported by the Issuer in its Current Report on Form 6-K filed with the SEC on November 12, 2013, and (ii) 17,241,379 Common Shares issuable upon conversion of the Series B Preferred Shares, computed in accordance with Rule 13d-3(d)(1). The Reporting Person has sole voting and dispositive power over the Common Shares.

(c) There have been no purchases or sales of the Common Shares during the past 60 days by the Reporting Person (or its affiliates).

(d)-(e) Not applicable.

Item 6. Contracts, Arrangements, Understandings or Relationships with Respect to Securities of the Issuer.

The information set forth in Item 3 and Item 4 above is incorporated by reference in its entirety in this Item 6. Except for the Securities Purchase Agreement, the Statement of Designation and the Registration Rights Agreement, the Reporting Person does not have any contract, arrangement, understanding or relationship with any person with respect to securities of the Issuer.
