AGGREGATED OPTIONS EXERCISED IN LAST FISCAL YEAR END AND FISCAL YEAR END OPTION VALUES

The following table sets forth certain information with respect to the unexercised options held as of the end of such fiscal year by the Named Executives. The fair market value on December 31, 2001 of the Common Shares underlying the options was $14.60 per Common Share.

The value of unexercised in-the-money options disclosed is based upon the Black-Scholes option pricing model adapted for use in valuing executive stock options. The actual value, if any, that the Named Executive receives will depend on the excess of the stock price at the time of exercise over the exercise or base price on the date the option is exercised. There is no assurance that the value realized by the Named Executive will be at or near the value estimated by the Black-Scholes model. The estimated values under the model are based on arbitrary assumptions such as interest rates, stock price volatility and future dividend yields. The assumptions used in the model were expected volatility of 25%, risk free interest rate of 6.21%, dividend yield of 11.59% and expected exercise time of ten years after the date of the grant.

OPTION PLANS AND INCENTIVE PLANS

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Executive compensation is paid by the Company in cash or through grants of awards under the Option Plans or the Incentive Plans. All final decisions regarding the cash component of executive compensation are made by the Board which, in making such determinations, takes into consideration any recommendations of the Executive Compensation Committee as well as the matters considered by, and the philosophy applied by such committee, as set forth below. All final decisions regarding grants of awards under the Option Plans and Incentive Plans are made by the Board and/or its Executive Compensation Committee. In making its recommendations to the Board, the Executive Compensation Committee reviews the Company's compensation plans, programs and policies and monitors the performance and compensation of its executive officers. The Executive Compensation Committee is expected to review the compensation for comparable positions at other real estate investment trusts ("REITs") in the comparison peer group in evaluating the Company's compensation plans, programs and policies.

Edgar Filing: KRAMONT REALTY TRUST - Form DEF 14A

The key elements of the Company's executive compensation package are base salary, annual bonus and equity-based incentives. The policies with respect to each of these elements, as well as the compensation paid to the executive officers of the Company during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2001, are discussed below.

Base Salaries

Base salaries for executive officers are determined by evaluating the responsibilities of the position held and the experience of the individual, and by reference to the competitive marketplace for executive talents, including a comparison to base salaries for comparable positions at other REITs in the comparison peer group. The base salaries currently are intended to be fixed at the average level of the base salaries paid to executive officers with comparable qualifications, experience and responsibilities at other REITs in the comparison peer group. Annual salary adjustments are determined based on an evaluation of executive officers' responsibilities and performance, as well as a review of the amount of base salaries paid to executive officers with comparable qualifications, experience and responsibilities by other REITs with businesses comparable in the Company's shopping center business and the performance of the Company and other market factors.

Annual Bonus

The Executive Compensation Committee, in determining the aggregate amount of annual bonuses, is expected to review the performance of the Company and, if appropriate, the Common Shares during such fiscal year. The President of the Company, in determining the amount of annual bonuses, if any, to be paid to executive officers, is expected to review the non-financial performance measures, such as the respective executive's performance, effort and role in promoting the long-term strategic growth of the Company, as well as such other matters as the Executive Compensation Committee may deem appropriate.

Long-Term Incentives

Long-term incentives are designed to align the interests of the Company's employees, trustees and other key individuals with those of the Company's shareholders. In (i) awarding options and share appreciation rights under the Incentive Plan to its employees, trustees and other key individuals, (ii) making grants of restricted Common Shares, and (iii) making loans to employees for the purchase of Common Shares in connection with a share purchase award, consideration is given to the number of options previously granted to them and whether any long-term incentives have previously been awarded.

Share options and related share appreciation rights are generally granted with an exercise price equal to the market price of the Common Shares on the date of grant and vest and become exercisable over a period of years based upon continued employment. This is intended to promote shareholder value over the long term, since the full benefit of the compensation package cannot be realized unless share price appreciation occurs over a number of years.

Grants of restricted Common Shares to executive officers may also form a part of the Company's long-term incentive package. Typically some portion of such grants would vest annually over a period of several years, so long as the executive officer remains employed by the Company. In making grants of restricted Common Shares, the Executive Compensation Committee would consider and give approximately equal weight to an individual's scope of responsibilities, experience, past contributions to the Company and anticipated contributions to the Company's long-term success.

Another component of the Company's long-term incentive package may include making loans to employees for the purchase of Common Shares in connection with a share purchase award under the Incentive Plan. These loans typically will be secured by the Common Shares purchased and otherwise will be non-recourse. The loans may be interest-free and may be forgiven in part over time, provided that the executive officer has not resigned as an employee of the Company, and may be forgiven in full in the event employment terminates by reason of death, disability, termination without "cause," or by such employee for "good reason," or a "change of control." In making such loans, the Executive Compensation Committee is expected to consider the same factors it considers in making grants of restricted Common Shares.

The Board and the Executive Compensation Committee believe that share options, share appreciation rights, grants of restricted shares and loans to purchase shares promote loyalty to the Company and encourage recipients to coordinate their interests with those of the shareholders. The Executive Compensation Committee may consider additional types of long-term incentives in the future.

Compensation of Chief Executive Officer

Mr. Meshon's compensation arrangement was established under an employment agreement dated as of June 16, 2000 (the "Meshon Employment Agreement"). The Meshon Employment Agreement commenced on June 16, 2000 and is for a term of five years and shall continue for successive one-year periods thereafter unless otherwise terminated as provided in the Meshon Employment Agreement.

Base Compensation

The Meshon Employment Agreement provides for annual base compensation of $325,000. The Board may, in its sole discretion, increase Mr. Meshon's base salary or other compensation.

Bonus

The Meshon Employment Agreement provides for an annual performance bonus determined by the Company and the Company's independent auditors within 100 days of the end of the calendar year. The performance bonus is calculated as follows:

| Funds From Operations Per Share ----- | Bonus ($) ----- |
|---|---|
| <$1.30 | 0 |
| $1.30 to $1.49 | $200,000 - $10,000 for each cent <$1.50 |
| $1.50 to $1.60 | $200,000 |
| $1.61 to $1.80 | $200,000 + $10,000 for each cent > $1.60 |
| > $1.80 | $400,000 + $5,000 for each cent > $1.80 |

Equity-Based Compensation

The Meshon Employment Agreement further provides for the Company to sell Mr. Meshon 75,000 restricted Common Shares of beneficial interest at a price equal to their fair market value evidenced by a full recourse promissory note that matures after 5 years. The note and the collateral therefor, consisting of the restricted Common Shares and Mr. Meshon's obligations under the note, will terminate on the earliest to occur of: (i) its full satisfaction, (ii) its fifth anniversary (if Mr. Meshon is still employed by the Company) or (iii) the termination of Mr. Meshon's employment following a change of control, termination of the employment of Mr. Meshon without cause or by Mr. Meshon for good reason or because of Mr. Meshon's death or disability. The Company will pay an amount equal to any taxes payable by him, on a full gross-up basis, at the time his obligations under the note terminate.

Severance Payment

The Meshon Employment Agreement further provides that if Mr. Meshon's employment is terminated due to a change of control, he is entitled to a payment of the greater of (i) the sum of all compensation due to Mr. Meshon during the balance of his term of employment, assuming that annual bonuses payable to him during the period equal the average of the annual bonuses paid to him under the employment agreement prior to the end of his employment or (ii) 199% of his annual salary and bonuses for the year prior to his termination.

Compensation of Chairman of the Board

Mr. Kranzendorf's compensation arrangement was established under an employment agreement dated as of June 16, 2000 (the "Kranzendorf Employment Agreement"). The Kranzendorf Employment Agreement commenced on June 16, 2000 and is for a term of five years.

Base Compensation and Severance Payment

The Kranzendorf Employment Agreement provides for annual compensation in the amount of $350,000 for the first three years and $175,000 for the last two years. The Board may, in their sole discretion, increase Mr. Kranzendorf's base salary or other compensation. The Kranzendorf Employment Agreement provides for a severance payment in case of a change of control in the amount of $1,040,000 if it occurs prior to the end of the third year and $520,000 if after the third year. The Company will also pay taxes payable by Mr. Kranzendorf under section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, with respect to any "excess parachute payment" within the meaning of the Internal Revenue Code.

Compensation of Other Officers

The Company also entered into a one-year employment agreement effective July 1, 2001 and ending June 30, 2002, with Etta M. Strehle. The base annual compensation of Etta M. Strehle is $150,000. Ms. Strehle's agreement provides for severance equal to her salary for twelve months.

In addition, the Company entered into one-year employment agreements with eight other employees, which also provide for severance payments in the event of a change in control.

Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act Implications for Executive Compensation

It is the responsibility of the Executive Compensation Committee to address the issues raised by the provisions in the tax laws, which make certain non-performance-based compensation to executives of public companies in excess of $1,000,000 non-deductible to the Company. In this regard, the Executive

Edgar Filing: KRAMONT REALTY TRUST - Form DEF 14A

Compensation Committee is responsible for considering whether any actions with respect to this limit should be taken by the Company. No executive officer of the Company received any such compensation in excess of this limit during 2001. The Incentive Plan has been designed in a manner to allow certain grants of options and share appreciation rights to be treated as performance based and, therefore, not subject to the $1,000,000 limitation. The Executive Compensation Committee is expected to continue to monitor the $1,000,000 limitation and is expected to make necessary recommendations if it is warranted in the future.

Conclusion

The Board's and the Executive Compensation Committee's goal is to enhance the profitability of the Company and, thus, shareholder value, by aligning closely the financial interests of the Company's key executives with those of its shareholders. Specifically, the Executive Compensation Committee and the Board have sought, and will continue to seek, to enhance the Company's ability to attract and retain qualified executive officers, to motivate such executives, to achieve the goals inherent in the Company's business strategy and to emphasize share ownership by such executives, and thereby, tie long-term compensation to increases in shareholder value.

To permit ongoing evaluation of the link between the Company's performance and its executive compensation, the Executive Compensation Committee intends to conduct a periodic review of the Company's executive compensation program (subject to limitations set forth in existing employment agreements).

In addition, while the elements of compensation described above will be considered separately, the Executive Compensation Committee will take into account the full compensation package afforded by the Company to the individual, including pension benefits, supplemental retirement benefits, severance plans, insurance and other benefits. In this regard, it should be noted that the Company currently has a 401(k) retirement plan which covers substantially all officers and employees of the Company. The plan permits participants to defer up to 15% of total compensation, subject to IRS limitations, which deferrals may, in the Company's sole discretion, be matched by the Company in an amount equal to 50% of the first 5% of the employee's compensation. Under the terms of the 401(k) plan, the Company may also, in its sole discretion, make additional profit sharing contributions to such plan. Until June 30, 2001, the Company had two 401(k) plans. One plan covered the former Kranzco employees and the other plan covered the former CV Reit employees. The two plans merged on July 1, 2001. For the year 2001, the Company made total contributions of $112,500.00 to these 401(k) plans.

Through the programs described above, a very significant portion of the Company's executive compensation is linked to individual and corporate performance.

Norman M. Kranzdorf

In connection with the Merger, the Company assumed the obligations of Kranzco under a lease by Norman Kranzdorf to Kranzco of a three-story building containing approximately 20,000 square feet located at 128 Fayette Street, Conshohocken, Pennsylvania, which served as Kranzco's headquarters prior to the Merger. From January 2001 through March 2001, the Company paid $18,000 in rent under the lease. The Company also paid $3,313 during this period for real estate taxes, utilities, repairs and other costs and expenses in connection with the use and occupancy of the building. During 2001, the Company leased approximately 2,500 square feet of office space to those companies on a month-to-month basis for $2,100 per month, plus an allocation of utility expenses.

On June 16, 2000, the Company sold to Louis P. Meshon, Sr. 75,000 restricted Common Shares at the then current market price per Common Share of $10.16 for a total of $762,000 evidenced by a full recourse promissory note that matures on June 15, 2005. The note and the collateral therefor consisting of the restricted Common Shares, and Mr. Meshon's obligations under the note, will terminate on the earliest to occur of: (i) the note's full satisfaction, (ii) the note's fifth anniversary (if Mr. Meshon is still employed by the Company), or (iii) the termination of Mr. Meshon's employment following a change of control, termination of the employment of Mr. Meshon without cause or by Mr. Meshon for good reason, or because of Mr. Meshon's death or disability. SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, requires the Company's trustees, executive officers, and persons who own more than 10% of a registered class of the Company's equity securities, to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership on Forms 3, 4 and 5 with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Trustees, executive officers and greater than 10% beneficial owners are required by regulation of the Securities and Exchange Commission to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) Forms 3, 4 and 5 they file.

Based solely on its review of the copies of such forms received by it, or written representations from certain reporting persons that no Forms 5 were required for those persons, the Company believes that all of its trustees, executive officers and greater than 10% beneficial owners were in compliance with the filing requirements with respect to transactions during 2001, except that Messrs. Meshon, Schneider and Levy each filed a report on Form 5 disclaiming that the OP units are derivative securities of the Company subject to Form 5 disclosure requirements.

SHAREHOLDERS PROPOSALS

Proposals of shareholders intended to be presented at the 2003 Annual Meeting of Shareholders must be received by the Company at its principal executive offices on or before December 12, 2002 for inclusion in the Company's proxy statement and form of proxy relating to that meeting.

In addition, the Bylaws of the Company provide that in order for a shareholder to nominate a candidate for election as a trustee at an annual meeting of shareholders or propose business for consideration at such a meeting, notice must be given to the secretary of the Company at the principal executive offices of the Company no more than 120 days nor less than 90 days prior to the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting; provided, however, that in the event that the date of the annual meeting is advanced by more than 30 days or delayed by more than 60 days from such anniversary date, notice by the shareholder to be timely must be delivered to the secretary of the Company not earlier than the 120th day prior to such annual meeting and not later than the close of business of the later of the 90th day prior to such annual meeting or the tenth day following the day on which public announcement of the date of such meeting is first made. Assuming that the Company's 2003 annual meeting is held on June 11, 2003, the Company must receive notice of a shareholder's intention to introduce a nomination or other item of business at the annual meeting by March 13, 2003. If we do not receive notice by that date, or if we meet other requirements of the SEC rules, the persons named as proxies in the proxy materials relating to that annual meeting will use their discretion in voting the proxies when these matters are raised at the annual meeting. The fact that the Company may not insist upon compliance with these requirements should not be construed as a waiver by the Company of its right to do so at any time in the future.

FINANCIAL AND OTHER INFORMATION

EXPENSES OF SOLICITATION

The cost of soliciting proxies will be borne by the Company. Brokers and nominees should forward soliciting materials to the beneficial owners of the Common Shares held of record by such persons, and the Company will reimburse them for their reasonable forwarding expenses. In addition to the use of the mails, proxies may be solicited by trustees, officers and regular employees of the Company, who will not be specially compensated for such services, by means of personal calls upon, or telephonic or telegraphic communications with shareholders or their personal representatives.

The Board knows of no matters other than those described in this Proxy Statement which are likely to come before the Annual Meeting. If any other matters properly come before the Annual Meeting, the persons named in the accompanying form of proxy intend to vote the proxies in accordance with their best judgment.
