Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers, Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On February 8, 2016, Cumberland Pharmaceuticals Inc. (the "Company") announced the promotion of Dr. Amy D. Rock to Vice President, Regulatory & Scientific Affairs. Dr. Rock has held a series of positions at Cumberland; serving as the Company's Senior Director Regulatory & Scientific Affairs since January 2010.

Dr. Rock has 15 years of pharmaceutical product development experience, including pre-approval and post-approval regulatory and clinical activities. She helped lead the development and FDA approval of Cumberland's Caldolor® and Acetadote® products. She is now leading the Company's efforts to develop ifetroban for a growing number of indications to address unmet medical needs.

Dr. Rock graduated with a Doctorate in Immunology from the University of Kentucky. She also earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Economics from Washington University in Missouri, prior to receiving her Masters of Business Administration from Vanderbilt University's Owen Graduate School of Management. Additional information in connection with Dr. Rock and her employment agreement will be provided separately.
