Revenues are predominantly derived from specialized staffing services. The Company operates in North America, South America, Europe, Asia and Australia. The Company is a Delaware corporation.

Basis of Presentation. The unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements (“Financial Statements”) of the Company are prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“GAAP”) and the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”). The comparative year-end condensed consolidated statement of financial position data presented was derived from audited financial statements. In the opinion of management, all adjustments (consisting of only normal recurring adjustments) necessary for a fair statement of the financial position and results of operations for the periods presented have been included. These Financial Statements should be read in conjunction with the audited Consolidated Financial Statements of the Company for the year ended December 31, 2014, included in its annual report on Form 10-K. The results of operations for any interim period are not necessarily indicative of, nor comparable to, the results of operations for a full year.

Principles of Consolidation. The Financial Statements include the accounts of the Company and its subsidiaries, all of which are wholly-owned. All intercompany balances have been eliminated.

Use of Estimates. The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. As of March 31, 2015, such estimates included allowances for uncollectible accounts receivable, workers’ compensation losses, and income and other taxes. Management estimates are also utilized in the Company’s goodwill impairment assessment and in the valuation of stock grants subject to market conditions.

Advertising Costs. The Company expenses all advertising costs as incurred. Advertising costs for the three months ended March 31, 2015 and 2014, are reflected in the following table (in thousands):

	Three Months Ended March 31,
Advertising costs	$11,064	$9,753

Internal-use Software. The Company capitalizes direct costs incurred in the development of internal-use software. Amounts capitalized are reported as a component of computer software within property and equipment. Internal-use software development costs capitalized for the three months ended March 31, 2015 and 2014, are reflected in the following table (in thousands):

	Three Months Ended March 31,
	2015	2014
Internal-use software development costs	$7,943	$5,892

Note B—New Accounting Pronouncements

Reporting Discontinued Operations and Disclosures of Disposals of Components of an Entity. In April 2014, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) issued authoritative guidance in regards to the criteria for reporting discontinued operations while also enhancing disclosures in this area. Under the new guidance, only disposals representing a strategic shift in operations should be presented as discontinued operations. In addition, the new guidance requires expanded disclosures about discontinued operations that will provide financial statement users with more information about the assets, liabilities, income, and expenses of discontinued operations. The amendments in the authoritative guidance are effective for annual reporting periods beginning on or after December 15, 2014, and interim periods within those annual periods. The adoption of this guidance in the first quarter of 2015 did not have an impact on the Company's Financial Statements.

Revenue from Contracts with Customers. In May 2014, the FASB issued authoritative guidance that provides companies with a single model for use in accounting for revenue arising from contracts with customers and supersedes current revenue recognition guidance, including industry-specific revenue guidance. The new guidance requires a company to recognize revenue to depict the transfer of goods or services to a customer at an amount that reflects the consideration it expects to receive in exchange for those goods or services. It also requires additional disclosure about the nature, amount, timing and uncertainty of revenue and cash flows arising from customer contracts, including significant judgments and changes in judgments and assets recognized from costs incurred to obtain or fulfill a contract. In April 2015, the FASB proposed deferring the effective date by one year. If approved, the new guidance is effective for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2017. Early adoption is not permitted. The guidance permits companies to either apply the requirements retrospectively to all prior periods presented, or apply the requirements in the year of adoption, through a cumulative adjustment. The Company is in the process of evaluating the impact of adoption of this guidance on its Financial Statements.

Customer’s Accounting for Fees Paid in a Cloud Computing Arrangement. In April 2015, the FASB issued authoritative guidance designed to assist customers in their determination of whether a cloud computing arrangement includes a software license. If a cloud computing arrangement includes a software license, then the customer should account for the software license element of the arrangement consistent with the acquisition of other software licenses. If a cloud computing arrangement does not include a software license, the customer should account for the arrangement as a service contract. The guidance will not change GAAP for a customer’s accounting for service contracts. This guidance is effective for annual and interim periods beginning after December 15, 2015. The Company is in the process of evaluating the impact of adoption of this guidance on its Financial Statements.

Note F—Commitments and Contingencies

On April 23, 2010, Plaintiffs David Opalinski and James McCabe, on behalf of themselves and a putative class of similarly situated Staffing Managers, filed a Complaint in the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey naming the Company and one of its subsidiaries as Defendants. The Complaint alleges that salaried Staffing Managers located throughout the U.S. have been misclassified as exempt from the Fair Labor Standards Act's overtime pay requirements. Plaintiffs seek an unspecified amount for unpaid overtime on behalf of themselves and the class they purport to represent. Plaintiffs also seek an unspecified amount for statutory penalties, attorneys' fees and other damages. On October 6, 2011, the Court granted the Company's motion to compel arbitration of the Plaintiffs' allegations. At this stage, it is not feasible to predict the outcome of or a range of loss, should a loss occur, from these allegations and, accordingly, no amounts have been provided in the Company's Financial Statements. The Company believes it has meritorious defenses to the allegations, and the Company intends to continue to vigorously defend against the allegations.

On March 13, 2014, Plaintiff Leonor Rodriguez, on her own behalf and on behalf of a putative class of allegedly similarly situated individuals, filed a complaint against the Company in the Superior Court of California, San Diego County. The complaint alleges that a putative class of current and former employees of the Company working in California since March 13, 2011 were denied compensation for the time they spent interviewing with clients of the Company as well as performing activities related to the interview process. Rodriguez seeks recovery on her own behalf and on behalf of the putative class in an unspecified amount for this allegedly unpaid compensation. Rodriguez also seeks recovery of an unspecified amount for the alleged failure of the Company to provide her and the putative class with accurate wage statements. Rodriguez also seeks an unspecified amount of other damages, attorneys' fees, and statutory penalties, including but not limited to statutory penalties on behalf of herself and other allegedly "aggrieved employees" as defined by California's Labor Code Private Attorney General Act ("PAGA"). On October 10, 2014, the Court granted a motion by the Company to compel all of Rodriguez's claims, except the PAGA claim, to individual arbitration. At this stage of the litigation, it is not feasible to predict the outcome of or a range of loss, should a loss occur, from this proceeding and, accordingly, no amounts have been provided in the Company's Financial Statements. The Company believes it has meritorious defenses to the allegations and the Company intends to continue to vigorously defend against the litigation.

On September 5, 2014, Plaintiff Theresa Daniels, on behalf of herself and a putative class of salaried Recruiting Managers, filed a complaint in California Superior Court naming the Company as Defendant. The complaint alleges that salaried Recruiting Managers based in California have been misclassified under California law as exempt employees, and seeks an unspecified amount for unpaid overtime pay alleged to be due to them had they been paid as non-exempt hourly employees, as well as statutory penalties for alleged violations of the California Labor Code arising from such alleged misclassification. The complaint also alleges a claim under California Business and Professions Code section 17200 for unfair competition. The Plaintiff also seeks an unspecified amount for other damages, attorneys' fees, and statutory penalties. On or about September 17, 2014, the Plaintiff provided written notice to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency of her alleged claims. On October 27, 2014, the Plaintiff filed a First Amended Complaint adding a representative claim and request for penalties under the California Private Attorney General Act. At this stage of the litigation, it is not feasible to predict the outcome of or a range of loss, should a loss occur, from this proceeding, and accordingly, no amounts have been provided in the Company's financial statements. The Company believes it has meritorious defenses to the allegations in this case, and the Company intends to continue to vigorously defend against the litigation.

On January 23, 2015, Plaintiff April Washington, on her own behalf and on behalf of two separate putative subclasses, filed a complaint against the Company in the Superior Court of California, San Mateo County. The complaint alleged that the Company violated the disclosure requirements of the Fair Credit Reporting Act (the "FCRA") by: (i) procuring background checks on Plaintiff and other putative class members for employment purposes without first making all required disclosures in a standalone document; and (ii) procuring drug tests on Plaintiff and other putative class members for employment purposes without first making all required disclosures in a standalone document. In the complaint, Plaintiff sought recovery on her own behalf and on behalf of the putative subclasses in an unspecified amount for statutory damages of not less than $100 and not more than $1,000 for each class member, punitive damages, attorneys' fees, litigation expenses, and costs. On April 20, 2015, the parties to this action entered into a settlement agreement with regard to Plaintiff's individual claims in an amount immaterial to the Company and, on April 22, 2015, the Court dismissed the complaint. Accordingly, the Company will not make disclosures regarding this matter in its future Securities and Exchange Commission filings.

On March 23, 2015, Plaintiff Jessica Gentry, on her own behalf and on behalf of a putative class of allegedly similarly situated individuals, filed a complaint against the Company in the Superior Court of California, San Francisco County. The complaint, which was filed by the same plaintiffs' law firm that brought the Rodriguez matter described above, alleges claims similar to those alleged in Rodriguez. Specifically, the complaint alleges that a putative class of current and former employees of the Company working in California since March 13, 2010 were denied compensation for the time they spent interviewing "for temporary and permanent employment opportunities" as well as performing activities related to the interview process. Gentry seeks recovery on her own behalf and on behalf of the putative class in an unspecified amount for this allegedly unpaid compensation. Gentry also seeks recovery of an unspecified amount for the alleged failure of the Company to provide her and the putative class with accurate wage statements. Gentry also seeks an unspecified amount of other damages, attorneys' fees, and statutory penalties, including penalties for allegedly not paying all wages due upon separation to former employees. At this stage of the litigation, it is not feasible to predict the outcome of or a range of loss, should a loss occur, from this proceeding and, accordingly, no amounts have been provided in the Company's Financial Statements. The Company believes it has meritorious defenses to the allegations and the Company intends to continue to vigorously defend against the litigation. The Company is involved in a number of other lawsuits arising in the ordinary course of business. While management does not expect any of these other matters to have a material adverse effect on the Company's results of operations, financial position or cash flows, litigation is subject to certain inherent uncertainties.

ITEM 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

Certain information contained in Management's Discussion and Analysis and in other parts of this report may be deemed forward-looking statements regarding events and financial trends that may affect the Company's future operating results or financial positions. These statements may be identified by words such as "estimate", "forecast", "project", "plan", "intend", "believe", "expect", "anticipate", or variations or negatives thereof or by similar or comparable words or phrases. Forward-looking statements are subject to risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed in the statements. These risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to, the following: the global financial and economic situation; changes in levels of unemployment and other economic conditions in the United States or foreign countries where the Company does business, or in particular regions or industries; reduction in the supply of candidates for temporary employment or the Company's ability to attract candidates; the entry of new competitors into the marketplace or expansion by existing competitors; the ability of the Company to maintain existing client relationships and attract new clients in the context of changing economic or competitive conditions; the impact of competitive pressures, including any change in the demand for the Company's services, on the Company's ability to maintain its margins; the possibility of the Company incurring liability for its activities, including the activities of its temporary employees, or for events impacting its temporary employees on clients' premises; the possibility that adverse publicity could impact the Company's ability to attract and retain clients and candidates; the success of the Company in attracting, training, and retaining qualified management personnel and other staff employees; the Company's ability to comply with governmental regulations affecting personnel services businesses in particular or employer/employee relationships in general; whether there will be ongoing demand for Sarbanes-Oxley or other regulatory compliance services; the Company's reliance on short-term contracts for a significant percentage of its business; litigation relating to prior or current transactions or activities, including litigation that may be disclosed from time to time in the Company's Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") filings; the ability of the Company to manage its international operations and comply with foreign laws and regulations; the impact of fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates; the possibility that the additional costs the Company will incur as a result of health care reform legislation may adversely affect the Company's profit margins or the demand for the Company's services; the possibility that the Company's computer and communications hardware and software systems could be damaged or their service interrupted; and the possibility that the Company may fail to maintain adequate financial and management controls and as a result suffer errors in its financial reporting. Additionally, with respect to Protiviti, other risks and uncertainties include the fact that future success will depend on its ability to retain employees and attract clients; there can be no assurance that there will be ongoing demand for Sarbanes-Oxley or other regulatory compliance services; failure to produce projected revenues could adversely affect financial results; and there is the possibility of involvement in litigation relating to prior or current transactions or activities. Because long-term contracts are not a significant part of the Company's business, future results cannot be reliably predicted by considering past trends or extrapolating past results.

Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates

The Company's most critical accounting policies and estimates are those that involve subjective decisions or assessments and are included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014. There were no material changes to these critical accounting policies during the three months ended March 31, 2015.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

See Note B—"New Accounting Pronouncements" to the Company's Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements included under Part I—Item 1 of this report.

Results of Operations

Demand for the Company's temporary and permanent placement staffing services and risk consulting and internal audit services is largely dependent upon general economic and labor market conditions both domestically and abroad. All segments of the business contributed to a solid quarter for the Company. Because of the inherent difficulty in predicting economic trends and the absence of material long-term contracts in any of our business units, future demand for the Company's services cannot be forecasted with certainty.

The Company's temporary and permanent placement staffing services business has 336 offices in 42 states, the District of Columbia and 17 foreign countries, while Protiviti has 57 offices in 23 states and 11 foreign countries.

Non-GAAP Financial Measures

The financial results of the Company are prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP") and the rules of the SEC. To help readers understand the Company's financial performance, the Company supplements its GAAP financial results with revenue growth rates derived from non-GAAP revenue amounts. Variations in the Company's financial results include the impact of changes in foreign currency exchange rates and billing days. The Company provides "same billing days and constant currency" revenue growth calculations to remove the impact of these items. These calculations show the year-over-year revenue growth rates for the Company's reportable segments on both a reported basis and also on a same day, constant-currency basis for global, U.S. and international operations. The Company has provided this data because management believes it better reflects the Company's actual revenue growth rates and aids in evaluating revenue trends over time. The Company expresses year-over-year revenue changes as calculated percentages using the same number of billing days and constant currency exchange rates.

In order to calculate constant currency revenue growth rates, as reported amounts are retranslated using foreign currency exchange rates from the prior year's comparable period. Management then calculates a global, weighted-average number of billing days for each reporting period based upon input from all countries and all lines of business. In order to remove the fluctuations caused by comparable periods having different billing days, the Company calculates same billing day revenue growth rates by dividing each comparative period's reported revenues by the calculated number of billing days for that period, to arrive at a per billing day amount. Same billing day growth rates are then calculated based upon the per billing day amounts. The term "same billing days and constant currency" means that the impact of different billing days has been removed from the constant currency calculation.

The non-GAAP financial measures provided herein may not provide information that is directly comparable to that provided by other companies in the Company's industry, as other companies may calculate such financial results differently. The Company's non-GAAP financial measures are not measurements of financial performance under GAAP, and should not be considered as alternatives to actual revenue growth derived from revenue amounts presented in accordance with GAAP. The Company does not consider these non-GAAP financial measures to be a substitute for, or superior to, the information provided by GAAP financial results. A reconciliation of the same-day, constant-currency revenue growth rates to the reported revenue growth rates is provided herein.

Three months ended March 31, 2015 and 2014

Revenues. The Company's revenues were $1.21 billion for the three months ended March 31, 2015 compared to $1.08 billion for the three months ended March 31, 2014. Revenues from foreign operations represented 20.2% of total revenues for the three months ended March 31, 2015, compared to 23.7% for the three months ended March 31, 2014. The Company analyzes its revenues for three reportable segments: temporary and consultant staffing, permanent placement staffing, and risk consulting and internal audit services. For the three months ended March 31, 2015 revenues for each of the Company's reportable segments were up compared to the same period in 2014. The Company's growth was broad-based and reflective of improving labor markets and higher global demand for its professional staffing services. Results were strongest domestically with demand also improving in several other countries. Risk consulting and internal audit services continued to post strong growth rates. Contributing factors for each reportable segment are discussed below in further detail.

Temporary and consultant staffing services revenues were $944 million for the three months ended March 31, 2015, increasing by 10.0% compared to revenues of $857 million for the three months ended March 31, 2014. On a same-day, constant-currency basis, temporary and consultant staffing services revenues increased 14.5% for the first quarter of 2015 compared to the first quarter of 2014. In the U.S., revenues in the first quarter of 2015 increased 14.8%, or 15.6% on a same-day basis, compared to the first quarter of 2014. For the Company's international operations, 2015 first quarter revenues decreased 6.0%, and on a same-day, constant-currency basis increased 10.6%, compared to the first quarter of 2014.

Permanent placement staffing revenues were $98 million for the three months ended March 31, 2015, increasing by 6.2% compared to revenues of $93 million for the three months ended March 31, 2014. On a same-day, constant-currency basis, permanent placement revenues increased 11.9% for the first quarter of 2015 compared to the first quarter of 2014. In the U.S., revenues for the first quarter of 2015 increased 15.6%, or 16.4% on a same-day basis, compared to the first quarter of 2014. For the Company's international operations, revenues for the first quarter of 2015 decreased 9.8%, and on a same-day, constant-currency basis increased 4.0%, compared to the first quarter of 2014. Historically, demand for permanent placement services is even more sensitive to economic and labor market conditions than demand for temporary and consulting staffing services and this is expected to continue.

Risk consulting and internal audit services revenues were $164 million for the three months ended March 31, 2015, increasing by 22.0% compared to revenues of $134 million for the three months ended March 31, 2014. On a same-day, constant-currency basis, risk consulting and internal audit services revenues increased 26.6% for the first quarter of 2015 compared to the first quarter of 2014. In the U.S., revenues in the first quarter of 2015 increased 26.2%, or 27.9% on a same-day basis, compared to the first quarter of 2014. Contributing to the U.S. increase was continued growth in internal audit, financial services risk and compliance, and IT controls and security. The Company's risk consulting and internal audit services revenues from international operations increased 4.8%, and on a same-day, constant-currency basis increased 21.3%, compared to the first quarter of 2014.

A reconciliation of the non-GAAP year-over-year revenue growth rates to the as reported year-over-year revenue growth rates for the three months ended March 31, 2015, is presented in the following table:

Gross Margin. The Company's gross margin dollars were $494 million for the three months ended March 31, 2015, increasing by 12.7% compared to $438 million for the three months ended March 31, 2014. In the first quarter of 2015, gross margin dollars increased for all three of the Company's reportable segments compared to the first quarter of 2014. Gross margin as a percentage of revenues increased for the Company's temporary and consultant staffing services and risk consulting and internal audit services segments on a year-over-year basis. Contributing factors for each reportable segment are discussed below in further detail.

Gross margin dollars from the Company's temporary and consultant staffing services represent revenues less direct costs of services, which consist of payroll, payroll taxes and benefit costs for temporary employees, and reimbursable expenses. Gross margin dollars for the Company's temporary and consultant staffing services division were $349 million for the three months ended March 31, 2015, compared to $309 million for the three months ended March 31, 2014. As a percentage of revenues, gross margin for temporary and consultant staffing services was 37.0% in the first quarter of 2015, up from 36.1% in the first quarter of 2014. This year-over-year improvement in gross margin was primarily attributable to higher conversion revenues and expansion of pay/bill spreads in the first quarter of 2015 compared to the first quarter of 2014. Conversion revenues are earned when a temporary position converts to a permanent position. As there are no direct costs related to conversion revenues, the gross margin percentage is favorably impacted as the mix of conversion revenues increases. Pay/bill spreads represent the differential between wages paid to temporary employees and amounts billed to clients.

Gross margin dollars from permanent placement staffing services represent revenues less reimbursable expenses. Gross margin dollars for the Company's permanent placement staffing division were $98 million for the three months ended March 31, 2015, compared to $93 million for the three months ended March 31, 2014. Because reimbursable expenses for permanent placement staffing services are de minimis, gross margin dollars are substantially explained by revenues previously discussed.

Gross margin dollars for risk consulting and internal audit services represent revenues less direct costs of services, which consist primarily of professional staff payroll, payroll taxes, benefit costs and reimbursable expenses. Gross margin dollars for the Company's risk consulting and internal audit division were $47 million for the three months ended March 31, 2015, increasing by 28.3% compared to $36 million for the three months ended March 31, 2014. As a percentage of revenues, gross margin for risk consulting and internal audit services in the first quarter of 2015 was 28.8%, up from 27.4% in the first quarter of 2014.

Selling, General and Administrative Expenses. The Company's selling, general and administrative expenses were $366 million for the three months ended March 31, 2015, up 8.8% from $336 million for the three months ended March 31, 2014. As a percentage of revenues, the Company's selling, general and administrative expenses were 30.4% for the first quarter of 2015, down from 31.0% for the first quarter of 2014.

Selling, general and administrative expenses for the Company's temporary and consultant staffing services division were $256 million for the three months ended March 31, 2015, up 10.5% from $232 million for the three months ended March 31, 2014. As a percentage of revenues, selling, general and administrative expenses for temporary and consultant staffing services were 27.1% in the first quarter of 2015, up slightly from 27.0% in the first quarter of 2014.

Selling, general and administrative expenses for the Company's permanent placement staffing division were $79 million for the three months ended March 31, 2015, increasing by 5.2% compared to $75 million for the three months ended March 31, 2014. As a percentage of revenues, selling, general and administrative expenses for permanent placement staffing services were 80.5% in the first quarter of 2015, down from 81.3% in the first quarter of 2014. For the first quarter of 2015 compared to the first quarter of 2014, the decrease in selling, general and administrative expenses as a percentage of revenue is primarily due to improved operating leverage obtained by higher revenues.

Selling, general and administrative expenses for the Company's risk consulting and internal audit services division were $31 million for the three months ended March 31, 2015, increasing by 5.0% compared to $29 million for the three months ended March 31, 2014. As a percentage of revenues, selling, general and administrative expenses for risk consulting and internal audit services were 18.8% in the first quarter of 2015, down from 21.9% in the first quarter of 2014. For the first quarter of 2015 compared to the first quarter of 2014, the decrease in selling, general and administrative expenses as a percentage of revenue is primarily due to improved operating leverage obtained by higher revenues.

Operating Income. The Company's total operating income was $128 million or 10.6% of revenues, for the three months ended March 31, 2015, increasing by 25.5% from $102 million, or 9.4% of revenues, for the three months ended March 31, 2014. For the Company's temporary and consultant staffing services division, operating income was $93 million, or 9.8% of applicable revenues, up from $78 million, or 9.0% of applicable revenues, in the first quarter of 2014. For the Company's permanent placement staffing division, operating income was $19 million, or 19.3% of applicable revenues, up from an operating income of $17 million, or 18.7% of applicable revenues, in the first quarter of 2014. For the Company's risk consulting and internal audit services division, operating income was $16 million, or 9.9% of applicable revenues, up from an operating income of $7 million, or 5.5% of applicable revenues, in the first quarter of 2014.

Provision for income taxes. The provision for income taxes was 39.2% and 39.7% for the three months ended March 31, 2015 and 2014, respectively. The lower tax rate is primarily due to the favorable settlement and resolution of a state audit.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The change in the Company's liquidity during the three months ended March 31, 2015 and 2014 is primarily the net effect of funds generated by operations and the funds used for capital expenditures, repurchases of common stock and payment of dividends.

Cash and cash equivalents were $261 million and $268 million at March 31, 2015 and 2014, respectively. Operating activities provided $84 million during the three months ended March 31, 2015, which was more than offset by $21 million and $81 million of net cash used in investing activities and financing activities, respectively. Operating activities provided $59 million during the three months ended March 31, 2014, which was more than offset by $18 million and $50 million of net cash used in investing activities and financing activities, respectively.

Operating activities—Net cash provided by operating activities for the three months ended March 31, 2015, was composed of net income of $78 million, adjusted for non-cash items of $28 million, and offset by changes in working capital of $22 million. Net cash provided by operating activities for the three months ended March 31, 2014, was comprised of net income of $62 million, adjusted for non-cash items of $26 million, and offset by changes in working capital of $29 million.

Investing activities—Net cash used in investing activities for the three months ended March 31, 2015, was $21 million. This was composed of capital expenditures of $13 million and deposits to trusts for employee deferred compensation plans of $8 million. Net cash used in investing activities for the three months ended March 31, 2014, was $18 million. This was comprised of capital expenditures of $13 million and deposits to trusts for employee deferred compensation plans of $5 million.

Financing activities—Net cash used in financing activities for the three months ended March 31, 2015, was $81 million. This included repurchases of $59 million in common stock and $27 million in cash dividends to stockholders, offset by $4 million in excess tax benefits from stock-based compensation and proceeds of $1 million from exercises of stock options. Net cash used in financing activities for the three months ended March 31, 2014, was $50 million. This included repurchases of $35 million in common stock, $24 million in cash dividends to stockholders, offset by proceeds of $8 million from exercises of stock options and $1 million in excess tax benefits from stock-based compensation.

As of March 31, 2015, the Company is authorized to repurchase, from time to time, up to 4.3 million additional shares of the Company's common stock on the open market or in privately negotiated transactions, depending on market conditions. During the three months ended March 31, 2015 and 2014, the Company repurchased 0.5 million shares and 0.8 million shares of common stock on the open market for a total cost of $29 million and $33 million, respectively. Additional stock repurchases were made in connection with employee stock plans, whereby Company shares were tendered by employees for the payment of exercise price and applicable statutory withholding taxes. During the three months ended March 31, 2015 and 2014, such repurchases totaled 0.2 million shares, at a cost of $11 million, and 0.2 million shares, at a cost of $10 million, respectively. Repurchases of shares have been funded with cash generated from operations.

The Company's working capital at March 31, 2015, included $261 million in cash and cash equivalents. The Company expects that internally generated cash will be sufficient to support the working capital needs of the Company, the Company's fixed payments, dividends, and other obligations on both a short-term and long-term basis.

On April 30, 2015, the Company announced a quarterly dividend of $.20 per share to be paid to all shareholders of record as of May 22, 2015. The dividend will be paid on June 15, 2015.

ITEM 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk

The Company is exposed to the impact of foreign currency fluctuations. The Company's exposure to foreign currency exchange rates relates primarily to the Company's foreign subsidiaries. Exchange rates impact the U.S. dollar value of the Company's reported earnings, investments in its foreign subsidiaries, and the intercompany transactions with its foreign subsidiaries.

For the three months ended March 31, 2015, approximately 20% of the Company's revenues were generated outside of the U.S. These operations transact business in their functional currency. As a result, fluctuations in the value of foreign currencies against the U.S. dollar, particularly the Canadian dollar, British pound, Euro, and Australian dollar, have an impact on the Company's reported results. Revenues and expenses denominated in foreign currencies are translated into U.S. dollars at the monthly average exchange rates prevailing during the period. Consequently, as the value of the U.S. dollar changes relative to the currencies of the Company's non-U.S. markets, the Company's reported results vary.

Fluctuations in currency exchange rates impact the U.S. dollar amount of the Company's stockholders' equity. The assets and liabilities of the Company's non-U.S. subsidiaries are translated into U.S. dollars at the exchange rates in effect at period end. The resulting translation adjustments are recorded in stockholders' equity as a component of accumulated other comprehensive (loss) income.

ITEM 4. Controls and Procedures

Management, including the Company's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer and the Vice Chairman and Chief Financial Officer, evaluated the effectiveness of the design and operation of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures as of the end of the period covered by this report. Based upon that evaluation, the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer and the Vice Chairman and Chief Financial Officer concluded that the disclosure controls and procedures were effective to ensure that information required to be disclosed in the reports the Company files and submits under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the rules and forms of the Securities and Exchange Commission and that information required to be disclosed by the Company in the reports that it files or submits under the Exchange Act is accumulated and communicated to the Company's management, including its principal executive and principal financial officers, as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

There have been no changes in the Company's internal controls over financial reporting identified in connection with the evaluation required by Rule 13a-15 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that occurred during the Company's last fiscal quarter that materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company's internal control over financial reporting.

PART II—OTHER INFORMATION

ITEM 1. Legal Proceedings

On March 23, 2015, Plaintiff Jessica Gentry, on her own behalf and on behalf of a putative class of allegedly similarly situated individuals, filed a complaint against the Company in the Superior Court of California, San Francisco County. The complaint alleges that a putative class of current and former employees of the Company working in California since March 13, 2010 were denied compensation for the time they spent interviewing “for temporary and permanent employment opportunities” as well as performing activities related to the interview process. Gentry seeks recovery on her own behalf and on behalf of the putative class in an unspecified amount for this allegedly unpaid compensation. Gentry also seeks recovery of an unspecified amount for the alleged failure of the Company to provide her and the putative class with accurate wage statements. Gentry also seeks an unspecified amount of other damages, attorneys’ fees, and statutory penalties, including penalties for allegedly not paying all wages due upon separation to former employees. At this stage of the litigation, it is not feasible to predict the outcome of or a range of loss, should a loss occur, from this proceeding and, accordingly, no amounts have been provided in the Company’s Financial Statements. The Company believes it has meritorious defenses to the allegations and the Company intends to continue to vigorously defend against the litigation.

On January 23, 2015, Plaintiff April Washington, on her own behalf and on behalf of two separate putative subclasses, filed a complaint against the Company in the Superior Court of California, San Mateo County. The complaint alleged that the Company violated the disclosure requirements of the Fair Credit Reporting Act (the “FCRA”) by: (i) procuring background checks on Plaintiff and other putative class members for employment purposes without first making all required disclosures in a standalone document; and (ii) procuring drug tests on Plaintiff and other putative class members for employment purposes without first making all required disclosures in a standalone document. In the complaint, Plaintiff sought recovery on her own behalf and on behalf of the putative subclasses in an unspecified amount for statutory damages of not less than $100 and not more than $1,000 for each class member, punitive damages, attorneys’ fees, litigation expenses, and costs. On April 20, 2015, the parties to this action entered into a settlement agreement with regard to Plaintiff’s individual claims in an amount immaterial to the Company and, on April 22, 2015, the Court dismissed the complaint. Accordingly, the Company will not make disclosures regarding this matter in its future Securities and Exchange Commission filings.

There have been no material developments with regard to the other legal proceedings previously disclosed in the Company’s annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2014.

ITEM 1A. Risk Factors
