Item 8.01 Other Events.

As previously disclosed, on August 25, 2016, Commissioner Robert L. Burns, one of five Commissioners on the Arizona Corporation Commission (“ACC”), filed subpoenas in Arizona Public Service Company’s (“APS”) current retail rate proceeding to APS and its parent company, Pinnacle West Capital Corporation (“Pinnacle West”, and together with APS, the “Companies”) for the production of records and information relating to a range of expenditures from 2011 through year-to-date 2016. The subpoenas request information concerning marketing and advertising expenditures, charitable donations, lobby expenses, contributions to 501(c)(3) and (c)(4) nonprofits and political contributions. The subpoenas were issued by Commissioner Burns individually, not by action of the ACC as a whole.

On September 9, 2016, APS filed with the ACC a motion to quash the subpoenas, or alternatively stay APS’ obligations to comply with the subpoenas and decline to decide APS’ motion pending court proceedings.

Contemporaneously with the filing of this motion, the Companies filed a complaint for special action and declaratory judgment in the Superior Court of Arizona for Maricopa County, seeking a declaratory judgment that Commissioner Burns’ subpoenas are contrary to law. The Companies also requested that the court issue a preliminary injunction restraining Commissioner Burns from compelling the production of documents and testimony pursuant to the subpoenas.

The grounds for the Companies’ requests to the ACC and the Superior Court include:

- their First Amendment rights concerning compelled disclosure of protected speech;
- the lack of relevance, under utility ratemaking principles, of most of the information requested in the subpoenas to their stated purpose of determining whether APS has used ratepayer funds for political, charitable or other expenditures;
- the extent of authority of an individual commissioner to issue and enforce subpoenas to companies like Pinnacle West that are not themselves regulated utilities; and
- the stated intention of Commissioner Burns to make public all documents provided by APS under the subpoenas, which APS contends would violate Arizona law regarding the confidentiality of information furnished by regulated utilities to the ACC.

APS states in its legal papers that notwithstanding the Companies’ contest of the subpoenas as described above, APS (as distinct from Pinnacle West) will produce all non-confidential and responsive documents by the requested return date of September 15, 2016. APS will produce any remaining responsive documents that are confidential after an appropriate confidentiality agreement is signed. The Companies cannot predict the outcome of this matter.
