Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or By-laws; Change in Fiscal Year

On March 16, 2011, the Board of Directors of Roper Industries, Inc. (the “Company”) voted to amend and restate the By-laws of the Company dated as of February 12, 2009 in their entirety. The amendments include (i) adopting a majority voting standard for the election of directors in uncontested elections (plurality voting will be maintained in contested elections), (ii) adopting the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware as exclusive forum for certain types of actions or proceedings, (iii) revising director and officer indemnification provisions, including to provide for the advancement of expenses, the maintenance of insurance, and to provide that retroactive modification or amendment shall not adversely affect rights or protections granted in the by-laws, (iv) providing a quorum for meetings of the board of directors to be a majority of the then authorized total number of directors (increase from one-third), (v) providing that meetings of the board of directors other than regular meetings must be called upon the written request of three or more directors (increase from request of any director), (vi) clarifying that in addition to the chairman, a majority of shareholders present can adjourn a stockholder meeting at which there is no quorum, (vii) providing for the continuation in office of the officers of the corporation until successors have been duly elected and qualified and (viii) providing for electronic communications as a means of providing notice.

The foregoing description of certain of the amendments to the Company’s By-laws is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Amended and Restated By-laws, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 3.2 hereto and incorporated herein by reference.
