Item 3.03 Material Modification to Rights of Security Holders

On May 9, 2013, USG Corporation (the "Corporation") filed an Amendment to its Restated Certificate of Incorporation (the "Protective Amendment") with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware that restricts certain transfers of the Corporation's common stock. The Protective Amendment is intended to protect the tax benefits of the Corporation's net operating loss carryforwards. Subject to certain limited exceptions, the Protective Amendment's transfer restrictions would restrict any person from transferring the Corporation's common stock (or any interest in the Corporation's common stock) if the transfer would result in a stockholder (or several stockholders, in the aggregate, who hold their stock as a "group" under Section 382 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended) owning 4.9% or more of the Corporation's common stock. Any direct or indirect transfer attempted in violation of the Protective Amendment would be void as of the date of the prohibited transfer as to the purported transferee, and the purported transferee would not be recognized as the owner of the shares attempted to be owned in violation of the Protective Amendment for any purpose, including for purposes of voting and receiving dividends or other distributions in respect of that common stock, or in the case of options, receiving the Corporation's common stock in respect of their exercise.

The foregoing description of the Protective Amendment does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Protective Amendment, which is filed as Exhibit 3.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.
