The Reporting Person is an employee stock ownership plan under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA"), with individual accounts for the accrued benefits of participating employees of the Company and its subsidiaries and their beneficiaries. The number of shares listed as beneficially owned by the Reporting Person represents the entire number of shares of Common Stock held by the trustee as of December 31, 2003. The Reporting Person possesses (i) no voting power over any shares of Common Stock and (ii) shared dispositive power over unallocated and allocated shares of Common Stock. Participants have the power and authority to direct the voting of shares of Common Stock allocated to their individual accounts. Unallocated shares and allocated shares not voted by participants are required to be voted by the trustee, subject to ERISA, in the same proportion as allocated Common Stock that has been voted by participants. In certain circumstances, ERISA may confer upon the trustee the power and duty to control the voting and tendering of Common Stock allocated to the accounts of participating employees and beneficiaries who fail to exercise their voting and/or tender rights as well as the voting and tendering of unallocated Common Stock.

Item 5. Ownership of Five Percent or Less of a Class

Not applicable.

Item 6. Ownership of More than Five Percent on Behalf of Another Person

Dividends on Common Stock credited to a participant's account are, at the direction of the administrator, either (i) allocated to the participant's account, (ii) paid in cash to the participant or (iii) used by the trustee to make payments on the loan incurred by the Reporting Person to acquire Common Stock.

Item 7. Identification and Classification of the Subsidiary Which Acquired the Securities Being Reported on by the Parent Holding Company or Control Persons.

Not applicable.
