Value Investing in Small Companies for More Than  $30\ Years$

A FEW WORDS ON CLOSED-END FUNDS

Royce & Associates, LLC manages three closed-end funds: Royce Value Trust, the first small-cap value closed-end fund offering; Royce Micro-Cap Trust, the only micro-cap closed-end fund; and Royce Focus Trust, a closed-end fund that invests primarily in a limited number of small-cap companies.

A closed-end fund is an investment company whose shares are listed on a stock exchange or are traded in the over-the-counter market. Like all investment companies, including open-end mutual funds, the assets of a closed-end fund are professionally managed in accordance with the investment objectives and policies approved by the fund Board of Directors. A closed-end fund raises cash for investment by issuing a fixed number of shares through initial and other public offerings that may include periodic rights offerings. Proceeds from the offerings are invested in an actively managed portfolio of securities. Investors wanting to buy or sell shares of a publicly traded closed-end fund after the offerings must do so on a stock exchange or the Nasdaq market, as with any publicly traded stock. This is in contrast to open-end mutual funds, in which the fund sells and redeems its shares on a continuous basis.

A CLOSED-END FUND OFFERS SEVERAL DISTINCT ADVANTAGES NOT AVAILABLE FROM AN OPEN-END FUND STRUCTURE

Since a closed-end fund does not issue redeemable securities or offer its securities on a continuous basis, it does not need to liquidate securities or hold uninvested assets to meet investor demands for cash redemptions, as an open-end fund must.
$\square$ In a closed-end fund, not having to meet investor redemption requests or invest at inopportune times is ideal for value managers who attempt to buy stocks when prices are depressed and sell securities when prices are high.
A closed-end fund may invest more freely in less liquid portfolio securities because it is not subject to potential stockholder redemption demands. This is particularly beneficial for Royce-managed closed-end funds, which invest in small- and microcap securities.
Unlike open-end funds, our closed-end funds are able to distribute capital gains on a quarterly basis. Each of the Funds has adopted a quarterly distribution policy for its common stock.
We believe that the closed-end fund structure is very suitable for the long-term investor who understands the benefits of a stable pool of capital.

WHY DIVIDEND REINVESTMENT IS IMPORTANT

A very important component of an investor stotal return comes from the reinvestment of distributions. By reinvesting distributions, our investors can maintain an undiluted investment in a Fund. For additional information on the Funds Distribution Reinvestment and Cash Purchase Options and the benefits for stockholders, see page 46.

IMPORTANT PERFORMANCE, RISK AND OTHER INFORMATION

All performance information in this Report reflects past performance, is presented on a total return basis and reflects the reinvestment of distributions. Past performance is no guarantee of future results. Performance information does not reflect the deduction of taxes that a shareholder would pay on distributions or on the sale of Fund shares. Investment return and principal value of an investment will fluctuate, so that shares may be worth more or less than their original cost when sold. Current performance may be higher or lower than performance quoted. Current month-end performance may be obtained at www.roycefunds.com. The Royce Funds invest primarily in securities of small-cap and/or micro-cap companies, which may involve considerably more risk than investments in securities of larger-cap companies.

The thoughts expressed in this Report concerning recent market movements and future prospects for small company stocks are solely the opinion of Royce at December 31, 2004, and, of course, historical market trends are not necessarily indicative of future market movements. Statements regarding the future prospects for particular securities held in the Funds portfolios and Royce sinvestment intentions with respect to those securities reflect Royce sopinions as of December 31, 2004 and are subject to change at any time without notice. There can be no assurance that securities mentioned in this Report will be included in any Royce-managed portfolio in the future. The Funds invest primarily in securities of small and micro-cap companies that may involve considerably more risk than investments of larger-cap companies. All publicly released material information is always disclosed by the Funds on the website at www.roycefunds.com.

The Russell 2000, Russell 2000 Value, Russell 2000 Growth, Nasdaq Composite, S&P 500 and S&P 600 are unmanaged indices of domestic common stocks. #### LETTER TO OUR STOCKHOLDERS

Dear Stockholder,

We have redesigned and reformatted our Annual Report for 2004 to focus on the information required by SEC regulations. It now includes Managers Discussions of Fund Performance and Financial Statements for all three of our closed-end mutual funds. We have also created a new publication, the Annual Review, which features more wide-ranging commentary on the stock market as

For more than 30 years, we have used various value approaches to invest in smaller-cap securities. We focus a whole and the Funds portfolios. We hope that you find the material in each book useful and informative.

2004 was generally a positive one for the stock market as a whole, with small-cap securities enjoying a performance advantage over their large-cap counterparts. The small-cap oriented Russell 2000 index rose 18.3% in 2004, compared to respective gains of 10.9% and 8.6% for the S&P 500 and the Nasdaq Composite. For the sixth consecutive year, the Russell 2000 index outperformed the S&P 500. This past year also marked the fourth out of the last five calendar years in which the Russell 2000 outpaced the Nasdag Composite. Small-cap value stocks also enjoyed a strong year in 2004, which can be seen in the calendar-year performances of our Funds. In contrast to 2003, a year in which micro-cap and Technology companies reigned supreme, 2004 was in general kinder to the upper tier of small-cap, as well as to individual companies in diverse sectors such as Natural Resources, Finance and Industrial Products (to name just a few strong-performing areas). The trend toward larger, arguably higher-quality, small-cap stocks dominating performance within the asset class was established early in the year, an unsurprising development given the red-hot performance of many micro-cap and Tech stocks in 2003.

We believe that The Royce Funds performances generally were strong on an absolute basis in 2004 as well as over market cycles and long-term periods. While we would love to beat each Fund srespective benchmark during any particular performance period, we want to be clear that it remains our goal to achieve strong absolute returns over full market cycle and other long-term performance periods.

We appreciate your continued support.

Sincerely,

Charles M. Royce President

the robust fourth-quarter rally. For this period, the Fund was up 16.6% on a market price basis, while the Russell 2000 was up 14.1% and the S&P 600 gained 13.0%. RVT $\square$ s NAV performances over market cycle and long-term periods were similarly strong on an absolute and a relative basis. The Fund was up 78.6% from the previous small-cap market peak on 3/9/00 through 12/31/04 versus respective gains of 14.5% and 53.2% for the Russell 2000 and S&P 600. RVT gained 103.4% from the small-cap market trough on 10/9/02 through 12/31/04 versus respective gains of 104.8% and 96.5% for the Russell 2000 and the S&P 600. On an NAV basis, RVT outpaced the S&P 600 for the five-, 10-, 15-year and since inception (11/26/86) periods ended 12/31/04, while the Fund was ahead of the Russell 2000 for each of these periods as well as for the one-year and three-year periods. On a market price basis, RVT outperformed both benchmarks for the one-, three-, five-, 10-, 15-year and since inception (11/26/86) periods ended 12/31/04. The Fund s average annual NAV total return since inception was 12.9%.

The Fund enjoyed net gains on a dollar basis in virtually all of its sectors, particularly in Industrial Products, Natural Resources and Industrial Services. Several industrial companies had slumping prices in 2003, which gave us the opportunity to build existing positions. Although these businesses did not post the same heady gains as energy and financial stocks in 2004, they generally enjoyed strong returns. After hitting lows in their business cycle around the spring of 2003, many industrial companies began to recover, benefitting from increases in capital spending, the ability to pass on higher costs that came from increased raw materials prices and a robust rise in international economic growth. This led to earnings acceleration and correspondingly higher stock prices beginning late in 2003 and in general lasting through 2004.

POVCE MICRO-CAD TRUST

Manager∏s Discussion

The performance of micro-cap stocks may have cooled down a bit in 2004 following their red-hot 2003, but that did little to dampen the performance of Royce Micro-Cap Trust (RMT). For the calendar year, the Fund gained 18.7% on a net asset value (NAV) basis and an impressive 33.4% on a market value basis, both results ahead of its small-cap benchmark, the Russell 2000, which was up 18.3% for the same period. The Fund accomplished this in spite of underperforming the small-cap index on an NAV basis in the dynamic fourth-quarter rally (+12.9% versus +14.1%).Over market cycle and long-term performance periods, RMT also posted strong absolute and relative returns. On both an NAV and market price basis for the periods ended 12/31/04, RMT dramatically outperformed the Russell 2000 from both the previous small-cap market peak on 3/9/00 (+89.1% and +141.0%versus +14.5%) and the small-cap market trough on 10/9/02 (+118.9% and +156.2% versus +104.8%). The Fund also outperformed its benchmark for the three-, five-, 10-year and since inception (12/14/93)periods ended 12/31/04 on an NAV and market price annual NAV total return since inception was 14.6%.

Each of the Fund∏s 10 sectors posted net gains in 2004, with companies from several industries contributing to the year∏s terrific results. Losses came at the individual stock level, with specialty retailer The Wet Seal and IT consultant iGATE Corporation posting the largest losses on a dollar basis. Holdings in the Natural Resources sector led in terms of overall net dollar gains in the portfolio, which was consistent with the impressive performance of stocks in the energy industry within small-cap as a whole. A supply squeeze first drove commodity prices higher which in turn helped to boost stock prices. The energy services and oil and gas industry groups posted the largest net gains in the

ROYCE FOCUS TRUST

NAV AVERAGE ANNUAL TOTAL RETURNS Through 12/31/04

Manager∏s Discussion

The focus was on strong performance for several noldings in Royce Focus Trust[]s (FUND) limited portfolio of small-cap stocks in 2004, which nelped to provide its strong return on both an absolute and relative basis. For the calendar year, the Fund gained 29.2% on a net asset value (NAV) basis and 47.3% on a market price basis, both results well ahead of the 18.3% return of its small-cap benchmark, the Russell 2000, for the same period. In the dynamic fourth-quarter rally, the Fund lagged its penchmark on an NAV basis (+12.7% versus +14.1%), while impressively outpacing the Russell 2000 on a market price basis (+27.5%). Although stock prices in general fell during 2004[s second and third quarters, FUND posted positive returns in all four quarters of the calendar year on an NAV basis, which was critical both to its absolute return and its outperformance of the small-cap index. Over long-term and market cycle periods, FUND∏s results were equally impressive. For the periods ended 12/31/04, on both an NAV and market price basis, the Fund dramatically outgained the sell 2000 from the previous small-cap market peak on 3/9/00 (+128.0% and +192.6% versus +14.5%) and the small-cap market trough on 10/9/02 (+139.7% and +172.8% versus +104.8%). FUND was also ahead of the small-cap index for the three-year, five-year and since inception of our management (11/01/96) periods ended 12/31/04. The Fund  $\square$ s average annual NAV total return since inception was 14.2%.

The Fund stwo largest sectors at year end Industrial Products and Natural Resources also made the most significant contributions to performance on a dollar basis in 2004. This was mostly consistent with a vigorous small-cap market in which companies from the energy, finance and industrial areas led the way. Within Natural Resources, net dollar gains from the energy services group, including piping and oil drilling equipment maker Trican Well Service and seismic acquisition imaging technology company Input/Output, were larger than those of seven of the Fund snine equity sectors (all of which posted net gains). Improved business and consequent earnings acceleration proved a winning combination for many holdings in the Industrial Products sector, such as steel company IPSCO and construction aggregates company Florida Rock Industries. Portfolio losses were scattered across each sector, including life science medical products maker Bruker BioSciences, which we sold in October, and precious metals mining business Hecla Mining Company, a position we built as its share price declined.
