ITEM 8.01. OTHER EVENTS.

On December 17, 2010, we received Notices of Deficiency from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) claiming that we owe additional taxes, plus interest based on an audit of the 2001, 2002, and 2003 tax years of Guidant Corporation, which we acquired in April 2006, and its subsidiary businesses as they existed in that time-frame. The incremental tax liability asserted by the IRS with regard to the Guidant claim is $525.1 million plus interest. We previously disclosed the receipt in 2008 of a Revenue Agent's Report for Guidant containing significant proposed adjustments and our expectation that we would not be able to resolve the matter through applicable IRS administrative procedures. These Notices of Deficiency are materially consistent with the 2008 Revenue Agent's Report.

The primary issue under dispute relates to transfer pricing in connection with technology license agreements between certain domestic and foreign subsidiaries of Guidant. We do not agree with the transfer pricing methodologies applied by the IRS or its resulting assessment. The Company believes that the IRS positions with regard to these matters are inconsistent with the applicable tax laws and the existing Treasury regulations and that the previously reported income tax for the years in question is appropriate. We believe that we have meritorious defenses for our tax filings and we intend to file a timely petition to the Tax Court to contest the assessment.

No payments on the assessment would be required until the dispute is definitively resolved, which, based on experiences of other companies, could take several years. We believe that our income tax reserves associated with this matter are adequate and that the final resolution will not have a material impact on our financial condition or results of operations. However, both the final resolution and potential impact of that resolution are uncertain and could have a material impact on our financial condition or results of operations.

Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This Current Report on Form 8-K contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Forward-looking statements may be identified by words like “anticipate,” “expect,” “project,” “believe,” “plan,” “estimate,” “intend” and similar words. These forward-looking statements are based on the Company's beliefs, assumptions and estimates using information available to the Company at the time and are not intended to be guarantees of future events or performance. These forward-looking statements include, among other things, statements regarding our opinions with respect to: the strength of our tax position with respect to this matter, the final resolution of this matter and expected timing thereof, the adequacy of tax reserves for this matter; and our financial performance. If the Company's underlying assumptions turn out to be incorrect, or if certain risks or uncertainties materialize, actual results could vary materially from the expectations and projections expressed or implied by the Company's forward-looking statements. These factors, in some cases, have affected and in the future (together with other factors) could affect the Company's ability to implement our business strategy and may cause actual results to differ materially from those contemplated by the statements expressed in this Current Report. As a result, readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on any of our forward-looking statements.

Factors that may cause such differences include, among other things: future economic, competitive, reimbursement and regulatory conditions; new product introductions; demographic trends; intellectual property litigation; closing of announced acquisitions, divestitures and related transitions; our restructuring initiatives; financial market conditions; and future business decisions made by the Company and our competitors. All of these factors are difficult or impossible to predict accurately and many of them are beyond the Company's control. For a further list and description of these and other important risks and uncertainties that may affect the Company's future operations, see Part I, Item 1A - Risk Factors in our most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, which the Company may update in Part II, Item 1A - Risk Factors in Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q the Company has filed or will file hereafter. The Company disclaims any intention or obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements to reflect any changes in expectations or in events, conditions, or circumstances on which those expectations may be based, or that may affect the likelihood that actual results will differ from those contained in the forward-looking statements. This cautionary statement is applicable to all forward-looking statements contained in this document.

Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, the Registrant has duly caused this report to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned hereunto duly authorized.
