FERC Rate Case

On December 31, 2007, Arizona Public Service Company ( APS ) filed with the Arizona Corporation Commission (the ACC ) an application to increase annual pretax retail revenues by approximately $30 million to cover increased transmission rates approved by the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (the FERC ) on September 21, 2007. The FERC approved the increased transmission rates effective March 1, 2008, subject to refund pending the final outcome of FERC proceedings on the matter. For additional information regarding the FERC Rate Case, see FERC Rate Case in Note 5 of Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements in the Pinnacle West Capital Corporation/APS Report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended September 30, 2007. The ACC filing, which is intended to implement an ACC-approved mechanism by which changes in retail transmission charges can be reflected in APS retail rates, requests that the rate increase become effective as of March 1, 2008. APS cannot predict the outcome of this matter.
